Looking Like What You Are Sexual Style Race And Lesbian Identity:

Looking Like What You Are Lisa Walker, 2001-04 Looks can be deceiving and in a society where one's status and access to opportunity are largely attendant on physical appearance the issue of how difference is constructed and interpreted embraced or effaced is of tremendous import Lisa Walker examines this issue with a focus on the questions of what it means to look like a lesbian and what it means to be a lesbian but not to look like one She analyzes the historical production of the lesbian body as marked and studies how lesbians have used the frequent analogy between racial difference and sexual orientation to craft emphasize or deny physical difference In particular she explores the implications of a predominantly visible model of sexual identity for the feminine lesbian who is both marked and unmarked desired and disavowed Walker's textual analysis cuts across a variety of genres including modernist fiction such as The Well of Loneliness and Wide Sargasso Sea pulp fiction of the Harlem Renaissance the 1950s and the 1960s post modern literature as Michelle Cliff's Abeng and queer theory In the book's final chapter How to Recognize a Lesbian Walker argues that strategies of visibility are at times deconstructed at times reinscribed within contemporary lesbian feminist theory

Intersections of Gender, Class, and Race in the Long Nineteenth Century and Beyond Barbara Leonardi, 2018-12-29 This book explores the intersections of gender with class and race in the construction of national and imperial ideologies and their fluid transformation from the Romantic to the Victorian period and beyond exposing how these cultural constructions are deeply entangled with the family metaphor For example by examining the re-signification of the angel in the house and the deviant woman in the context of unstable or contingent masculinities and across discourses of class and nation the volume contributes to a more nuanced understanding of British cultural constructions in the long nineteenth century The central idea is to unearth the historical roots of the family metaphor in the construction of national and imperial ideologies and to uncover the interests served by its specific discursive formation The book explores both male and female stereotypes enabling a more perceptive comparison enriched with a nuanced reflection on the construction and social function of class

Ferguson, 2023-06-08 Race Gender Sexuality and Social Class Fourth Edition is an anthology of readings that explores the ways these social statuses shape our experiences and impact our life chances in society today Organized around broad topics identity power and privilege social institutions etc rather than categories of difference race gender class sexuality to underscore the idea that social statuses often intersect with one another to produce inequalities and form the bases of our identities in society The text features readings by leading experts in the field and reflects the many approaches scholars and researchers use to understand issues of diversity power and privilege Included with this title LMS Cartridge Import this title's instructor resources into your school's learning management system LMS and save time Don't use an LMS You can still access all of the same online resources for this title via the password protected Instructor Resource Site

Performing Queer Female Identity on Screen Jamie Stuart, 2008-07-15 Film audiences have grown used to seeing female characters in performance roles singing or dancing on stages in nightclubs musical arenas or theaters performing their femaleness for the fictional audience as well as the film viewing audience But queer women in film perform on yet another level In addition to performing their gender for the world they also perform their sexuality for either a general or an insider audience in ways that can be read to establish a queer visibility to establish a sense of community or to show romantic lesbian interest This work examines performance spaces for lesbian identities in films evaluating how queer femaleness is signified in contemporary cinema It studies five films in particular When Night Is Falling Better Than Chocolate Tipping the Velvet Slaves to the Underground and Prey for Rock and Roll Through close textual analysis evaluations of the conditions under which each film was produced and received and dozens of audience surveys it reveals much about both the story worlds of the films and the ways that queer women react to and feel about them

Different from the Others Cyd Sturgess, 2022-11-11 For much of Europe the interwar period was one of cultural expansion and diversion and increased visibility for lesbians While historical research on Germany during the period immediately after the First World War has been extensively studied by historians through the lens of gender and sexuality with an implicit emphasis on the masculine dimension of queer female sexuality the Dutch context has been virtually ignored Through careful and sensitive studies of medico social discourses media representations and literary depictions of queer femininity Different from the Others recovers the submerged history of queer feminine women in both Germany and the Netherlands Cyd Sturgess provides a theoretical analysis that makes key empirical contributions to the history of Dutch gays and lesbians while reframing our collective understanding of queer femininity more broadly

