Open Form and the Feminine Imagination Stephen-Paul Martin,1988      Reading Rilke's Orphic Identity Erika M. Nelson,2005 Studies in Modern German and Austrian Literature publishes research and scholarship devoted to German and Austrian literature of all forms and genres from the eighteenth century to the present day The series promotes the analysis of intersections of literature with thought society and other art forms such as film theatre autobiography music painting sculpture and performance art      Jacques Derrida (Routledge Revivals) William Schultz,Lewis L.B. Fried,2016-06-17 First published in 1992 this book represents the first major attempt to compile a bibliography of Derrida s work and scholarship about his work It attempts to be comprehensive rather than selective listing primary and secondary works from the year of Derrida s Master s thesis in 1954 up until 1991 and is extensively annotated It arranges under article type a huge number of works from scholars across numerous fields reflecting the interdisciplinary and controversial nature of Deconstruction The substantial introduction and annotations also make this bibliography in part a critical guide and as such will make a highly useful reference tool for those studying his philosophy      Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century Eric L. Haralson,2014-01-21 The Encyclopedia of American Poetry The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems along with many articles devoted to topics schools or periods of American verse in the century Entries fall into three main categories poet entries which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author s career entries on individual works which offer closer explication of the most resonant poems in the 20th century canon and topical entries which offer analyses of a given period of literary production school thematically constructed category or other verse tradition that historically has been in dialogue with the poetry of the United States      A Vocabulary of Thinking Deborah M. Mix,2007-12 Using experimental style as a framework for close readings of writings produced by late twentieth century North American women Deborah Mix places Gertrude Stein at the center of a feminist and multicultural account of twentieth century innovative writing Her meticulously argued work maps literary affiliations that connect Stein to the work of Harryette Mullen Daphne Marlatt Betsy Warland Lyn Hejinian and Theresa Hak Kyung Cha By distinguishing a vocabulary which is flexible evolving and simultaneously individual and communal from a lexicon which is recorded fixed and carries the burden of masculine authority Mix argues that Stein s experimentalism both enables and demands the complex responses of these authors Arguing that these authors have received relatively little attention because of the difficulty in categorizing them Mix brings the writing of women of color lesbians and collaborative writers into the discussion of experimental writing Thus rather than exploring conventional lines of influence she departs from earlier scholarship by using Stein and her work as a lens through which to read the ways these authors have renegotiated tradition authority and innovation Building on the tradition of experimental or avant garde writing in the United States Mix questions the politics of the canon and literary influence offers close readings of previously neglected contemporary writers whose work doesn t fit within conventional categories and by linking genres not typically associated with experimentalism lyric epic and autobiography challenges ongoing reevaluations of innovative writing

BOOK JACKET Keeping Literary Company Jerome Klinkowitz, 1999-06-10
 Starting in the 1960s a group of radically new fiction writers began having success at reinventing the novel and short story for postmodern times Chief among them were Kurt Vonnegut Jerzy Kosinski Donald Barthelme Ronald Sukenick Raymond Federman Clarence Major and Gilbert Sorrentino Although their work proved puzzling to reviewers and did not fit the conventions familiar to academic critics these writers found an ally in a young reader named Jerome Klinkowitz Hired to teach Hawthorne and other nineteenth century figures Klinkowitz found his deepest sympathies and most lifelike affinities to be with Vonnegut and company instead Beginning in 1969 he published the first scholarly essays on Vonnegut Kosinski Barthelme and the others in turn By 1975 he was ready to write Literary Disruptions a literary history of what he called this post contemporary period Since then he has written more than thirty books on contemporary fiction and its allied developments in cultural history art music politics and philosophy Keeping Literary Company details Klinkowitz's work with these writers not just researching their fiction and other publications but introducing them to one another and taking part in the business world activities that spread news of their innovations He shows how what they wrote was so much a part of those turbulent times that a new literary generation found itself defined in such works as Slaughterhouse Five Being There and Snow White Here is a fascinating first person account of what these important figures wrote how they wrote it and what it means in the development of American fiction

Catholic Women Writers Mary Reichardt, 2001-07-30 Women have been writing in the Catholic tradition since early medieval times yet no single volume has brought together critical evaluations of their works until now The first reference of its kind Catholic Women Writers provides entries on 64 Catholic women writers from around the world and across the centuries Each of the entries is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography of the author a critical discussion of her works especially her Catholic and women's themes an overview of her critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources Authors writing in all genres including fiction autobiography poetry children's literature and essays are represented The entries give special attention to the authors use of Catholic themes structures traditions culture and spirituality The writers surveyed range from Doctors of the Church to mystics and visionaries to those who employ Catholic themes primarily in

