Manet Und Zola:

Manet and Modern Beauty Gloria Groom, 2019-06-25 This stunning examination of the last years of Edouard Manet's life and career is the first book to explore the transformation of his style and subject matter in the 1870s and early 1880s. The name Manet often evokes the provocative heroically scaled pictures he painted in the 1860s for the Salon, but in the late 1870s and early 1880s the artist produced quite a different body of work: stylish portraits of actresses and demimondaines, luscious still lifes, delicate pastels, intimate watercolors, and impressionistic scenes of suburban gardens and Parisian cafés. Often dismissed as too pretty and superficial by critics, these later works reflect Manet's elegant social world, propose a radical new alignment of modern art with fashionable femininity, and record the artist's unapologetic embrace of beauty and visual pleasure in the face of death. Featuring nearly three hundred illustrations and nine fascinating essays by established and emerging Manet specialists, a technical analysis of the late Salon painting Jeune Femme, a selection of the artist's correspondence, a chronology, and more, Manet and Modern Beauty brings a diverse range of approaches to bear on a little studied area of this major artist's oeuvre.

Cézanne and the End of Impressionism Richard Shiff, 2014-12-15 Drawing on a broad foundation in the history of nineteenth century French art, Richard Shiff offers an innovative interpretation of Cézanne's painting. He shows how Cézanne's style met the emerging criteria of a technique of originality and how it satisfied critics sympathetic to symbolism as well as to impressionism. Expanding his study of the interaction of Cézanne and his critics, Shiff considers the problem of modern art in general. He locates the core of modernism in a dialectic of making technique and finding originality. Ultimately, Shiff provides not only clarifying accounts of impressionism and symbolism but of a modern classicism as well.

"Manet, Wagner, and the Musical Culture of Their Time" Therese Dolan, 2017-07-05 How did the tumult caused by German composer Richard Wagner result in the first modernist painting? In the first full length book dedicated to the study of Edouard Manet and music, art historian Therese Dolan demonstrates that the 1862 painting Music in the Tuileries represents the progressive musical culture of his time, heretofore read by scholars predominantly through the words of Charles Baudelaire. Dolan sees in this painting's radical style the conceptual shift to modernism in both painting and music, a transition that she convincingly argues received a strong impetus from Manet's Music in the Tuileries and Wagner's controversial Tannhäuser, which premiered the previous year. Supplemental to analysis of the painting, Dolan incorporates discussion of texts by Théophile Gautier, Champfleury, and Baudelaire, who are represented in the painting. This book incorporates studies of the major artistic, literary, and musical figures of nineteenth century France. It represents an important contribution to an understanding of French culture in the third quarter of the nineteenth century, a period of intense literary, artistic, and musical activity that formed the crucible for modernism.

"Interior Portraiture and Masculine Identity in France, 1789-1914" Heather Belnap Jensen, 2017-07-05 Focusing specifically on portraiture as a genre, this volume challenges scholarly assumptions that regard interior spaces as uniquely feminine. Contributors analyze portraits of men in domestic and studio spaces in France during the long nineteenth century the preponderance of such portraits alone supports the book's premise that the alignment of men with public life is oversimplified and more myth than reality The volume offers analysis of works by a mix of artists from familiar names such as David Delacroix Courbet Manet Rodin and Matisse to less well known image makers including Dominique Doncre Constance Mayer Anders Zorn and Lucien Etienne Melingue The essays cover a range of media from paintings and prints to photographs and sculpture that allows exploration of the relation between masculinity and interiority across the visual culture of the period The home and other interior spaces emerge from these studies as rich and complex locations for both masculine self expression and artistic creativity Interior Portraiture and Masculine Identity in France 1789-1914 provides a much needed rethinking of modern masculinity in this period

Manet/Velázquez Gary Tinterow, Geneviève Lacambre, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Musée d'Orsay, 2003 Here approximately two hundred works by French and Spanish artists chart the development of this cultural influence and map a fascinating shift in the paradigm of painting from Idealism to Realism from Italy to Spain from Renaissance to Baroque Above all these images demonstrate how direct contact with Spanish painting fired the imagination of nineteenth century French artists and brought about the triumph of Realism in the 1860s and with it a foundation for modern art BOOK JACKET

Cézanne, Murder, and Modern Life Andrzej Dombrowski, 2013 Cézanne's entire oeuvre Dombrowski's arguments are convincing and bold especially on the theme of murder as a vehicle for representation Modern Olympia has never before been so satisfactorily analyzed Susan Sidlauskus Rutgers University author of Cézanne's Other The Portraits of Hortense Exciting and intelligent Cézanne Murder and Modern Life will be important for modernists and essential for scholars of Cézanne early Impressionism and painting in the 1860s Dombrowski shows us a Cézanne we did not know Nancy Locke author of Manet and the Family Romance

The Colonial Comedy: Imperialism in the French Realist Novel Jennifer Yee, 2016-08-12 Nineteenth century French Realism focuses on metropolitan France with Paris as its undisputed heart Through Jennifer Yee's close reading of the great novelists of the French realist and naturalist canon Balzac Flaubert Zola Maupassant The Colonial Comedy reveals that the colonies play a role at a distance even in the most apparently metropolitan texts In what Edward Said called geographical notations of race and imperialism the presence of the colonies off stage is apparent as imported objects colonial merchandise and individuals whose colonial experience is transformative Indeed the realist novel registers the presence of the emerging global world system through networks of importation financial speculation and immigration as well as direct colonial violence and power structures The literature of the century responds to the last decades of French slavery and direct colonialism notably in Algeria but also economic imperialism and the extension of French influence elsewhere Far from imperialist triumphalism in the realist novel exotic objects are portrayed as fake or mass produced for the growing bourgeois market while economic imperialism is associated with fraud and manipulation The deliberate contrast of colonialism and exoticism within the metropolitan novel and ironic distancing of colonial narratives reveal the realist mode to be capable of questioning its own epistemological basis The Colonial Comedy argues for the existence in the nineteenth century of a Critical Orientalism characterized by critique of its own discursive foundations Using the tools of literary analysis within a materialist approach The Colonial Comedy opens up the domestic Paris Provinces axis to signifying chains pointing towards the colonial space

