Bowman, Ana Lucía Frega, 2012-05-25 In The Oxford Handbook of Philosophy in Music Education editors Wayne D Bowman and Ana Lucia Frega have drawn together a variety of philosophical perspectives from the profession's most exciting scholars from all over the world Rather than relegating philosophical inquiry to moot questions and abstract situations the contributors to this volume address everyday concerns faced by music educators everywhere Emphasizing clarity fairness rigour and utility above all The Oxford Handbook of Philosophy in Music Education will challenge music educators all over the world to make their own decisions and ultimately contribute to the conversation themselves      The History of Modern Japanese Education Benjamin C. Duke, 2009 The History of Modern Japanese Education is the first account in English of the construction of a national school system in Japan as outlined in the 1872 document the Gakusei Divided into three parts tracing decades of change the book begins by exploring the feudal background for the Gakusei during the Tokugawa era which produced the initial leaders of modern Japan Next Benjamin Duke traces the Ministry of Education's investigations of the 1870s to determine the best western model for Japan including the decision to adopt American teaching methods He then goes on to cover the eventual reverse course sparked by the Imperial Household protest that the western model overshadowed cherished Japanese traditions Ultimately the 1890 Imperial Rescript on Education integrated Confucian teachings of loyalty and filial piety with Imperial ideology laying the moral basis for a western style academic curriculum in the nation's schools      Teaching Philosophy Andrea Kenkmann, 2009-04-19 Addresses the complex issues involved in teaching philosophy at undergraduate level      The Oxford Handbook of the History of Education John L. Smith, David Sobel, 2014-04-08 Place and community based education an approach to teaching and learning that starts with the local addresses two critical gaps in the experience of many children now growing up in the United States contact with the natural world and contact with community It offers a way to extend young people's attention beyond the classroom to the world as it actually is and to engage them in the process of devising solutions to the social and environmental problems they will confront as adults This approach can increase students engagement with learning and enhance their academic achievement Envisioned as a primer and guide for educators and members of the public interested in incorporating the local into schools in their own communities this book explains the purpose and nature of place and community based education and provides multiple examples of its practice The detailed

Shaping the History of Education? Jeroen Dekker, Frank Simon, 2018-02-05 In 1961 the Centre for the Study of the History of Education at Ghent University Belgium published the first issue of the multilingual journal Paedagogica Historica International Journal of the History of Education This book celebrates its fiftieth volume In fourteen contributions written by different generations of historians of education it demonstrates that in an era where the history of education at university level is at risk both the journal and the discipline are pulsing and alive and kicking Was the journal a trendsetter or a follower and which position did it take with respect to the

International Standing Conference for the History of Education These are questions addressed in the first section of this book In the second section a number of articles show national and transnational developments of the history of education In their diversity they make clear how the national and the transnational together characterize the discipline They show why journals in this domain should stimulate the development of broader concepts and theories in order to put national and regional cases in a broader scientific context and to make them attractive for international readership In the last section authors turn their minds to the future of the history of education They write about the shaping of new trends and about moving beyond borders focusing on among other things the challenge of neurosciences and of digital humanities This book was originally published as a special issue of Paedagogica Historica THE EDUCATIONAL TIMES College of Preceptors, 1866 Computer
