Myth Of Solid Ground Earthquakes Prediction And The Fault Line Between Reason And Faith:

The Myth of Solid Ground David L. Ulin, 2005-07-26 Earthquakes are one of the great unsolved geological mysteries Attempts to predict them have ranged from studies of California's fault lines by USGS geologists to the work of an odd assortment of psychics and apocalyptics who base their sometimes startlingly accurate forecasts on everything from changes in the earth's magnetic fields to the behavior of whales The Myth of Solid Ground is a journey both personal and cultural through the world of earthquakes and earthquake prediction one that seeks a middle ground between science and superstition while also looking for a larger context in which seismicity might make sense An excellent primer on the science of seismology The Myth of Solid Ground looks at earthquakes as the ultimate metaphor for living with impending disaster

The Lost Art of Reading David L. Ulin, 2010-06-01 Reading is a revolutionary act an act of engagement in a culture that wants us to disengage In The Lost Art of Reading David L. Ulin asks a number of timely questions why is literature important What does it offer especially now Blending commentary with memoir Ulin addresses the importance of the simple act of reading in an increasingly digital culture Reading a book flipping through hard pages or shuffling them on screen it doesn't matter The key is the act of reading and its seriousness and depth Ulin emphasizes the importance of reflection and pause allowed by stopping to read a book and the accompanying focus required to let the mind run free in a world that is not one's own Are we willing to risk our collective interest in contemplation nuanced thinking and empathy Far from preaching to the choir The Lost Art of Reading is a call to arms or rather to pages in the patterns of the streets he obsessively wanders and in a strange interaction with a couple of old friends who bring him face to face with his own unfinished past Sidewalking David L. Ulin, 2015-10-06 Sidewalking is an impressionistic take on Los Angeles in its current moment which is a flashpoint of great transition as the city verticalizes and densifies It is also a meditation on the history natural and human of a place that often is derided as having no sense of its own past What does it mean to live in and think about Los Angeles at the level of its streets Growing out of a series of walks Sidewalking peels back the myths the layers to look at the city as it really is Provided by publisher Bisexual Perspectives on the Life and Work of Alfred C. Ulin, 2025-07-01 Malice and mayhem simmer beneath the surface of one of America s favorite vacation areas Youthful alienation and despair dominate the 13 stories in Akashic s noir volume devoted to Cape Cod It will satisfy those with a hankering for a taste of the dark side Publishers Weekly David L Ulin has put together a malicious collection of short stories that will stay with you long after you return home safe T he Cult The Official Chuck Palahniuk Website Akashic Books continues its groundbreaking series of original noir anthologies launched in 2004 with Brooklyn Noir Each story is set in a distinct neighborhood or location within the city of the book Brand new stories by William Hastings Elyssa East Dana Cameron Paul Tremblay Adam Mansbach Seth Greenland Lizzie Skurnick David L Ulin Kaylie Jones Fred G Leebron Ben Greenman Dave Zeltserman and Jedediah Berry From the introduction by David L Ulin Here we see the inverse of the Cape Cod stereotype with its sailboats and its presidents Here we see the flip side of the Kennedys of all those preppies in docksiders eating steamers of the whale watchers and bicycles and kites Here we see the Cape beneath the surface the Cape after the summer people have gone home It doesn't make the other Cape any less real but it does suggest a symbiosis in which our sense of the place can't help but become more complicated less about vacation living than something more nuanced and profound For me Cape Cod is a repository of memory forty summers in the same house will do that to you But it is also a landscape of hidden tensions which rise up when we least anticipate In part this has to do with social aspiration which is one of the things that brought my family like many others to the Cape In part it has to do with social division which has been a factor since at least the end of the nineteenth century when then summer trade began There are lines here lines that get crossed and lines that never get crossed the kinds of lines that form the web of noir Call it what you want summer and smoke is how I think of it but that's the Cape Cod at the center of this book Paris Under Water Jeffrey H.

Jackson, 2024-09-04 In the winter of 1910 the river that brought life to Paris quickly became a force of destruction Torrential rainfall saturated the soil and faulty engineering created a perfect storm of conditions that soon drowned Parisian streets homes businesses and museums The city seemed to have lost its battle with the elements Given the Parisians history of deep seated social religious and political strife it was questionable whether they could collaborate to confront the crisis Yet while the sewers M tro and electricity failed around them Parisians of all backgrounds rallied to save the city and one another Improvising techniques to keep Paris functioning and braving the dangers of collapsing infrastructure and looters leaders and residents alike answered the call to action This newfound ability to work together proved a crucial rehearsal for an even graver crisis four years later when France was plunged into World War I On the occasion of the hundredth anniversary of the flood Jeffrey H Jackson captures here for the first time the drama and ultimate victory of man over nature The Flexible Imagination William H. Leggett, 2013-09-25 The Flexible Imagination At Work in the Transnational Corporate Offices of Jakarta Indonesia is a behind the scenes ethnography examining the social interactions between individuals from different cultural and national backgrounds who work together in the halls of some of the most notorious Fortune 500 corporations out of Southeast Asia In the transnational corporate spaces of Jakarta Indonesia there is a frustrating struggle for coherence and meaning by expatriate and national populations still new to the morphing and flexible world of global capitalism Many of those newly engaged in the machinations of our global economy struggle to make sense of their unfamiliar surroundings In this situation where localities and social constellations are in a state of constant flux people rely on their imagination in the construction of a social reality that makes sense provides enough social stability to get through the routine activities of a typical work day The imaginary put to use by those discussed in this book ties together bodies of knowledge historic and current academic and popular economic and cultural in an attempt to create a transnational working reality that makes sense. Thus the term flexible imagination encapsulates the variable and shifting nature of these imaginary processes. Second Read James Marcus, The Staff of the Columbia Journalism Review, 2011-11-08 The Columbia Journalism Review's Second Read series features distinguished journalists revisiting key works of reportage. Launched in 2004 by John Palattella who was then editor of the magazine's book section, the series also allows authors address such ongoing concerns as the conflict between narrative flair and accurate reporting, the legacy of New Journalism, the need for reporters to question their political assumptions, the limitations of participatory journalism, and the temptation to substitute truthiness for hard challenging fact. Representing a wide range of views, Second Read embodies the diversity and dynamism of contemporary nonfiction while offering fresh perspectives on works by Norman Mailer, Tom Wolfe, Rachel Carson, and Gabriel Garcia Marquez among others. It also highlights pivotal moments and movements in journalism as well as the innovations of award-winning writers. Essays include Rick Perlstein on Paul Cowan's The Tribes of America, Nicholson Baker on Daniel Defoe's A Journal of the Plague Year, Dale Maharidge on James Agee's Let Us Now Praise Famous Men, Marla Cone on Rachel Carson's Silent Spring, Ben Yagoda on Walter Bernstein's Keep Your Head Down, Ted Conover on Stanley Booth's The True Adventures of the Rolling Stones, Jack Shafer on Tom Wolfe's The Electric Kool Aid Acid Test, Connie Schultz on Michael Herr's Dispatches, Michael Shapiro on Cornelius Ryan's The Longest Day, Douglas McCollam on John McPhee's Annals of the Former World, Tom Piazza on Norman Mailer's Armies of the Night, Thomas Mallon on William Manchester's The Death of a President, Miles Corwin on Gabriel Garcia Marquez's The Story of a Shipwrecked Sailor, David Ulin on Joan Didion's Slouching Toward Bethlehem, and Claire Dederer on Betty MacDonald's Anybody Can Do Anything.
