Opal Men:

Opal's Journey Lionel Gambill, 2014-06-05 Refusing to give up their ancestral land and be driven into the newly established reservation several Nez Perce bands led by Chief Joseph White Bird and Looking Glass embarked on a fighting retreat covering four states Washington Idaho Wyoming and Montana with an attempt to reach safety in Canada Along the way the native warriors outwitted the U S Cavalry again and again but eventually surrendered some 40 miles from the Canadian border where Chief Joseph made his famous I will fight no more forever speech About 750 men women children and elderly set out on the march over 100 died in battles and extreme hardship Based on historical facts mostly the story was told through the eyes of a fictitious nine year old white girl Opal who befriends the Nez Perce and goes through the war with them the oppression of the Native Americans was one of the darkest pages in the U S history yet the spirit of these proud people could never be destroyed even in the face of death and exile and material impoverishment Also the spirit of reconciliation prevailed as the peacemaker Chief Joseph eloquently summed up Whenever the white man treats the Indians as they treat each other then we shall have no more wars We shall be all alike brothers of one father and one mother with one sky above us and one country around us and one government for us all Then the Great Spirit Chief who rules above will smile upon this land and send rain to wash out the bloody spots made by brothers hands upon the face of the earth for this time Indian race is waiting and praying I hope that no more groans of wounded men and women will ever go to the ear of the Great Spirit Chief above and that all people may be one people Legend of the Opal Dragon Judith Emmerson James, 2022-11-30 A rollicking Outback adventure set in the desert region of South Australia where illicit Asian opal buyers enlist a couple of bushies from Coober Pedy to find the cave of the mythical Opal Dragon in the Flinders Ranges A series of events keeps checking their progress on the way what with camel races black trackers and two crafty prospectors stopping their headway Kate a worker at the local pub is abducted by the Asians in an effort to force the two prospectors to reveal the cave of the opalised skeleton of the Australian dragon Megalania priscus The local tribal people were right on their tail and stealthily intervened to rescue Kate and spirit her away during the night The tough Outback Police a Flying Padre and Army reinforcements were right on the trail of the mobsters who fell foul of the difficult conditions of the Outback which caused their downfall Possibly the spirit of old Arkaroo the maker of the waterways of the Ranges intervened to stop the finding of the dragon As well a rugged camel catching team saves an injured small dog Kate learns to ride a camel well for the next races and one of the Coober Pedy protagonists Chook and his big dog Bitzer deals with the knife wielding crim in a most unusual way Laconic Aussie humour like the flies pervades the story with the opal dragon having the last laugh Annual Report New South Wales.
