Managing Monsters Six Myths Of Our Time The 1994 Reith Lectures:

Managing Monsters Marina Warner, 1994 Marina Warner's 1994 Reith Lectures in which she offered a definition of myth and its many contemporary faces exploring the monster children mothers strangers and the idea of home Childhood in the Contemporary English Novel Sandra Dinter, 2019-10-10 Since the 1980s novels about childhood for adults have been a booming genre within the contemporary British literary market Childhood in the Contemporary English Novel offers the first comprehensive study of this literary trend Assembling analyses of key works by Ian McEwan Doris Lessing P D James Nick Hornby Sarah Moss and Stephen Kelman and situating them in their cultural and political contexts Sandra Dinter uncovers both the reasons for the current popularity of such fiction and the theoretical shift that distinguishes it from earlier literary epochs The book's central argument is that the contemporary English novel draws on the constructivist paradigm shift that revolutionised the academic study of childhood several decades ago Contemporary works of fiction Dinter argues depart from the notion of childhood as a naturally given phase of life and examine the agent's interests and conflicts involved in its cultural production Dinter also considers the limits of this new theoretical impetus observing that authors and scholars alike even when they claim to conceive of childhood as a construct do not always give up on the idea of its natural core Accordingly this book reconstructs how the English novel between the 1980s and the 2010s oscillates between an acknowledgment of constructivism and an endorsement of childhood as the last irrevocable quintessence of humanity In doing so it successfully extends the literary and cultural history of childhood to the immediate present Exploring Urban Youth Culture Outside of the Gang Paradigm Jade Levell, Tara Young, Rod Earle, 2025-03-18 On road is a complex term used by young people to describe street-based subculture and a general way of being Featuring the voices of young people this collection explores how race class and gender dynamics shape this aspect of youth culture With young people on road often becoming criminalised due to interlocking structural inequalities this book looks beyond concerns about gangs and presents empirical research from scholars and activists who work with and study the social lives of young people It addresses the concerns of practitioners policy makers and scholars by analysing aspects and misinterpretations of the shifting realities of young people's urban life Girls, Boys, Books, Toys Beverly Lyon Clark, Margaret R. Higonnet, 2000-10-24 No previous collection of criticism has focused on gender in the broad range of children's literature No previous collection has embraced both children's literature and material culture Beverly Lyon Clark and Margaret R. Higonnet bring together twenty-two scholars to look closely at the complexities of children's culture Girls Boys Books Toys asks questions about how the gender symbolism of children's culture is constructed and resisted What happens when women rewrite or illustrate nursery rhymes adventure stories and fairy tales told by men How do the socially scripted plots for boys and girls change through time and across cultures Have critics been blind to what women write about masculine topics Can animal tales or doll stories displace tired commonplaces about gender race and class Can different critical approaches new historicism narratology or postcolonialism enable us to gain leverage on the different implications of gender age race and class in our readings of children s books and children s culture Beyond Borders Paula S. Rothenberg,2006 This interdisciplinary collection of 82 articles is designed to bring today s most pressing issues into the classroom and help prepare college students to assume their roles as members of an increasingly global community Science Fiction and Organization Matthew Higgins,Geoff Lightfoot,Martin Parker,Warren Smith,2003-08-29 This international collection explores how science fiction can enrich studies of organization The papers assembled draw upon perspectives from across the arts and social sciences

Environment Bruce Braun,2017-10-24 Spanning cultural and political ecology the political economy of the environment humanistic landscape interpretation cultural studies of nature and science and technology studies this volume is the definitive guide to environmental studies in Human Geography over the past 30 years The articles collected capture conceptual developments in the field for audiences within and beyond Geography and illustrate the diversity and remarkable vitality of geographical research on society environment relations From Nursery Rhymes to Nationhood Elizabeth Galway,2010-12-22 As Canada came to terms with its role as an independent nation following Confederation in 1867 there was a call for a literary voice to express the needs and desires of a new country Children s literature was one of the means through which this new voice found expression Seen as a tool for both entertaining and educating children this material is often overtly propagandistic and nationalistic and addresses some of the key political economic and social concerns of Canada as it struggled to maintain national unity during this time From Nursery Rhymes to Nationhood studies a large variety of children s literature written in English between 1867 and 1911 revealing a distinct interest in questions of national unity and identity among children s writers of the day and exploring the influence of American and British authors on the shaping of Canadian identity The visions of Canada expressed in this material are often in competition with one another but together they illuminate the country s attempts to define itself and its relation to the world outside its borders Soccer, Women, Sexual Liberation Fan Hong,J.A. Mangan,2004-11-23 This is the first in depth global study of women s football across the world This collection considers women s football in fifteen countries worldwide in a global context and analyzes its progress challenges and problems it has faced It shows how women s football has made a significant contribution to the emancipation of women s football in many countries It also traces the evolution of women s football in face of resistance rejection and prejudice and describes women footballer s struggle for equal rights in a male dominated football world

