Strategic Giving Peter Frumkin, 2008-09-15 The philanthropic landscape is changing dramatically as a new generation of wealthy donors seeks to leave its mark on the public sphere Peter Frumkin reveals in Strategic Giving why these donors could benefit from having a comprehensive plan to guide their giving And with this thoughtful and timely book he provides the much needed framework to understand and develop this kind of philanthropic strategy After listening for years to scores of individual and institutional funders discuss the challenges of giving wisely Frumkin argues here that contemporary philanthropy requires a thorough rethinking of its underlying logic Philanthropy should be seen he contends as both a powerful way to meet public needs and a meaningful way to express private beliefs and commitments He demonstrates that finding a way to simultaneously fulfill both of these functions is crucial to the survival of philanthropy and its potential to support pluralism in society And he goes on to identify the five essential elements donors must consider when developing a philanthropic strategy the vehicle through which giving will flow the way impact will be achieved the level of engagement and profile sought the time frame for giving and the underlying purpose of the gift Frumkin's point is that donors must understand strategic giving as the integration of these five critical dimensions to giving Essential reading for donors researchers and anyone involved with the world of philanthropy Strategic Giving provides a new basis for understanding philanthropic effectiveness and a promising new way for philanthropy to achieve the legitimacy that has at times eluded it     Philanthropy and Fundraising in American Higher Education, Volume 37, Number 2 Noah D. Drezner, 2011-05-17 From gifts of blankets chickens and candles to multimillion dollar gifts and billion dollar campaigns voluntary support of American higher education has been part of the American ethos since the founding of the colonial colleges Peter Dobkin Hall in 1992 noted that no single force is more responsible for the emergence of the modern university in America than giving by individuals and foundations Institutions are turning to private giving to meet budgetary demands This book provides a review of the philanthropy and fundraising literature and addresses the impact of philanthropy on American higher education the theoretical underpinnings and motivations for voluntary support and a comprehensive look at the mechanics of fundraising     Fundraising in Diverse Cultural and Giving Environments Robert E. Fogal, 2003-04-02 Bringing diverse cultural traditions into philanthropic fundraising can be rewarding for all parties involved Accomplishing that daunting task successfully is the theme of this issue Opening a constructive dialogue between theory and practice in philanthropic fundraising in diverse cultural and giving environments editor Robert E Fogal executive director of St Mary's Duluth Clinic Foundation is joined by contributing authors from the 2002 Think Tank on Fundraising at St Mary's College Notre Dame Indiana Exploring the topic from a variety of perspectives editor and authors seek a set of normative recommendations and findings that will promote a stronger philanthropic community and extend professional academic and public conversations about philanthropic issues Chapters examine trends in giving in African American Asian American Latino and Native American communities Pier C Rogers presents the results of structured interviews with African American philanthropic professional managers volunteer leaders and fundraisers for nonprofits and provides insight into values attitudes and practices in this community Janice Gow Petty addresses the theme of remittances in nonmajority immigrant families and explores ways that the majority culture can understand and engage this tradition to create new models of giving that successfully blend various and distinct methods of giving and sharing Mike Cortes examines common assumptions about the Hispanic community and illustrates the more specific geographical identities in that diverse Latino community that supersedes the term Similarly Kay C Peck reminds fundraising professionals that there is no single American Indian culture and stresses the importance of recognizing the history of cultural destruction as a prerequisite to understanding philanthropic traditions within the American Indian community Effects of race and gender on giving and volunteering are explored Presenting the results of a survey of 885 Indiana households a research team at the School of Public and Environmental Affairs Indiana University Purdue University Indianapolis examines these effects and tracks them across different survey methodologies used in eight past studies Findings from this study bring to light significant and surprising trends in giving and volunteering behaviors by race and gender Philanthropic fundraisers must also recognize emerging cultures Working at the Community Foundation Silicon Valley Barbara Larson explores the new philanthropy in the dot com world and reveals the breakdown of donor market categories in the face of the variety of options and vehicles for giving in this volatile constantly changing donor community Unexpected trends emerging in the wake of the Bush administrations initiatives to foster faith based engagement in social welfare through government funding must be recognized as well Director of Development for Catholic Near East Welfare Association Margaret Guellich examines some of the potential risks to mission integrity stewardship and donor erosion Thomas H Jeavons visiting fellow at the Yale University Program on Nonprofit Organizations at Yale Divinity School cautions against perceive faith based organizations as monolith social entities and demonstrates that the impact of the proposed government program is likely to be small What does the fundraising professional need to face these and other emerging challenges Roger C Hedgepeth principal consultant for CWC Hedgepeth Group asserts that fundraising and fundraising professionals are not prepared to deal with the cultural and social changes they face Instead they need to become boundary spanners characterized by uncommon professional skills that are supported by keen self awareness and multicultural literacy This volume is a crucial tool for philanthropic fundraisers committed to achieving that goal