The Postapocalyptic Black Female Imagination Maxine Lavon Montgomery, 2021-06-17 Exploring postapocalypticism in the Black literary and cultural tradition this book extends the scholarly conversation on Afro futurist canon formation through an examination of futuristic imaginaries in representative twentieth and twenty first century works of literature and expressive culture by Black women in an African diasporic setting The author demonstrates the implications of Afro futurist literary criticism for Black Atlantic literary and critical theory investigating issues of hybridity transcending boundaries temporality and historical recuperation Covering writers including Octavia Butler Edwidge Danticat Nalo Hopkinson Toni Morrison Jesmyn Ward and Beyonc this book examines the ways Black women artists attempt to recover a raced and gendered heritage and how they explore an evolving social order that is both connected to and distinct from the past

Queering the Underworld Scott Herring, 2009-05-15 At the start of the twentieth century tales of how the other half lives experienced a surge in popularity People looking to go slumming without leaving home turned to these narratives for spectacular revelations of the underworld and sordid details about the deviants who populated it In this major rethinking of American literature and culture Scott Herring explores how a key group of authors manipulated this genre to paradoxically evade the confines of sexual identification Queering the Underworld examines a range of writers from Jane Addams and Willa Cather to Carl Van Vechten and Djuna Barnes revealing how they fulfilled the conventions of slumming literature but undermined its goals and in the process queered the genre itself Their work frustrated the reader's desire for sexual knowledge restored the inscrutability of sexual identity and cast doubt on the value of a homosexual subculture made visible and therefore subject to official control Herring is persuasive and polemical in connecting these writers to ongoing debates about lesbian and gay history and politics and Queering the Underworld will be widely read by students and scholars of literature history and sexuality

Passing Interest Julie Cary Nerad, 2014-07-01 Explores how the trope of racial passing continues to serve as a touchstone for gauging public beliefs and anxieties about race in this multiracial era The first volume to focus on the trope of racial passing in novels memoirs television and films published or produced between 1990 and 2010 Passing Interest takes the scholarly conversation on passing into the twenty-first century With contributors working in the fields of African American studies American studies cultural studies film studies literature and media studies this book offers a rich interdisciplinary survey of critical approaches to a broad range of contemporary passing texts Contributors frame recent passing texts with a wide array of cultural discourses including immigration law the Post Soul Aesthetic contemporary political satire affirmative action the paradoxes of colorblindness and the rhetoric of post racialism Many explore whether one drop of blood still governs our sense of racial identity or to what extent contemporary American culture allows for the racially indeterminate individual Some essays open the scholarly conversation to focus on ethnic passers individuals who complicate the traditional black white binary while others explore the slippage between traditional racial passing and related forms of racial performance including blackface minstrelsy and racial masquerade

Passing/Out Kelby Harrison, 2016-05-13 Passing Out adopts an inter generational inter disciplinary and inter subjective approach to the closeting and revelation of sexual identity exploring questions of embodiment ethics and identity in relation to passing or being out Presenting the latest theoretical and empirical work from scholars working across a range of disciplines including sociology cultural and media studies philosophy gender studies literary studies and history this book discusses the nature and history of sexual identity and the manner in which identity functions within social relationships In recognition of the transformative impact of queer theory upon the study of sexuality and identity Passing Out constructs a dialogue between the work of scholars whose intellectual careers began prior to the advent of queer theory and those whose work has been more immediately and directly shaped by this approach with a view to breaking new ground in the field of identity Shedding light on the meaning of passing and outing in relation to identity this volume will be of interest to social scientists and scholars of the humanities working on questions of sexuality identity embodiment and ethics

What's Queer about Europe? Mireille Rosello, Sudeep Dasgupta, 2014-02-03 What's Queer about Europe examines how queer theory helps us initiate disorienting conjunctions and counterintuitive encounters for imagining historical and contemporary Europe This book queers Europe and Europeanizes queer forcing a reconsideration of both Its contributors study Europe relationally asking not so much what Europe is but what we do when we attempt to define it The topics discussed include gay marriage in Renaissance Rome Russian anarchism and gender politics in early twentieth century Switzerland colonialism and sexuality in Italy queer masculinities in European popular culture queer national identities in French cinema and gender theories and activism What these apparently disparate topics have in common is the urgency of the political legal and cultural issues they tackle Asking what is queer about Europe means probing the blind spots that continue to structure the long and discrepant process of Europeanization

