Looking Like The Enemy My Story Of Imprisonment In Japanese American Internment Camps:

Looking Like the Enemy Mary Matsuda Gruenewald, 2005 In 1941 Mary Matsuda Gruenewald was a teenage girl who like other Americans reacted with horror to the bombing of Pearl Harbor Yet soon she and her family were among 110 000 innocent people imprisoned by the U S government because of their Japanese ancestry In this eloquent memoir she describes both the day to day and the dramatic turning points of this profound injustice what it was like to face an indefinite sentence in crowded primitive camps the struggle for survival and dignity and the strength gained from learning what she was capable of and could do to sustain her family It is at once a coming of age story with interest for young readers an engaging narrative on a topic still not widely known and a timely warning for the present era of terrorism Complete with period photos the book also brings readers up to the present including the author's celebration of the National Japanese American Memorial dedication in 2000
