Mankind And Mother Earth A Narrative History Of The World:

Mankind and Mother Earth Arnold Toynbee, 1976 A highly readable chronological narrative relating the story of man's interaction with his environment and with his fellow man from the earliest beginnings of human life until the 1970s

Mankind and Mother Earth Arnold Joseph Toynbee, 1984 Mankind and Mother Earth Arnold Toynbee, 1976

Time and the Shape of History P. J. Corfield, 2007-01-01 In this lively comedy of love and money in sixteenth century Venice Bassanio wants to impress the wealthy heiress Portia but lacks the necessary funds He turns to his merchant friend Antonio who is forced to borrow from Shylock a Jewish moneylender When Antonio's business falters repayment becomes impossible and by the terms of the loan agreement Shylock is able to demand a pound of Antonio's flesh Portia cleverly intervenes and all ends well except of course for Shylock Lonergan and Historiography Thomas J.

McPartland, 2010-04-15 Although Bernard Lonergan is known primarily for his cognitional theory and theological methodology he long sought to formulate a modern philosophy of history free of progressive and Marxist biases Yet he never addressed this in any single work and his reflections on the subject are scattered in various writings In this pioneering work Thomas McPartland shows how Lonergan's overall philosophical position offers a fresh and comprehensive basis for considering historiography Taking Lonergan's philosophy of historical existence into the realm of an epistemological philosophy of history he demonstrates how the philosopher's approach builds on the actual performance of historians and as a result integrates the insights of historical specialists into a framework of functional complementarity McPartland draws on all of Lonergan's philosophical writing as well as on the vast literature of historiography to detail Lonergan's notions of historical method historical objectivity and historical knowledge Along the way he explains what Lonergan means by hermeneutics by historical description explanation ideal types and narrative by evaluative and dialectical analyses and how these elements are all functionally related to each other He also delineates the defining features of psychohistory cultural history intellectual history history of ideas and history of philosophy indicating how these disciplines play complementary roles in the critical encounter with the past Ultimately McPartland argues that Lonergan has established the principles of a historical discipline the history of consciousness that weaves together a philosophy of consciousness with rigorous historical research to grasp long term trends resulting from differentiations of consciousness His work offers a distinct perspective on historical method that takes historical objectivity seriously while providing new insight into the thought of this important philosopher A Study of History: Abridgement of volumes VII-X Arnold Toynbee, 1987 Arnold Toynbee's ten volume analysis of the rise and fall of civilizations is acknowledged as one of the great achievements of modern scholarship D C

Somervell's extraordinary two volume abridgement has captured the method atmosphere texture and in many instances the very words of the original This volume contains the second half of Toynbee's masterpiece Environmental Change and Human Development Chris Barrow, 2014-04-04 Environmental Change and Human Development focuses on environmental change and human fortunes While there is a large and rapidly expanding literature dealing with how people affect the environment less attention has been given in recent years to how the environment shapes human development In an ever more crowded world there is a need for anticipatory environmental management and a crucial input to this is consideration of the interaction between environment and humans The environment is not as stable benign or controllable as people like to think The world population is vastly larger than it has ever been and is still growing and humans increasingly upset nature through pollution and other activities While modern communications may help environmental managers rapid travel also increases the dispersal of diseases and pests Technological advance and social development is not all beneficial some innovations have the effect of making people more vulnerable to disruption by natural disaster and citizens are often less able to cope with changed conditions than people were in the past Environmental Change and Human Development addresses key issues such as soil degradation natural climatic variations and volcanic activity and provides geography and earth sciences students with an essential introduction to the major debates surrounding this topic

Diasporic Chinese Ventures GREGOR BENTON, Hong Liu, 2004-07-31 This collection of essays by and about Wang Gungwu brings together some of Wang's most recent and representative writing about the ethnic Chinese outside China giving the reader a deeper understanding of his views on migration identity nationalism and culture all key issues in modern Asia's transformation The book collects interviews speeches and essays that illustrate the development and direction of Wang's scholarship on ethnic and diasporic Chinese

The Word and the Sword Leonard Dudley, 1991 Dudley attempts to impose a pattern on the entire history of human civilization He shows how the major transformations in the character of social life have been determined by eight significant innovations four new ways of dealing with information writing printing mass media and integrated circuits and four new ways of organizing the applications of violence metal weapons artillery steam transport and heavy cavalry Military and informational technologies are so crucial because they are instrumental in holding states together while innovation in itself tends to produce new economies of scale

Genocide in the Age of the Nation State Mark Levene, 2005-08-26 Most books on genocide consider it primarily as a twentieth century phenomenon In The Rise of the West and the Coming of Genocide Levene argues that this approach fails to grasp its true origins Genocide developed out of modernity and the striving for the nation state both essentially Western experiences It was European expansion into all hemispheres between the fifteenth and nineteenth centuries that provided the main stimulus to its pre 1914 manifestations One critical outcome on the cusp of modernity was the French revolutionary destruction of the Vendée Levene finishes this volume at the 1914 watershed with the destabilising effects of the rise of the West on older Ottoman Chinese Russian and Austrian empires Very impressive Eric Hobsbawm
