

Major Trends in Human Resources in the 21st Century

Organizations will lean on human resources professionals as strong leaders who help employers and employees navigate through the workplace challenges of the 21st century.

• Technology Training

Human Resources will take the lead role in helping organizations transition from local servers to using unlimited storage on the Internet with cloud services. To make the transition, human resources will hire experts in cloud computing to integrate cloud applications, mobile devices and social media. In addition to the integration, the experts will train staff on cloud operations as part of a company's daily operations. Human resources will also play a role in developing policies on employees' personal devices and data plans.
