The Mandate of Heaven S J Marshall, S. J. Marshall, 2015-12-14 The Mandate of Heaven was originally given to King Wen in the 11th century BC King Wen is credited with founding the Zhou dynasty after he received the Mandate from Heaven to attack and overthrow the Shang dynasty King Wen is also credited with creating the ancient oracle known as the Yijing or Book of Changes This book validates King Wen's association with the Changes It uncovers in the Changes a record of a total solar eclipse that was witnessed at King Wen's capital of Feng by his son King Wu shortly after King Wen had died before he had a chance to launch the full invasion The sense of this eclipse as an actual event has been overlooked for three millennia It provides an account of the events surrounding the conquest of the Shang and founding of the Zhou dynasty that has never been told It shows how the earliest layer of the Book of Changes the Zhouyi has preserved a hidden history of the Conquest

Yijing was originally composed for the purpose of divination by the mythic sage Fuxi who intended to create a system to aid decision making. The text's meaning therefore could not be captured by a single commentator; it would emerge for each person through the process of divination. This translation makes available to the English language audience a crucial text in the history of Chinese religion and philosophy with an introduction and translator's notes that explain its intellectual and historical context.

The Primary Way Chung-ying Cheng, 2020-09-01. In The Primary Way the distinguished scholar of Chinese philosophy Chung-ying Cheng synthesizes his lifetime of work on the Yijing, also known as the I Ching or Book of Changes. Cheng offers a systematic engagement with the classic Chinese text as a philosophy that is still valuable and relevant today. In contemporary philosophical terms, Cheng has developed the ontological hermeneutics of the Yijing as well as its philosophical methodology of symbolic reference in a holistic and onto-generative system of trigrams and hexagrams. The book is organized around eight themes that illuminate Cheng's interpretation of the Yijing as a philosophy for creative human action and transformation. He demonstrates how the philosophy of change in the Yijing embodies early Chinese ontology, cosmology, epistemology, and virtue ethics in the interpretation of divinatory judgments. Cheng's work shows how the philosophy of change contains a vision of humanity as creatively related to heaven and earth and how it gives positive meaning to any change as part of a ceaseless creativity. With this understanding, it enables humanity to develop its potential as a partner of heaven and earth.

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Global Medieval Life and Culture Joyce E. Salisbury, Nancy Sullivan, 2008-12-30. The period we know as the Middle Ages, roughly the years 400-1400, saw the formation of ideas and institutions that mark modern societies. Developments as disparate as the foundation of Islam and the emergence of the middle class occurred during this pivotal millennium. Although historical study of the Middle Ages has traditionally focused on Western Europe, modern historians recognize the complex global nature of this era. For all major world regions, this three-volume work offers in-depth essays on broad themes, short entries on specific topics, and carefully selected primary documents to help readers more fully understand this critically important period. Edited by Joyce Salisbury, who is general editor of the award-winning Greenwood Encyclopedia of Daily Life and written by Professor Salisbury and a series of prominent historians with regional expertise, Greenwood Encyclopedia of Global Medieval Life and Culture comprises three volumes covering the following areas of the globe: Volume 1: Europe and the Americas; Volume 2: Islam and Africa; Volume 3: Asia and Oceania. Each regional section comprises seven in-depth essays covering the following broad topics and concluding with bibliographies of important and current information resources: Historical Overview of the Region; Religion; Economy; The Arts; Society; Science and Technology; and Global Ties. The Global Ties essays trace the political, social, economic, religious, technological, or commercial connections that existed between the region under discussion and any other world regions during the Middle Ages. Each regional section also includes a series of brief entries covering people, events, developments, and concepts mentioned in the in-depth essays. Examples of entry topics include the following: Berbers, Emperor Harsha, Ethiopian

Christianity Flowery Warfare Footbinding Hildegard of Bingen Jainism Jihad Maya Collapse Neo Confucianism Romanesque and Sharia A series of sidebars in each section will provide lists graphs charts and other useful data relating to the region Each section will also be illustrated and will include a selection of interesting primary documents that further illustrate the main themes addressed in the in depth essays Cross references within the sections and a detailed subject index will also help readers access information in the essays and short entries

The Classic of Changes in Cultural Context , A Double Vision Hermeneutic Samuel Hio-Kee Ooi,2015-02-26 The aim of this thesis is to unfold the multilayered intersubjective experience of the author himself a Chinese pastor The author postulates himself as the subject in whom the said experience was evident so that it can be analyzed and interpreted The author argues for a cultural linguistic experience of shi as the locus at which the intersubjective experience takes place He then shows that such experience embodies a Chinese Christian s two texts inheritance and argues that it is through unfolding or revealing of such experience that the nature of his relationship with them can be demonstrated

Contemporary Interpretations and Readings of the Yijing Geir Sigurðsson,Tze-ki Hon,2025-04-29 This book questions whether the ancient iconic Chinese book of divination The Classic of Changes Yijing might help us navigate the precarious complex and seemingly unpredictable intricacies of present contemporary times The essays contained in this book respond affirmatively to this question in seeking to show how The Classic of Changes can help us think through the particularly human challenge of establishing meaning and making choices between alternatives The author s book explores and discusses novel and often surprising ways for contemporary readers to interpret and apply this ancient Chinese classic touching upon fields such as narration technology ecology psychology aesthetics ontology cognition semiotics and gender issues This book is of appeal to both students and informed readers with an interest in the mysteries of The Classic of Changes and to researchers in areas of Chinese philosophy Chinese history religious studies and East Asian approaches to health and well being
