The Oxford Handbook of Pauline Studies Matthew V. Novenson,R. Barry Matlock,2022-03-10 The Oxford Handbook of Pauline Studies brings together a diverse international group of experts on the apostle Paul It examines the authentic texts from his own hand other ancient texts falsely attributed to him the numerous early Christian legends about him and the many meanings that have been and still are made of these texts to give a twenty first century snapshot of Pauline Studies Divided into five key sections the Handbook begins by examining Paul the person a largely biographical sketching of the life of Paul himself to the limited extent that it is possible to do so It moves on to explore Paul in context and Pauline Literature looking in detail at the letters manuscripts and canons that constitute most of our extant evidence for the apostle Part Four uses a number of classic motifs to describe what modern experts describe as Pauline Theology and Part Five considers the many productive reading strategies with which recent interpreters have made meaning of the letters of Paul It is demonstrated that reading Paul is not and never has been just one thing It has always been a matter of the particular questions and interests that the reader brings to these very generative texts The Oxford Handbook of Pauline Studies thoroughly surveys the state of Pauline studies today paying particular attention to theory and method in interpretation It considers traditional approaches alongside recent approaches to Paul including gender race and ethnicity and material culture Brought together the chapters are an ideal resource for teachers and students of Paul and his letters

Nurture Faith W. Douglas Hood Jr.,Nathanael Cameron Hood,2022-08-12 The great Christian thinker and author C S Lewis said that often it is not teaching that we require occasionally what we need is a reminder of what we already know In this collection of meditations my son Nathanael and I hope to remind you of what you already know that we belong to a God that seeks a relationship with us God is not content with our admiration God desires a relationship in which we are eager to know more and to experience more of God s power love and strength for the challenges that we must confront each day
