Mandate for Marriage Catherine O'Connor, 1995 Ethics Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 2005 Based on careful reconstruction of the manuscripts freshly and expertly translated and annotated this crown jewel of Bonhoeffer's body of work is the culmination of his theological and personal odyssey Ethics, repackaged edition Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 2024-12-31 This is the last book that Bonhoeffer wrote before he was arrested by the Nazis Pages of it were on his desk the day he was taken away and it remained unfinished It is bold provocative and profound Based on careful reconstruction of the manuscripts freshly and expertly translated and annotated this crown jewel of Bonhoeffer's body of work is the culmination of his theological and personal odyssey This edition is published with a foreword by Sam Wells The Bible, Sexuality, and Culture Brian Neil Peterson, 2021-05-26 We are living in a rapidly changing culture Since the 1960s the changes in our sexual ethics have become increasingly problematic How are people especially Evangelicals and other conservative Christians supposed to respond Does the Bible address these seismic changes How is a believer supposed to raise a family in the cultural chaos of the twenty first century If you have asked any of these questions before then this book is for you Peterson argues forcefully that the changes in our culture are a direct result of a postmodern and post Christian cultural rejection of the mandates established by God in the opening two chapters of Genesis The reason Western culture is imploding morally is directly connected to the Enemy's undoing of each of the Genesis mandates established by God for human and cultural flourishing With Western culture's rejection or undoing of every one of God's mandates in Genesis is there any hope for the survival of once thriving Judeo Christian cultures Peterson tackles these and many other issues in a forthright and unreserved manner This book is not for the faint of heart It is a call for a return to cultural sanity rooted in the fear of God and his Word The Teachings of Modern Protestantism on Law, Politics, and Human Nature John Witte (Jr.), John Witte, Frank S. Alexander, 2007 The Teachings of Modern Protestantism on Law Politics and Human Nature examines how modern Protestant thinkers have answered the most pressing political legal and ethical questions of our time It discusses the enduring teachings of important Protestant intellectuals of the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries Leading contemporary scholars analyze these thinkers' views on the nature and purpose of law and authority the limits of rule and obedience the care of the needy and innocent the ethics of war and violence and the separation of church and state among other themes A diverse and powerful portrait of Protestant legal and political thought this volume underscores the various ways Protestant intellectuals have shaped modern debates over the family the state religion and society The book focuses on the work of Abraham Kuyper 1827 1920 Susan B Anthony 1820 1906 Karl Barth 1886 1968 Dietrich Bonhoeffer 1906 1945 Reinhold Niebuhr 1892 1971 Martin Luther King Jr 1929 1968 William Stringfellow 1928 1985 and John Howard Yoder 1927 1997 Bonhoeffer Down Under Ian Packer, Gordon Preece, 2012-08-30 If Protestants had saints Dietrich Bonhoeffer martyred under Hitler on April 9 1945 just days before the Allies reached his concentration camp would be one of the first

canonised Not just his unsought martyr's death but his life's movement from privilege to growing identification with the suffering his courageous return from the safety and beckoning success of the US to Germany his work with the Confessing Church and more controversially with the underground resistance in the plot to assassinate Hitler all argue his case for canonisation Bonhoeffer is among ten twentieth century martyrs above the Great West Door at Westminster Cathedral where their portraits of ten tell more about the artists and their age than the saint and theirs the movement of their lives and the movements they belonged to or founded This is certainly true of Bonhoeffer and the Church of his anguished age This collection of essays is from Down Under for with the exception of the paper by UK theologian Keith Clements are all the papers are by writers who live and work in the southern hemisphere They include former Australian Prime Minister Kevin Rudd South African theologian John de Gruchy and a number of Australian writers These include papers by historian John Moses and theologians Gordon Preece Brian Rosner Bruce Barber Max Chamption and Neil Holm Kevin Rudd writes in this volume that Bonhoeffer is without doubt the man I admire most in the history of the twentieth century He was a man of faith He was a man of reason He was never a nationalist always an internationalist For tormented twenty first century humanity Bonhoeffer is still one of our best guides to that new humanity being birthed by the Spirit of Christ in the midst of those seeing from and suffering below

Law and Identity in Mandate Palestine Assaf Likhovski, 2006-12-08 One of the major questions facing the world today is the role of law in shaping identity and in balancing tradition with modernity In an arid corner of the Mediterranean region in the first decades of the twentieth century Mandate Palestine was confronting these very issues Assaf Likhovski examines the legal history of Palestine showing how law and identity interacted in a complex colonial society in which British rulers and Jewish and Arab subjects lived together Law in Mandate Palestine was not merely an instrument of power or a method of solving individual disputes says Likhovski It was also a way of answering the question Who are we British officials Jewish lawyers and Arab scholars all turned to the law in their search for their identities and all used it to create and disseminate a hybrid culture in which Western and non Western norms existed simultaneously Uncovering a rich arsenal of legal distinctions notions and doctrines used by lawyers to mediate between different identities Likhovski provides a comprehensive account of the relationship between law and identity His analysis suggests a new approach to both the legal

Inch, 2017-02-20 Two rival analogies compete for our attention the law of the jungle and the sacred canopy As for the former life consists of the survival of the fittest As for the latter the divine mandates serve as a framework for social ethics This is in keeping with the conviction that we live in God s world by his grace and for his glory The first major segment consists of a paper trail where the topic is explored in context of biblical narrative The second discusses the four traditional mandates as pertains to labor family government and church The third touches on the endowments with reference to life liberty and the pursuit of happiness All things considered the text is calculated to contribute to a Christian world and life view In greater detail the mandates serve in a dual capacity Obviously to establish the credentials for select social institutions but also by insisting persons to comply with legitimate social obligations Meant to superintend God s creation humans continue to fall short of their appointed task Along with the diminishing of God s glory Calling for a commitment to the divine mandates and their extended implications      A Practical Commentary on the Code of Canon Law Stanislaus Woywod, 1925      The Encyclopaedia of Pleading and Practice, 1902      New Commentary on the Code of Canon Law John P. Bonhoeffer's Christocentric Theology and Fundamental Debates in Environmental Ethics Steven C. van den Heuvel, 2017-05-04. There is widespread understanding of the close connection between religion and the ecological crisis and that in order to amend this crisis, theological resources are needed. This monograph seeks to contribute to this endeavor by engaging the theology of Dietrich Bonhoeffer. His theology is particularly suitable in this context due to its open-ended nature and to the prophetic and radical nature of the questions he was prepared to ask; that is why there are many other attempts to contextualize Bonhoeffer's theology in areas that he himself has not directly written about. In this monograph, Steven van den Heuvel first of all addresses the question of how to translate Bonhoeffer's theology in a methodologically sound way. He settles on a modified form of the general method of correlation. Then secondly, van den Heuvel sets out to describe five major concepts in Bonhoeffer's work, bringing these into critical interplay with discussions in environmental ethics and eco-theology. In making the correlations, he thoroughly describes each concept, situating it in the historic and intellectual background of Bonhoeffer's time. He then transposes these concepts to contemporary environmental ethics, describing what contribution Bonhoeffer's theology can make.