The Postmodern Fairytale Kevin Paul Smith,2007-07-31 Why is Shrek one of the greatest selling DVDs of all time Why are shampoo advertisements based on Sleeping Beauty Why is it that the same simple stories keep being told This study attempts to explain why fairy tales keep popping up in the most unexpected places and why the best storytellers begin their tales with once upon a time Keywords for Children's Literature, Second Edition Philip Nel,Lissa Paul,Nina Christensen,2021-01-12 Introduces key terms global concepts debates and histories for Children s Literature in an updated edition Over the past decade there has been a proliferation of exciting new work across many areas of children's literature and culture Mapping this vibrant scholarship the Second Edition of Keywords for Children's Literature presents original essays on essential terms and concepts in the field Covering ideas from Aesthetics to Voice an impressive multidisciplinary cast of scholars explores and expands on the vocabulary central to the study of children's literature The second edition of this Keywords volume goes beyond disciplinary and national boundaries Across fifty nine print essays and nineteen online essays it includes contributors from twelve countries and an international advisory board from over a dozen more The fully revised and updated selection of critical writing more than half of the essays are new to this edition reflects an intentionally multinational perspective taking into account non English traditions and what childhood looks like in an age of globalization All authors trace their keyword's uses and meanings from translation to poetry taboo to diversity and trauma to nostalgia the book's scope clarity and interdisciplinary play between concepts make this new edition of Keywords for Children's Literature essential reading for scholars and students alike

Contemporary Italian Women Writers and Traces of the Fantastic Danielle Hipkins, 2017-12-02 Contemporary fantastic fiction particularly that written by women often challenges traditional literary practice At the same time the predominantly male authored canon of fantastic literature offers a problematic range of gender stereotypes for female authors to re write Fantastic tropes of space in particular enable three important contemporary Italian female writers Paola Capriolo b 1962 Francesca Duranti b 1935 and Rossana Ombres b 1931 to encounter and counter anxieties about writing from the female subject All three writers begin by exploring the hermetic fantastic space of enclosure with a critical or troubled eye but eventually opt for wider national and often international spaces in which only a fantastic trace remains This shift mirrors their own increasingly confident distance from male authored literary models and demonstrates the creative input that these writers bring to the literary canon by redefining its generic boundaries

Tibet, Tibet Patrick French, 2009-09-09 At different times in its history Tibet has been renowned for pacifism and martial prowess enlightenment and cruelty The Dalai Lama may be the only religious leader who can inspire the devotion of agnostics Patrick French has been fascinated by Tibet since he was a teenager He has read its history agitated for its freedom and risked arrest to travel through its remote interior His love and knowledge inform every page of this learned literate and impassioned book Talking with nomads and Buddhist nuns exiles and collaborators French portrays a nation demoralized by a half century of Chinese occupation and forced to depend on the patronage of Western dilettantes He demolishes many of the myths accruing to Tibet including those centering around the radiant figure of the Dalai Lama Combining the best of history travel writing and memoir Tibet, Tibet is a work of extraordinary power and insight

The Palgrave Handbook to Horror Literature Kevin Corstorphine, Laura R. Kremmel, 2018-11-07 This handbook examines the use of horror in storytelling from oral traditions through folklore and fairy tales to contemporary horror fiction Divided into sections that explore the origins and evolution of horror fiction the recurrent themes that can be seen in horror and ways of understanding horror through literary and cultural theory the text analyses why horror is so compelling and how we should interpret its presence in literature Chapters explore historical horror aspects including ancient mythology medieval writing drama chapbooks the Gothic novel and literary Modernism and trace themes such as vampires children and animals in horror deep dark forests labyrinths disability and imperialism Considering horror via postmodern theory evolutionary psychology postcolonial theory and New Materialism this handbook investigates issues of gender and sexuality race censorship and morality environmental studies and literary versus popular fiction PJ Harvey and Music Video Performance Abigail

Gardner,2016-03-09 PJ Harvey s performances are premised on the core contention that she is somehow causing trouble Just how this trouble can be theorised within the context of the music video and what it means for a development of the ways we might conceptualise disruption and think about music video lies at the heart of this book Abigail Gardner mixes feminist theory and critical models from film and video scholarship as a rich means of interrogating Harvey s work and redefining her disruptive strategies The book presents a rethinking of the masquerade that allies it to cultural memory precipitated by Gardner s claim that Harvey s performances are conversations with the past specifically with visualised memories of archetypes of femininity Harvey s masquerades emerge from her conversations and renegotiations with both national and transatlantic musical visual and lyrical heritages It is the first academic book to present analysis of Harvey s music videos and opens up fresh avenues into exploring what is at stake in the video work of one of Britain s premier singer songwriters It extends the discussion on music video to consider how to make sense of the rapidly developing digital environment in which it now sits The interdisciplinary nature of the book should attract readers from a range of subject areas including popular music studies cultural studies media and communication studies and gender studies Geographies of New Femininities

