Tennent,2010-05-01 This fresh comprehensive text fills a need for an up to date theology of mission It offers creative approaches to answering some of the most pressing questions in theology of mission and missionary practice today The authors who are leading mission experts discuss biblical theology of mission provide historical overviews of the development of various viewpoints and address theologically current issues in global mission from an evangelical perspective This readable yet thorough text integrates current views of the kingdom of God and holistic mission with traditional views of evangelism and church planting It also brings theology of mission into conversation with ecclesiology and eschatology Topics covered include contextualization the missionary vocation church and mission and theology of religions Sidebars and case studies enable readers to see how theology of mission touches real life mission practice Missions in a New Millennium W. Edward Glenny,William H. Smallman, What does the changing face of missions look like What challenges will appear in the years to come A number of key missionaries mission agency leaders seminary professors and pastors present insightful presentations of missions past and present seeking to revitalize the future of world evangelism Logic as the Question Concerning the Essence of Language , The New York Times Index ,1921 Laws of the Territory of Papua and New Guinea Papua New Guinea,1951 The Lausanne Treaty, Turkey and Armenia American Committee Opposed to the Lausanne Treaty,1926 This volume is a collection of essays as well as the text of the treaty and letters to and from members of the government The basis for the Committee s opposition to the treaty is that it does not punish the perpetrators of the Armenian genocide Moreover the Committee asserts the right of Armenians to an independent state supported by the United States The essays attack the issue from a variety of standpoints including humanitarian on the basis of honor and as a matter of economic political weakness specifically in that the treaty ended foreign rights to extraterritorial privileges within Turkey A common thread is that most of the essays are from a Christian standpoint the writers assert that the killing of Armenians is especially terrible because they are Christians being killed by Muslims or that the treaty itself is anti Christian Diplomat in Khaki Andrew J. Bacevich,1989 Regulating Business for Peace Jolyon Ford,2015-02-05 This book addresses gaps in thinking and practice on how the private sector can both help and hinder the process of building peace after armed conflict It argues that weak governance in fragile and conflict affected societies creates a need for international authorities to regulate the social impact of business activity in these places as a special interim duty Policymaking should seek appropriate opportunities to engage with business while harnessing its positive contributions to sustainable peace However scholars have not offered frameworks for what is considered appropriate engagement or properly theorised techniques for how best to influence responsible business conduct United Nations peace operations are peak symbols of international regulatory responsibilities in conflict settings and debate continues to grow around the private sector's role in development generally This book is the first to study how peace operations have engaged with business to influence its peace building impact
