Mans Two Natures Human And Divine:

Man's Two Natures: Human and Divine Omraam Mikhaël Aïvanhov, 2013-07-31 Presentation Learn to discern where our impulses come from Evolution has placed human beings on the frontiers of the animal world and the higher world considered divine This situation is thus at the origin of the ambiguity of our nature double at the same time lower and higher Complementary as spirit and matter are these two natures should help us develop harmoniously by learning to dominate the first and by working to awaken the second The majority of human beings belong to the group without light They talk about rediscovering Nature and obeying the natural laws but which nature are they talking about There are two natures in man one lower one higher People think they are obeying Nature when in fact they are doing something exactly opposite to their higher Nature whereas others concentrate on their divine Nature and do everything in their power to subjugate and restrict the impulses of their human nature Confusion reigns in people's minds and that is why it is so important to make them realize that a higher Nature exists in them which expresses itself quite differently from the human nature they inherited from the animal kingdom Omraam Mikhaël Aïvanhov Table of contents 1 Human Nature or Animal Nature 2 The Lower Self is a Reflection 3 Man's True Identity 4 Methods of Escape 5 The Sun Symbolizes the Divine Nature 6 Put the Personality to Work 7 Perfection Comes with the Higher Self 8 The Silent Voice of the Higher Self 9 Only by Serving the Divine Nature 10 Address the Higher Self in Others 11 Man's Return to God the Victory

The Catechism Explained Francis Spirago, 1899 This Catechism is divided into three parts The first part treats of faith the second of morals the third of the means of grace In the first part Our Lord appears in His character of Teacher in the second in His character of King and in the third in His character of High Priest And since this Catechism proposes as its primary object to answer the question for what purpose are we here upon earth thereby emphasizing and giving prominence to man's high calling and destiny it is especially suited to the present day when the pursuit of material interests self indulgence and pleasure engrosses the attention of so many This Catechism is in fact nothing more nor less than an abstract of Our Lord's teaching and may be called a guide book for the
