Leading scholars, researchers and clinicians in gerontology, epidemiology, psychiatry, psychology, sociology, anthropology, nursing and social work appraise varying approaches, the demographics, the mental health status and service use of the ethnic elderly and issues in the diagnosis, treatment and mental health service delivery for the ethnic aged for African Americans, American Indians, Asian and Pacific Islander Americans and Hispanic/Latino Americans. This unique handbook is a valuable resource and text for students, teachers and professionals in a broad array of fields and settings. The handbook considers such problems as Alzheimer's Disease, depression and problems of coping, culturally specific psychosocial nursing care programs, the role of culture and class in mental and physical comorbidity among the elderly and important life course perspectives for specific groups. Students, teachers and professionals in many fields and settings will find this unique handbook a valuable resource and text. Advanced Practice Nursing in the Care of Older Adults Laurie Kennedy-Malone, Kathleen Ryan Fletcher, Lori Martin-Plank, 2014-01-20 Explore effective ways to enhance the wellness and independence of older adults across the wellness-illness continuum. From an overview of the theories of aging and assessment through the treatment of disorders including complex illnesses, this evidence-based book provides the comprehensive gerontological coverage you need to prepare for your role as an Advanced Practice Nurse. Understand how to easily identify factors that may affect the wellness of your patients and their families. Plus enhance your critical thinking skills with real world case studies that bring concepts to life. The Ethics of Caring for Older People British Medical Association, 2009-02-23 This book is the British Medical Association's statement on the ethics related to care of the elderly, written and reviewed by a panel of renowned medical ethicists. As such, it is an authoritative and considered reference, written in an accessible, non-jargon, so as to be useful for anyone charged with looking after the elderly. The book includes useful case examples so that it can be used by a range of health professionals and carers who need to know the law and ethics of looking after older people. The authors focus on practical issues such as helping older people stick to their treatment regimes, the sort of information they should be given to give valid consent and their rights to confidentiality, as well as discussion about where they want to end their lives when it comes to that point. Tabbner's Nursing Care Gabrielle Koutoukidis, Kate Stainton, 2020-07-17 Written by Gabby Koutoukidis and Kate Stainton, Tabbner's Nursing Care: Theory and Practice, 8th edition provides students with the knowledge and skills they will require to ensure safe, quality care across a range of