The Well of Loneliness Radclyffe Hall, 2024-09-10 If our love is a sin then heaven must be full of such tender and selfless sinning as ours The Well of Loneliness is among the most famous banned books in history A pioneering work of literature Radclyffe Hall's novel charts the development of a female sexual invert Stephen Gordon who from childhood feels an innate sense of masculinity and desire for women After relocating from Malvern to London and then to Paris Stephen encounters fellow queer characters from all walks of life from the sapphic salon hostess Valerie Seymour to the miserable army of outcasts that frequents the merciless drug dealing death dealing bars of Montmartre Although Stephen and her acquaintances allies and antagonists are of their time Hall's novel has offered support and solidarity to generations of LGBTQ readers and it continues to shape debates about gender and sexuality today This edition highlights previously overlooked points of influence inspiration and connections with other texts as well as situating the novel in historical contexts In addition the editors provide vital insights into Hall's engagement with religion sexology literary history and popular culture

Gender in American Literature and Culture Jean M. Lutes, Jennifer Travis, 2021-04-15 Gender in American Literature and Culture introduces readers to key developments in gender studies and American literary criticism It offers nuanced readings of literary conventions and genres from early American writings to the present and moves beyond inflexible categories of masculinity and femininity that have reinforced misleading assumptions about public and private spaces domesticity individualism and community The book also demonstrates how rigid inscriptions of gender have perpetuated a legacy of violence and exclusion in the United States Responding to a sense of 21st century cultural and political crisis it illuminates the literary histories and cultural imaginaries that have set the stage for urgent contemporary debates

Sexuality, Gender and Power Anna G. Jónasdóttir, Valerie Bryson, Kathleen B. Jones, 2011 Including studies of the sexual self and sexual subjectivities socio-political processes of normativization and social structures of sexuality and gender in national and transnational contexts this book offers a view of sexuality as a broad and complex dimension of historically changing social cultural and human material reality EBL Girls Will Be Boys Laura Horak, 2016-02-26 2016 Choice Outstanding Academic Title Finalist for 2016 Richard Wall Memorial Award by the Theatre Library Long listed for the 2017 Kraszna Krausz Best Photography Book Award from the Kraszna Krausz Foundation Marlene Dietrich Greta Garbo and Katharine Hepburn all made lasting impressions with the cinematic cross dressing they performed onscreen What few modern viewers realize however is that these seemingly daring performances of the 1930s actually came at the tail end of a long wave of gender bending films that included more than 400 movies featuring women dressed as men Laura Horak spent a decade scouring film archives worldwide looking at American films made between 1908 and 1934 and what she discovered could revolutionize our understanding of gender roles in the early twentieth century Questioning the assumption that cross dressing women were automatically viewed as transgressive she finds that these figures were popularly regarded as wholesome and regularly appeared onscreen in the 1910s thus lending greater respectability to the fledgling film industry Horak also explores how and why this perception of cross dressed women began to change in the 1920s and early 1930s examining how cinema played a pivotal part in the representation of lesbian identity Girls Will Be Boys excavates a rich history of gender bending film roles enabling readers to appreciate the wide array of masculinities that these actresses performed from sentimental boyhood to rugged virility to gentlemanly refinement Taking us on a guided tour through a treasure trove of vintage images Girls Will Be Boys helps us view the histories of gender sexuality and film through fresh eyes

Sporting Rhetoric Barry Brummett, 2009 Millions of people around the world are engaged in sports and games This volume studies the ways in which engagement is performed in popular culture We do not just watch football we perform by being a fan NBA players do not simply run up and down the court Instead on and off the court they perform certain roles many informed by hip hop culture Such performances are rhetorical they manage attitudes behaviors and predispositions influencing the distribution of power Competitive hot dog eaters bull riding and Mexican wrestlers are some of the other sports and games covered by the contributors The book is unique in bringing together the three themes of sports and games performance and the rhetoric of popular culture and is relevant for both scholarly use and classroom adoption in courses ranging from sport and society rhetoric composition persuasion and argument and popular culture Grotesque Touch Amy King, 2021-09-13 In this book Amy K King examines how violence between women in contemporary Caribbean and American texts is rooted in plantation slavery Analyzing films television shows novels short stories poems book covers and paintings King shows how contemporary media reuse salacious and stereotypical depictions of relationships between women living within the plantation system to confront its legacy in the present The vestiges of these relationships enslavers and enslaved women employers and domestic servants lovers and rivals negate characters efforts to imagine non abusive approaches to power and agency King s work goes beyond any other study to date to examine the intersections of gender sexuality race ethnicity class ability and nationality in U S and Caribbean depictions of violence between women in the wake of slavery