Lucidity Ian James, Emma Wilson, 2016-05-20 This collection of essays addresses the question of lucidity as a thematic in literature and film but also as a quality of both expression and insight in literary criticism and critical thought more generally The essays offer treatments of lucidity in itself and in relation to its opposites forms of obscurity and darkness They offer attention to problems of philosophical thought and reason to questions of literary and poetic form and of photographic and filmic contemplation Ranging from engagements with early modern writing through to more recent material the contributions focus in particular on nineteenth and twentieth century French prose and poetry the field which has been the predominant focus of Alison Finch's critical writing They are written as tributes to the distinctively lucid insights of her work and to the breadth and clarity of its intellectual engagement

Working Girls Katherine Mullin, 2016 Working Girls offers a cultural and literary history of telegraphists typists shop girls and barmaids It argues that these occupations helped to shape a distinctively new identity for emancipated young women and explores how authors used this to navigate a precarious literary landscape

Leonardo da Vinci and artworks Gabriel Séailles, 2023-11-16 Leonardo's early life was spent in Florence his maturity in Milan and the last three years of his life in France Leonardo's teacher was Verrocchio First he was a goldsmith then a painter and sculptor as a painter representative of the very scientific school of draughtsmanship more famous as a sculptor being the creator of the Colleoni statue at Venice Leonardo was a man of striking physical attractiveness great charm of manner and conversation and mental accomplishment He was well grounded in the sciences and mathematics of the day as well as a gifted musician His skill in draughtsmanship was extraordinary shown by his numerous drawings as well as by his comparatively few paintings His skill of hand is at the service of most minute observation and analytical research into the character and structure of form Leonardo is the first in date of the great men who had the desire to create in a picture a kind of mystic unity brought about by the fusion of matter and spirit Now that the Primitives had concluded their experiments ceaselessly pursued during two centuries by the conquest of the methods of painting he was able to pronounce the words which served as a password to all later artists worthy of the name painting is a spiritual thing cosa mentale He completed Florentine draughtsmanship in applying to modelling by light and shade a sharp subtlety which his predecessors had used only to give greater precision to their contours This marvellous draughtsmanship this modelling and chiaroscuro he used not solely to paint the exterior appearance of the body but as no one before him had done to cast over it a reflection of the mystery of the inner life In the Mona Lisa and his other masterpieces he even used landscape not merely as a more or less picturesque decoration but as a sort of echo of that interior life and an element of a perfect harmony Relying on the still quite novel laws of perspective this doctor of scholastic wisdom who was at the same time an initiator of modern thought substituted for the discursive manner of the Primitives the principle of concentration which is the basis of classical art The picture is no longer presented to us as an almost fortuitous aggregate of details and episodes It is an organism in which all the elements lines and colours shadows and lights compose a subtle tracery converging on a spiritual a sensuous centre It was not with the external significance of objects but with their inward and spiritual significance that Leonardo was occupied

Consuming Painting Allison Deutsch, 2021-02-01 In Consuming Painting Allison Deutsch challenges the pervasive view that Impressionism was above all about visual experience Focusing on the language of food and consumption as they were used by such prominent critics as Baudelaire and Zola she writes new histories for familiar works by Manet Monet Caillebotte and Pissarro and creates fresh possibilities for experiencing and interpreting them Examining the culinary metaphors that the most influential critics used to express their attraction or disgust toward painting Deutsch rethinks French modern life painting in relation to the visceral reactions that these works evoked in their earliest publics Writers posed viewing as analogous to ingestion and used comparisons to food to describe the appearance of paint and the painter s process The food metaphors they chose were aligned with specific female types such as red meat for sexualized female flesh confections for fashionably made up women and hearty vegetables for agricultural laborers These culinary figures of speech Deutsch argues provide important insights into both the fabrication of the feminine and the construction of masculinity in nineteenth century France Consuming Painting exposes the social politics at stake in the deeply gendered metaphors of sense and sensation Original and convincing Consuming Painting upends traditional narratives of the sensory reception of modern painting This trailblazing book is essential reading for specialists in nineteenth century art and criticism gender studies and modernism

Painted Love Hollis Clayson, 2003-10-30 In this engrossing book Hollis Clayson provides the first description and analysis of French artistic interest in women prostitutes examining how the subject was treated in the art of the 1870s and 1880s by such avant garde painters as C zanne Degas Manet and Renoir as well as by the academic and low brow painters who were their contemporaries Clayson not only illuminates the imagery of prostitution with its contradictory connotations of disgust and fascination but also tackles the issues and problems relevant to women and men in a patriarchal society She discusses the conspicuous sexual commerce during this era and the resulting public panic about the deterioration of social life and civilized mores She describes the system that evolved out of regulating prostitutes and the subsequent rise of clandestine prostitutes who escaped police regulation and who were condemned both for blurring social boundaries and for spreading sexual licentiousness among their moral and social superiors Clayson argues that the subject of covert prostitution was especially attractive to vanguard painters because it exemplified the commercialization and the ambiguity of modern life French Literature and the Arts ,2024-10-07 Artistic Relations
