North Western Greece, Central Greece, Southern Greece, and Asia Minor Hunterian Museum (University of Glasgow),1901 Lessons from Laodicea Ross A. Lockhart,2016-04-08 I m rich and I don t need a thing bragged the early Christians in the big city of Laodicea The Apostle John however saw their affluence and arrogance through a theological lens He declared them to be bankrupt lukewarm Christians whom God would gladly gargle and spit out Today the mainline church in the West finds itself in a dominant culture of Laodicean affluence where even faith is a commodity to be consumed While the gospel spreads and thrives in the global South and East the Western mainline church looks longingly back at Christendom and forward in fear As Christians living in a North American culture that highly prizes the unholy Trinity of individualism consumerism and secularism we require a new kind of missional leadership to pray attention to what God is doing in the world around us This book names the challenges and promises inherent in partnering with the Holy Spirit in order to offer missional leadership in a culture of affluence It is about both living in Laodicea and leaving it behind We are no longer in a Babylonian captivity but a Laodicean one This work helps chart a course for Christians who long to let go of country club religion and instead belong to a community that helps equip missionary disciples resistant to the dominant culture and resplendent in the love of our triune God The Acts of the Apostles George Whitefield Clark,1896

Central Greece, Southern Greece, and Asia Minor Hunterian Museum (University of Glasgow), George MacDonald, 1901 The Northwestern Lutheran ,1981 Reconstructing the Historical Background of Paul's Rhetoric in the Letter to the Colossians Adam Copenhaver, 2018-01-25 In approaching the debate surrounding the opponents in Colossians from a methodological standpoint Copenhaver contends that Paul was not actually confronting active opponents when he wrote the letter Rather Copenhaver takes the view that Paul s letter was written to the churches in the Lycus Valley in a desire to develop their identity as a new people in Christ and to appeal to them to live a new kind of life His warnings in Colossians 2 function as oppositional rhetoric contrasting the religious practices of the Lycus Valley with this new belief Paul s warnings are therefore broadly representative of the ancient world while at the same time focused especially on two threads of historical referents Judaism and pagan religions Development of the above argument demonstrates that the challenge of reconstructing a singular opponent arises not only from the limitations of textual and historical evidence but also from the assumptions and methodologies inherent in historical approaches to the text By modifying these assumptions and adjusting the methodology Copenhaver can show how Paul s letter takes on a new relationship to its historical context
