Manet, the Execution of Maximilian Juliet Wilson Bareau, 1992 Inexpressiveness made a strong political statement and became a potent symbol of failed imperial ambition MANET. THE EXECUTION OF MAXIMILIAN. Juliet Wilson-Bareau, 1992

Manet, 1992 Perspectives on Manet Therese Dolan, 2017-07-05 Bringing forth fresh perspectives on Manet's art by established scholars this volume places this compelling and elusive artist's painted oeuvre within a broader cultural context and links his artistic preoccupations with literary and musical currents Rather than seeking consensus on his art through one methodology or focusing on one crucial work or period this collection investigates the range of Manet's art in the context of his time and considers how his vision has shaped subsequent interpretations Specific essays explore the relationship between Manet and Whistler Emile Zola's attitude toward the artist Manet's engagement with moral and ethical questions in his paintings and the heritage of Charles Baudelaire and Clement Greenberg in critical responses to Manet Through these and other analyses this volume illuminates the scope of Manet's career and indicates the crucial position the artist held in generating a modernist avant garde aesthetic Manet's Silence and the Poetics of Bouquets James Henry Rubin, Édouard Manet, 1994 Rubin also examines Manet's relationship to three of the leading critics of his day Baudelaire Zola and Mallarmé giving special attention to Mallarmé's appreciation and eventual use in his own poetry of the paradox between immersion and externality in Manet's oeuvre Finally the book uses the image of the bouquet to exemplify Manet's creative poetics through an exploration of his still life Manet Manette Carol M. Armstrong, Édouard Manet, 2002-01-01 Manet a founding father of modernism is one of the towering figures of 19th century art In this volume Carol Armstrong looks closely at Manet's works to uncover a view not only of the artist but also of modernity itself As she places his art within frameworks of colour the feminine Other the Manette in Manet and consumerism Armstrong seeks to expand and revise our understanding of this artist as a painter of modern life The Private Collection of Edgar Degas Ann Dumas, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1997 This volume investigates Degas' dual role as both artist and collector Featuring works by well known artists like Delacroix Ingres Daumier Manet Cézanne Gauguin Van Gogh Cassatt and others this publication is the definitive text outlining Degas' long career collecting important pieces by his predecessors as well as his contemporaries Metropolitan Museum of Art website

Manet, Monet, and the Gare Saint-Lazare Juliet Wilson Bareau, National Gallery of Art (U.S.), 1998-01-01 Ill on lining papers Twelve Views of Manet's Bar Bradford Collins, 2021-01-12 Bradford Collins has assembled here a collection of twelve essays that demonstrates through the interpretation of a single work of art the abundance and complexity of methodological approaches now available to art historians Focusing on Manet's A Bar at the Folies Bergère each contributor applies to it a different methodology ranging from the more traditional to the newer including feminism Marxism Lacanian psychoanalysis and semiotics By demonstrating the ways that individual practitioners actually apply the various methodological insights that inform their research Twelve Views of Manet's Bar serves as an excellent introduction to critical methodology as well as a provocative overview for those already familiar with the current discourse of art history In the process of gaining new insight into Manet's work and into the discourse of methodology one discovers that it is not only the individual painting but art history itself that is under investigation An introduction by Richard Schiff sets the background with a brief history of Manet scholarship and suggestions as to why today's accounts have taken certain distinct directions The contributors selected to provide a broad and balanced range of methodological approaches include Carol Armstrong Albert Boime David Carrier Kermit Champa Bradford R Collins Michael Paul Driskel Jack Flam Tag Gronberg James D Herbert John House Steven Z Levine and Griselda Pollock

Impressionists and Politics Philip Nord, 2014-04-04 Impressionists and Politics is an accessible introduction to the current debates about Impressionism Was the artistic movement really radical and innovative Is the term Impressionism itself an adequate characterization of the movement of painters and critics that took the mid nineteenth century Paris art world by storm By providing an historical background and context the book places the Impressionists roots in wider social and economic transformations and explains its militancy both aesthetic and political Impressionists and Politics is a concise history of the movement from its youthful inception in the 1860s through to its final years of recognition and then crisis

"French Paintings of Childhood and Adolescence, 1848-1886" Anna Green, 2017-07-05 The premise of Anna Green's timely and original book is that nineteenth century representations of childhood and adolescence in paintings but also in other forms of visual culture and in diverse written discourses of the period are critical for understanding modernity Whilst such well worn signifiers for modernity as the city the dandy and the prostitute have been well mined childhood and adolescence have not Paintings of the young produced in France from 1848 to 1886 Green contends inform not only our understanding of modern life but also our perception of modernist or avant garde painting Figuring largely are Manet and the Impressionists as well as a gamut of more traditional painters of children who are crucial in providing context for the avant garde Because modernity is an essentially urban phenomenon Green's focus is primarily on the city usually Parisian child The painted youth of her study are organized initially by class and gender Then the chapters are structured according to themes parent child relations modes of discipline work education and play the spectacle sexuality that straddle the congruences among the book's triple trajectory the young their modernist representations and the experience of modernity Green's interdisciplinary approach ensures that this book will be of interest not only to art historians but to all those concerned with the cultural and social history of childhood

