Managing External Relations In Schools And College:

Managing External Relations in Schools and Colleges Jacky Lumby, Nick Fosskett, 1999-05-26 I was pleased to find that the work lived up to its title and covered both schools and college issues with equal thoroughness This is a very readable stimulating and valuable publication Mentoring Tutoring This book explores all the major aspects of managing external relations in schools of all phases as well as in colleges The authors use empirical research evidence to analyze how schools and colleges can manage external relations to achieve productive and supportive relationships with their communities They explore how a responsive philosophy and appropriate marketing can be adopted in order to ensure continuous development

Managing External Relations in Schools Nicholas Hedley Fosskett, 2002-11-01 The educational environment of the 1990 s is characterized by increasing independence for schools in a more competitive climate This book is intended to be of direct practical help to those involved in ensuring the long term wellbeing of schools for the benefit of the pupils they educate Its aim is to provide both an overview of the issues relating to external relations in schools and an insight into the organizational and planning systems that can be applied to dealing with them In particular it focuses on the overall field of external relations and on its individual facets ranging from the management of links with the LEA liaison with parents and issues in primary secondary school links to school identity and marketing The book is divided into four integrated parts which examine approaches to the management of external relations links with the educational environment links with the community and external relations Managing External Relations in Schools places the new challenges arising from the Education Reform Act and LMS into a broad context which is much wider than the common concept of public relations and marketing This will enable teachers and school managers to consider more systematically the management needs of the institution s external links Each of the contributors is an expert in his or own field and has written from the perspective of real challenges and issues facing schools Ideas on enhancing efficiency and effectiveness in all spheres of external relations underpin the themes in the book

Managing Finance, Resources and Stakeholders in Education Lesley Anderson, Ann R J Briggs, Neil Burton, 2001-10-25 The text is challenging and stimulating and structured to provide the reader with an accessible synopsis of the range of current trends and solutions in the area of educational financial management being applied in the UK and the global context Improving Schools Managing Finance Resources and Stakeholders in Education provides readers with knowledge and understanding of the theory and practice of managing finance resources and stakeholders in schools and colleges Written specifically for those studying for an academic qualification at masters level in educational management it provides self study material and links to other key texts in the field The authors deal with the links between finance resources and stakeholders in the context of school and college self management Examples are drawn from international settings as well as from the United Kingdom Building on an examination of theoretical perspectives practical considerations and applications are examined in a format which encourages the reader to explore the context of their own educational institution

Leading and Managing Education Nicholas Fosskett, Jacky Lumby, 2003-04-14 Provides a range of perspectives on key themes drawing on contrasting examples of practice from different national and cultural settings mapping the international landscape of leadership and management in education

Managing Further Education Jacky Lumby, 2001-06-06 This is a welcome addition to an impoverished field and will be referred to extensively by management developers college managers undertaking postgraduate studies and by researchers Learning and Skills Research Journal The incorporation of the further education sector in 1993 was followed by a period of extreme turbulence Colleges plunged into the complex task of managing huge organizations while under pressure from cuts in funding and a steady expansion in the number and range of students While financial scandals may have attracted attention the success of the further education sector in continuing to provide a vital educational service for millions of people has been less recognized Despite the significant contribution of the sector to education and training practitioners struggle to find adequate research evidence on which to base reflection and practice They need material relevant to the specific situation of managers working within this very hybrid sector part public sector education and part commercial organization catering for an age and ability range greater than that of any other educational sector Based on a national survey of college managers this book investigates how managers are responding to the challenge to increase the numbers and range of students and to improve learning and teaching The author shows what it means to lead in a college and how the culture has evolved Each chapter focuses on an aspect of management The book concludes that learning enterprise is an apt description of further education a sector which has retained learning at its core and has learned to adopt an entrepreneurial spirit to shape its future Managing Further Education will be essential reading for professionals working in further education and all those interested in the management of this complex and vital part of educational provision