Sequel to History Elizabeth Deeds Ermarth, 2020-10-06 Sequel to History offers a comprehensive definition of postmodernism as a reformation of time Elizabeth Deeds Ermarth uses a diversified theoretical approach drawing on post structuralism feminism new historicism and twentieth century science to demonstrate the crisis of our dominant idea of history and its dissolution in the rhythmic time of postmodernism She enlarges this definition in discussions of several crises of cultural identity the crisis of the object the crisis of the subject and the crisis of the sign Finally she explores the relation between language and time in post modernism proposing an arresting theory of her own about the rhythmic nature of postmodern temporality Because the postmodern construction of time appears so clearly in narrative writing each part of this work is punctuated by a rhythm section on a postmodern narrative Robbe Grillet's Jealousy Cortezar's Hopscotch and Nabokov's Invitation to a Beheading these extended readings provide concrete illustrations of Ermarth's theoretical positions As in her critically acclaimed Realism and Consensus in the English Novel Ermarth ranges across disciplines from anthropology and the visual arts to philosophy and history For its interdisciplinary character and its lucid definition of postmodernism Sequel to History will appeal to all those interested in the humanities

Opposing Poetries Hank Lazer, 1996-08-12 Begins a series presenting collections of survey articles pivoting around the notion of computation The inaugural topics include generalized rational approximation subject to linear constraints matrix exponential approximations in the numerical solution of differential equations unbounded fan in circuits and fixpoint semantics for a Petri net model of definite clause logic programs Each article is self contained and all assume a high sophistication in mathematics Future volumes may focus on a special subfield such as computational graph theory approximation or computability Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

D.), 2009 Race and the Avant Garde investigates the relationship between identity and poetic form in contemporary American literature focusing on Asian American and experimental poets including Allen Ginsberg Ron Silliman Theresa Hak Kyung Cha and John Yau

The Fragmented Novel in Mexico Carol Clark D'Lugo, 2010-01-01 From Mariano Azuela's 1915 novel Los de abajo to Rosamar Roffiel's Amora of 1989 fragmented narrative has been one of the defining features of innovative Mexican fiction in the twentieth century In this innovative study Carol Clark D Lugo examines fragmentation as a literary strategy that reflects the social and political fissures within modern Mexican society and introduces readers to a more participatory reading of texts D Lugo traces defining moments in the development of Mexican fiction and the role fragmentation plays in each Some of the topics she covers are nationalist literature of the 1930s and 1940s self referential novels of the 1950s that focus on the process of reading and writing the works of Carlos Fuentes novels of La Onda that came out of rebellious 1960s Mexican youth culture gay and lesbian fiction and recent women s writings With its sophisticated theoretical methodology that encompasses literature and society this book serves as an admirable survey of the twentieth century Mexican novel It will be important reading for students of Latin American culture and history as well as literature Touch Monkeys Marnie

Parsons,1994-01-01 All too often Nonsense is relegated to the nursery Marnie Parsons argues that rather than being mere child s play nonsense is a major force in poetic language In Touch Monkeys she presents us with an original approach to a much maligned linguistic pursuit Parsons distinguishes between nonsense language and Nonsense the genre Her major chapters work towards a vision of nonsense language as palimpsestic as involving the overlaying of several ways of making meaning on a verbal sense system and the consequent disruption of that system This reading of nonsense is itself an intersection bringing together historical and contemporary criticism of literary Nonsense and a wide range of poetic and literary theories Using Carroll and Lear as examples of Nonsense Parsons provides a survey of existing Nonsense criticism in English and then extends and elaborates nonsense in theoretical directions set by Gilles Deleuze and Julia Kristeva among others and by the poetics of such writers as Charles Olson Charles Bernstein Ron Silliman Steve McCaffery Louis Zukofsky and Daphne Marlatt Following each chapter is a close reading of work by writers as varied as Rudyard Kipling Colleen Thibodeau Adrienne Rich and Lyn Hejinian These readings provide practical applications of nonsense theory and establish the interdependence of theory and practice Nonsense inhabits and challenges traditional forms simultaneously in Touch Monkeys Parsons enters into the spirit of the genre The Melancholy of Race Anne Anlin Cheng,2001 Cheng proposes that racial identification is itself already a melancholic act a social category that is imaginatively supported through a dynamic of loss and compensation by which the racial other is at once rejected and retained Using psychoanalytic theories on mourning and melancholia as inroads into her subject Cheng offers a closely observed and carefully reasoned account of the minority experience as expressed in works of art by and about Asian Americans and African Americans She argues that the racial minority and dominant American culture both suffer from racial melancholia and that this insight is crucial to a productive reimagining of progressive politics Transnationalism and Resistance: Experience and Experiment in Women's Writing

Adele Parker,Stephenie Young,2013 This study presents a unique collection of essays which focus on the relationships among form aesthetics and transnational women s writing produced in recent years The essays in this volume treat literary works from diverse cultures and geographies concentrating on the intersections of theory and literature This results in a wide spectrum of identities and texts including the work of Swedish poet Aase Berg the Indian translation market the Chicana novel creative non fiction by Croatian writer Dubravka Ugrešić and multilingual hybrid texts by Theresa Hak Kyung Cha in order to provide a framework for an overarching theory of transnationalism as it interacts with newer paradigms of gendered identity and the new forms of literature to which they contribute Transnationalism and Resistance offers a multifaceted approach to transnational studies and constitutes a cogent analysis of the ways in which women's writing informs contemporary global literary Production This volume is of interest for scholars in women's studies literature the social sciences cultural studies and all other fields that take an interest in writing that addresses contemporary global issues
