Gender at the Crossroads of Knowledge Micaela di Leonardo, 2023-09-01 Gender at the Crossroads of Knowledge brings feminist anthropology up to date highlighting the theoretical sophistication that characterizes recent research Twelve essays by outstanding scholars written with the volume's concerns specifically in mind range across the broadest anthropological terrain assessing and contributing to feminist work on biological anthropology primate studies global economy new reproductive technologies ethno linguistics race and gender and more The editor's introduction not only sets two decades of feminist anthropological work in the multiple contexts of changes in anthropological theory and practice political and economic developments and larger intellectual shifts but also lays out the central insights feminist anthropology has to offer us in the postmodern era The profound issues raised by the authors resonate with the basic interests of any discipline concerned with gender that is all of the social sciences and humanities Gender at the Crossroads of Knowledge brings feminist anthropology up to date highlighting the theoretical sophistication that characterizes recent research Twelve essays by outstanding scholars written with the volume's concerns specifically in The South Seas Sean Brawley, Chris Dixon, 2015-04-21 The South Seas charts the idea of the South Seas in popular cultural productions of the English speaking world from the beginnings of the Western enterprise in the Pacific until the eve of the Pacific War Building on the notion that the influences on the creation of a text and the ways in which its audience receives the text are essential for understanding the historical significance of particular productions Sean Brawley and Chris Dixon explore the ways in which authors and producers ideas about the South Seas were haunted by others who had written on the subject and how they in turn influenced future generations of knowledge producers The South Seas is unique in its examination of an array of cultural texts Along with the foundational literary texts that established and perpetuated the South Seas tradition in written form the authors explore diverse cultural forms such as art music theater film fairs platform speakers surfing culture and tourism

Exotics at Home Micaela di Leonardo, 2000-03-16 What is the exotic after all In this study Micaela di Leonardo reveals the face of power within the mask of cultural difference Focusing on the intimate and shifting relations between popular portrayals of exotic Others and the practice of anthropology that profession assumed to be America's Guardian of the Offbeat she casts new light on gender race and the public sphere in America's past and present Chicago's 1893 Columbian World Exposition and today's college town ethnic boutiques frame di Leonardo's century long analysis Cultural Ways Robert Bartley Taylor, 1976 Marriage and Civilization William Tucker, 2014-02-03 Marriage built civilization Will its collapse lead to our downfall In Marriage and Civilization Tucker takes readers on a journey through the history of the human race to demonstrate how a pattern of life long monogamous pairings has enabled humans to build modern civilization Drawing extensively on biological anthropological and historical evidence Tucker makes the case that marriage is not only a desirable institution for societies it's actually the bedrock of civilization Tucker also examines America and the world's current marriage crisis and the factors that have led to the decline of marriage the dramatic rise of divorce and the epidemic of single parenthood He draws bold predictions about what could happen to American society of marriage collapses entirely and he sketches out the threat from polygamous groups such as fundamental Muslim sects Polygamy Tucker argues not only generates discontent and disorder within a society but promotes violence against others Monogamous marriage is vital not only to our domestic well being but our survival in the face of violent enemies
