Cart's Top 200 Adult Books for Young Adults Michael Cart,2013-02-21 Put together with insight and obvious affection Cart's guide spotlights hundreds of great books for a hard to satisfy audience Teaching Young Adult Literature Mike Cadden,Karen Coats,Roberta Seelinger Trites,2020-04-01 Offers pedagogical techniques for teaching classic and contemporary young adult YA literature and texts about growing to adulthood Addresses issues of selecting classroom texts building cultural awareness responding to censorship and reading both emotionally and critically Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses in literature education and library science Reading Still Matters Catherine Sheldrick Ross,Lynne (E.F.) McKechnie,Paulette M. Rothbauer,2018-03-01 Drawing on scholarly research findings this book presents a cogent case that librarians can use to work towards prioritization of reading in libraries and in schools Reading is more important than it has ever been recent research on reading such as PEW reports and Scholastic's Kids and Family Reading Report proves that fact This new edition of Reading Matters provides powerful evidence that can be used to justify the establishment maintenance and growth of pleasure reading collections both fiction and nonfiction and of readers advisory services The authors assert that reading should be woven into the majority of library activities reference collection building provision of leisure materials readers advisory services storytelling and story time programs adult literacy programs and more This edition also addresses emergent areas of interest such as e reading e writing and e publishing multiple literacies visual texts the ascendancy of young adult fiction and fan fiction A new chapter addresses special communities of YA readers The book will help library administrators and personnel convey the importance of reading to grant funding agencies stakeholders and the public at large LIS faculty who wish to establish and maintain courses in readers advisory will find it of particular interest Core Library for Literacy and Conversational English Programs V. K. Lawson,1984 The Oxford Companion to Children's Literature Daniel Hahn,Michael Morpurgo,2015 The last thirty years have witnessed one of the most fertile periods in the history of children's books A fascinating reference guide to the world of children's literature this volume covers every genre from fairy tales to chapbooks school stories to science fiction comics to children's hymns

Resources in Education ,1995-07 Changing Places? Richard Edwards,2002-09-10 Flexibility has become a central concept in much policy and academic debate Individuals organizations and societies are all required to become more flexible so that they can participate in the ongoing processes of change involved in lifelong learning This book explores how the notion of a learning society has developed over recent years the changes that have given rise to the requirement for flexibility and the changed discourses and practices that have emerged in the education and training of adults With the growth in interest in adults as learners primarily to support economic competitiveness the closed field of adult education has now been displaced by a more open discourse of lifelong learning This involves not only changing practices such as moving towards open and distance based learning but also changing workplace identities Learning settings are therefore changing places in a number of senses they are places in which people change they are subject to change and they are changing to include the home and workplace as well as more formal settings This book takes an unusually critical standpoint it challenges contemporary trends explores the uncertainties and ambivalences of the processes of change and is suggestive of different forms of engagement with them It will prove an important text for policy makers workplace trainers and those working in the field of adult further and higher education Richard Edwards is currently a Senior Lecturer in post compulsory education at the Open University

English Matters: The Rose Street Reader Level 1, Module 3,2000 The Highlow Report,1979 The Library Catalogue as Social Space Laurel Tarulli,2012-01-16 Emphasizing the advantages of working together and exploring the future of library services in an online socially connected world this exciting book shows how all public library professionals can take advantage of our strongest community and information tool the library catalogue This book is a guide to the library catalogue that all public library professionals will find enlightening and useful Its technical services perspective provides a different point of view as compared to traditional public library literature which is often written by frontline professionals For example it poses and examines this thought provoking question should library catalogues be considered the primary gateway to the library s information rather than the library website Author and collection access librarian Laurel Tarulli examines next generation or social catalogues discussing the theories and concepts behind them their impact on core library services and their potential in shaping future libraries and library services Geared toward frontline and backroom staff this book helps readers understand next generation catalogues and see the collaborative opportunities that are possible between the frontline and backroom Written to be much more than a one time read this resource book provides practical ideas for beneficial collaboration and implementation of social features in library catalogues

Stepping Stones Bryan Britton, 2012-11 The educational system in South Africa has failed the young learners of this new nation says author Bryan Britton who has contributed this work as a very small step in the giant leap necessary to rehabilitate our highly susceptible youth and help them make sound and moral judgements There has been little concern for the aspirations of the young people of South Africa The benefits of learning character building moral education and religion were lost in the turmoil of the 1980s and 1990s resulting in a rudderless sometimes murderous element pervading South African society The Rainbow Nation is today the crime mecca of the world and the haves now have more and the have nots appallingly less Can we put an end to this moral decay Perhaps adopting sound non sexist non racial and evergreen wisdom from the past can be used to commence regenerating the shredded moral fibre of this country To aid youngsters in their search for ethics the author has gathered a selection of pertinent wisdom from the past Perhaps young people in South Africa will see in these excerpts building blocks with which to construct a viable morality for their young lives and hence for the country they are destined to inherit