Nina Laurie,Claire Dywer,Sarah L. Holloway,Fiona Smith,2014-06-03 Geographies of New Femininities examines the emergence of contemporary constructions of femininity in a global context It asks whether these femininities are new and suggests that current celebrations of diversity in the lived experience and performance of women s identities are largely Euro centric Through four in depth case studies Geographies of New Femininities illustrates how constructions of femininities across the world reflect gender inequalities embedded within global local geographies of social and economic change The analysis brings together key themes in geography and feminist studies showing how globalisation and the fracturing of identities are influencing research on gender Throughout the book the authors explore spaces of opportunity and oppression for women and highlight the geographies associated with the negotiation of gender identities Geographies of New Femininities moves between empirical and theoretical debate using first hand accounts to work through methodological issues relating to gender and geography It is deliberately written in an accessible style to encourage students to engage with up to date research on gender Feminist Gothic, Critical Irrealism and Arab Women's World-Literature Roxanne

Douglas,2025-08-13 This book moves the field of study of Arab women s writing on from the Anglophone preoccupation with the bravery that it takes to put pen to paper and instead focuses on what the pen actually does This book shows that Arab women writers innovate and utilise Gothic forms to live with the ghosts of foremothers who represent lost knowledges about violence and feminised heritage Examining contemporary Arab women s writing from the 1970s to the present through the lens of world literary systems and feminist theory this book details aesthetic patterns between decades nations and authors The works of canonical Arab feminist authors such as Nawal El Saadawi and Hanan Al Shaykh are put in conversation with those of contemporary authors such as Adania Shibli Joumana Haddad and Mansoura Ez Eldin These works are linked through their creative feminist theorisations of loss and living Metaphors of Motherhood in Marina Warner's Fiction and Short Fiction Souhir Zekri Masson, 2025-07-24 This volume oversees the fluctuating but close relationship of motherhood studies maternal theory and feminism in Marina Warner s fiction and short stories Originating in Chantal Zabus analysis of the controversial Sycorax and Ariel in Indigo or Mapping the Waters the phrase sisterly continuum has inspired this book s focus on a parallel motherly continuum linking and animating the myriad female characters of the most prolific twentieth and twenty first century British cultural historian and novelist By tracing and analyzing the wide variety of fictional mothers and their maternal practices through the lens of various feminist and maternal theories this book attempts to deconstruct the false binary oppositions of good versus bad mother biological birth versus foster or adoptive mother and most importantly that of motherhood as a patriarchal institution versus mothering as an identity and an experience Thanks to her fictional exploration of the process of becoming a mother whether physically socially or mentally and of becoming a sexually mature adult thanks to mothering Warner s alternatives to conventional aspects of motherhood offer a wide array of maternal metaphors that nuance the concept of mother and traverse the borders of class race and geography As exiled goddesses and witches female academicians and mistresses fight their way through colonialism racism and misogyny their paradoxical status as mothers and ambiguous relationships to their daughters and sons bring an extra layer of meaning to their experiences identities and perspectives Youth Justice: Theory & Practice Jane Pickford, 2012-12-06 This innovative text examines contemporary issues in youth justice in the light of the sweeping reforms introduced by the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 and the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Bill 1999 It brings together current debates in both the practice and theory of youth justice intervention and in the light of the governments inter agency approach to the problem of youth criminality provides an inter disciplinary examination of these discussions Including contributions from both academics magistrates and social work practitioners it is a useful text for students of criminology law and social work as well as a valuable resource for youth justice practitioners Potent Fictions Mary Hilton, 2012-11-12 Today s children spend more time than ever before watching television playing computer games and reading comic and pulp fiction Many of these are directly designed by the toy and media industry Are children therefore simply being manipulated There is widespread concern that because of these kinds of popular fiction children do not read quality literature resulting in lower standards of literacy There is also the further fear that because many of these popular media portray highly stereotyped gendered images this too will have a damaging effect on children Mary Hilton's fascinating book proves that there is another side to the argument We do not have to view popular culture as a threat to our children or their education The writers of this collection show how used carefully alongside other types of literature popular culture can actually help teachers to develop literacy in a broad and positive sense

Managing Monsters Six Myths Of Our Time The 1994 Reith Lectures: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Managing Monsters Six Myths Of Our Time The 1994 Reith Lectures : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
