Educating About Social Issues in the 20th and 21st Centuries Vol. 2 Samuel Totten, Jon Pedersen, 2013-02-01 Over the course of the past decade and a half we Samuel Totten and Jon E Pedersen have co edited a series of books on teaching and learning about social issues Our goal has been to build a series that would broadly represent the work that has been undertaken over the past 110 plus years related to the field of teaching and learning about social issues As we created and added to the series see for example Addressing Social Issues in the Classroom and Beyond The Pedagogical Efforts of Pioneers in the Field Researching and Teaching Social Issues The Personal Stories and Pedagogical Efforts of Professors of Education Teaching and Studying Social Issues Major Programs and Approaches we came to the conclusion that the development of an annotated bibliography of the key works books chapters articles reports and research on a wide range of issues topics germane to teaching and learning about social issues was a logical addition to the series In Educating About Social Issues in the 20th and 21st Centuries Volume 1 A Critical Annotated Bibliography which was published in early 2012 the focus was on a host of programs models strategies and concerns vis vis teaching and learning about social issues This new book constitutes Volume Two in the series entitled Educating About Social Issues in the Twentieth and Twenty First Centuries and picks up where Volume One left off Included in this book are the pioneering works of the following Boyd Bode Alan F Griffin G Gordon Hullfish Richard Gross Robert Yager and James Banks Collectively their work on social issues spans the period between the late 1930s through the present with James Banks and Robert Yager continuing to publish through today As for the subjects topics other than pioneers of teaching about social issues addressed in this volume they are Issues Centered Approaches to Teaching Geography Addressing Social Issues in Sociology and Anthropology Courses Peace Studies The Vietnam War and LGBT

International Students from Asia in Canadian Universities Ann Kim, Elizabeth Buckner, Jean Michel Montsion, 2023-08-11 This book explores how the recruitment and retention of Asian international students in Canadian universities intersects with other institutional priorities Responding to the growing need for new insights and perspectives on the institutional mechanisms adopted by Canadian universities to support Asian international students in their academic and social integration to university life it crucially examines the challenges at the intersection of two institutional priorities internationalization and anti racism This is especially important for the Asian international student group who are known to experience invisible forms of discrimination and differential treatment in Canadian post secondary education institutions The authors present new conceptualisations and theoretical perspectives on topics including international students experiences and understandings of race and racism comparisons with domestic students and or non Asian students institutional discourse and narratives on Asian international students comparison with other university priorities cross national comparisons best practices and recent developments linked to the COVID 19 pandemic Foregrounding the institutional strategies of Canadian universities as opposed to student experience exclusively this direct examination of institutional responses and initiatives draws out similarities and differences across the country compares them within the broader array of university priorities and ultimately offers the opportunity for Canadian universities to learn from each other in improving the integration of Asian international students and others to their student body It will appeal to teacher scholars researchers and educators with interested in higher education international education and race and ethnic studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license 21st Century Canadian Diversity Stephen Emmanuel Nancoo,2000 Canada In The World Tyler A. Shipley,2020-07-25T00:00:00Z An accessible and empirically rich introduction to Canada s engagements in the world since confederation this book charts a unique path by locating Canada s colonial foundations at the heart of the analysis Canada in the World begins by arguing that the colonial relations with Indigenous peoples represent the first example of foreign policy and demonstrates how these relations became a foundational and existential element of the new state Colonialism the project to establish settler capitalism in North America and the ideological assumption that Europeans were more advanced and thus deserved to conquer the Indigenous people says Shipley lives at the very heart of Canada Through a close examination of Canadian foreign policy from crushing an Indigenous rebellion in El Salvador peacekeeping missions in the Congo and Somalia and Cold War interventions in Vietnam and Indonesia to Canadian participation in the War on Terror Canada in the World finds that this colonial heart has dictated Canada s actions in the world since the beginning Highlighting the continuities across more than 150 years of history Shipley demonstrates that Canadian policy and behaviour in the world is deep rooted and argues that changing this requires rethinking the fundamental nature of Canada itself Focus On: 100 Most Popular Canadian Male Film Actors Wikipedia contributors, Bulletin United States. Theatre in Canada Sarah MacKenzie, 2020-11-15T00:00:00Z Despite a recent increase in the productivity and popularity of Indigenous playwrights in Canada most critical and academic attention has been devoted to the work of male dramatists leaving female writers on the margins In Indigenous Women's Theatre in Canada Sarah MacKenzie addresses this critical gap by focusing on plays by Indigenous women written and produced in the socio cultural milieu of twentieth and twenty first century Canada Closely analyzing dramatic texts by Monique Mojica Marie Clements and Yvette Nolan MacKenzie explores representations of gendered colonialist violence in order to determine the varying ways in which these representations are employed subversively and informatively by Indigenous women These plays provide an avenue for individual and potential cultural healing by deconstructing some of the harmful ideological work performed by colonial misrepresentations of Indigeneity and demonstrate the strength and persistence of Indigenous women offering a space in which decolonial futurisms can be envisioned In this unique work MacKenzie suggests that colonialist misrepresentations of Indigenous women have served to perpetuate demeaning stereotypes justifying devaluation of and violence against Indigenous women Most significantly however she argues that resistant representations in Indigenous women s dramatic writing and production work in direct opposition to such representational and manifest violence Clean Production K.B. Misra,2012-12-06 The world has witnessed several revolutions since the dawn of industrial revolution some two centuries ago During the current century itself three revolutions in the area of communication information processing and quality have taken place and each time the standard of living of man improved beyond predictions But during the same period the world population has also phenomenally increased dwarfing the gains achieved from the development Increased level of industrial activity to meet the of humanity has caused irreversible damage to the pristine environment that the demand Earth once had Economic disparity between the haves and havenots has widened aggravating the situation further more Ozone layer depletion warming up of Earth s atmosphere and the pollution created by uncontrolled industrial activity to gain economic strength are now assuming the proportion of a catastrophe that may eventually threaten the survival of life on Earth Developed countries blame the Third World countries for the uncontrolled emissions through burning of fossil fuels and for wasting precious resources of energy by using inefficient and uneconomical technologies while the developed countries are equally responsible for avoidable oV er consumption and for the wastage of resources and energy and for not sharing the improved and efficient technologies with the developing countries Thus the wastage by both these set of countries continues unabated After all resources of the world are finite and are meant to be shared by all its inhabitants Canada 2019-2020 ,2019-10-09 This is an annually updated presentation of Canada past and present continues to provide the reader an in depth look at the country s culture geography people economy politics and future The combination of factual accuracy and up to date detail along with its informed projections make this an outstanding resource for researchers practitioners in international development media professionals government officials potential investors and students Now in its 35th edition the content is thorough yet perfect for a one semester introductory course or general library reference Available in both print and e book formats and priced low to fit student and library budgets Our Shared Future Robert Christmas,Laura E.
