

Open House

*My secrets cry aloud,
I have no need for tongue.
My heart keeps open house,
My doors are widely swung.
An epic of the eyes
My love, with no disguise.*

*My truths are all foreknown,
This anguish self-revealed.
Iâ€™m naked to the bone,
With nakedness my shield.
Myself is what I wear:
I keep the spirit spare.*

*The anger will endure,
The deed will speak the truth
In language strict and pure.
I stop the lying mouth:
Rage warps my clearest cry
To witless agony.*

Open House Beth Ann Fennelly, 2001 A Field Guide to the Poetry of Theodore Roethke William Barillas, 2020-12-29 A constellation of essays that reanimates the work of this pivotal twentieth century American poet for a new century This volume is the first to reconsider Roethke's work in terms of the expanded critical approaches to literature that have emerged since his death in 1963 Editor William Barillas and over forty contributors including highly respected literary scholars critics and writers such as Peter Balakian Camille Paglia Jay Parini and David Wojahn collectively make a case for Roethke's poetry as a complete unified and evolving body of work The accessible essays employ a number of approaches including formalism ecocriticism reader response and feminist critique to explicate the poetics themes and the biographical historical cultural and literary contexts of Roethke's work Hannah Weiner's Open House Hannah Weiner, 2007 Poetry HANNAH WEINER'S OPEN HOUSE beckons us into a realm of poetry that bends consciousness in order to open the doors of perception Weiner is one of the great American linguistic inventors of the last thirty years of the 20th century She created an alchemical poetry that transforms the materials of everyday life into a dimension beyond sensory perception The pieces collected here are as much conceptual art as sprung prose experimental mysticism as social realism autobiography as egoless lyric Patrick Durgin has brought together touchstone works some familiar and some never before published HANNAH WEINER'S OPEN HOUSE provides the only single volume introduction to the full range of Weiner's vibrant entrancing and unique contribution to the poetry of the Americas Charles Bernstein The American House Poem, 1945-2021 Walt Hunter, 2023-09-19 The house is perhaps the most recognizable emblem of the American ideals of self making prosperity stability domesticity and upward mobility Yet over the years from 1945-2021 the American house becomes more famous for the betrayal of those hopes than for their fulfillment first through the segregation of cities and public housing then through the expansion of private credit that lays the ground for the subprime mortgage crisis of the early twenty first century Walt Hunter argues that as access to housing expands to include a greater share of the US population the house emerges as a central metaphor for the poetic imagination From the kitchenette of Gwendolyn Brooks to the duplex of Jericho Brown and from the suburban imagination of Adrienne Rich to the epic constructions of James Merrill the American house poem represents the changing abilities of US poets to imagine new forms of life while also building on the past In The American House Poem 1945-2021 Hunter focuses on poets who register the unevenly distributed pressures of successive housing crises by rewriting older poetic forms Writing about the materials tools and plans for making a house these poets express the tensions between making their lives into art and freeing their lives from inherited constraints and conditions American Poets and Poetry Jeffrey Gray, Mary McAleer Balkun, James McCorkle, 2015-03-10 The ethnically diverse scope broad chronological coverage and mix of biographical critical historical political and cultural entries make this the most useful and exciting poetry reference of its kind for students today American poetry springs up out of all walks of life its poems are maternal as well as