Landscape and Vision in Nineteenth-Century Britain and France Michael Charlesworth, 2017-07-05 A study of the ways landscape was perceived in nineteenth century Britain and France this book draws on evidence from poetry landscape gardens spectacular public entertainments novels and scientific works as well as paintings in order to develop its basic premise that landscape and the processes of perceiving it cannot be separated. Vision embraces panoramic seeing from high places but also the seeing of ghosts and spectres when madness and hallucination impinge upon landscape. The rise of geology and the spread of empires upset the existing comfortable orders of comprehension of landscape. Reverie and imagination produced powerful interpretive actions while landscape in French culture proved central to the rejection of conservative classicism in favour of perceptual questioning of experience. The experience of subjectivity proved central to the perception of landscape while the visual culture of landscape became of paramount importance to modernity during the period in question. Discomfort Food Marni Reva

Kessler, 2021-02-02 An intricate and provocative journey through nineteenth century depictions of food and the often uncomfortable feelings they evoke. At a time when chefs are celebrities and beautifully illustrated cookbooks, blogs and Instagram posts make our mouths water, scholar Marni Reva Kessler trains her inquisitive eye on the depictions of food in nineteenth century French art. Arguing that disjointed senses of anxiety, nostalgia and melancholy underlie the superficial abundance in works by Manet, Degas and others, Kessler shows how in their images food presented a spectrum of pleasure and unease associated with modern life. Utilizing close analysis and deep archival research, Kessler discovers the complex narratives behind such beloved works as Manet's Fish Still Life and Antoine Vollon's Internet, famous Mound of Butter. Kessler brings to these works an expansive historical review, creating interpretations rich in nuance and theoretical implications. She also transforms the traditional paradigm for study of images of edible subjects, showing that simple categorization as still life is not sufficient. Discomfort Food marks an important contribution to conversations about a fundamental theme that unites us as humans: food. Suggestive and accessible, it reveals the very personal, often uncomfortable feelings hiding within the relationship between ourselves and the representations of what we eat. *Sin Perd=*N David R.

Stevens, 2008-11 A look at the overthrow of France on Mexican soil and at the role played by the United States. Mexico's Ruins Raúl Rodríguez-Hernández, 2012-02-01 At face value the concept of modernity seems to reference a stream of social and historical traffic headed down a utopian one-way street named progress. Mexico's Ruins examines modernity in twentieth century Mexican culture as a much more ambiguous concept, arguing that such a single-minded notion is inadequate to comprehend the complexity of modern Mexico's national projects and their reception by the nation's citizenry. Instead, through the trope of modernity as ruin, author Raúl Rodríguez-Hernández explores the dilemma presented by the etymology of ruins: a simultaneous falling down and rising up, a confluence of opposing forces at work on the skyline of the metropolis since 1968. He focuses on artists and writers of the generación de medio siglo like Juan García Ponce and envisions both the tales of modernity and their storytellers in a new light. The arts, literature and architecture of twentieth century Mexico are all examined in this cross-cultural and interdisciplinary book. France 1814 - 1914 Robert Tombs, 2014-09-25 Here is an incomparably rich portrait of France in the years when the disparate elements that made up the fragmented kingdom of the ancien regime were forged into the modern nation The survey begins with an exploration of national obsessions and attitudes It considers the tendency to revolution and war the preoccupation with the idea of a New Order and the deep strain of national paranoia that was to be intensified by the dramatic debacle of the Franco Prussian War Robert Tombs then investigates the structures of power and in Part Three he turns his attention to social identities from the individual and family to the nation at large When every aspect of the period has been put under the microscope Robert Tombs draws them all into the broad political narrative that brings the book to its rousing conclusion Bursting with life as well as learning this is quite simply a tour de force

European Elites and Ideas of Empire, 1917-1957 Dina Gusejnova, 2016-06-16 Explores European civilisation as a concept of twentieth century political practice and the project of a transnational network of European elites This title is available as Open Access

Art in the Age of Mass Media John A. Walker, 2001-08-20 Can fine art survive in an age of mass media If so in what forms and to what purpose And can radical art still play a critical role in today s divided world These are the questions addressed in the Art in the Age of Mass Media as John Walker examines the fascinating relationship between art and mass media and the myriad interactions between high and low culture in a postmodern culturally pluralistic world Using a range of historic and contemporary works of art Walker explores the variety of ways in which artists have responded to the arrival of new mass media He ranges from the socialist paintings of Courbet to the anti Nazi photomontages of Heartfield from community murals and Keith Haring s use of graffiti to the kitsch self promotion associated with Jeff Koons The new edition describes what happened during the 1990s including Toscani s adverts for Benetton the simulations of Leeds 13 art and cinema Damien Hirst and the cyberart currently being produced for the internet
