Humanistica Lovaniensia, 2004 The Reception of Erasmus in the Early Modern Period Karl A. E. Enenkel, 2013-08-01 Erasmus was not only one of the most widely read authors of the early modern period but one of the most controversial For some readers he represented the perfect humanist scholar for others he was an arrogant hypercritic a Lutheran heretic and polemicist a virtuoso writer and rhetorician an inventor of a new authentic Latin style etc In the present volume a number of aspects of Erasmus's manifold reception are discussed especially lesser known ones such as his reception in Neo Latin poetry The volume does not focus only on so called Erasmians but offers a broader spectrum of reception and demonstrates that Erasmus's name also was used in order to authorize completely un- Erasmian ideals such as atheism radical reformation Lutheranism religious intolerance Jesuit education Marian devotion etc Contributors include Philip Ford Dirk Sacré Paul J. Smith Lucia Felici Gregory D. Dodds Hilmar M. Preparing for Death, Remembering the Dead Tarald Rasmussen, Jon Øygarden Flæten, 2015-04-22 Death and dying were not in the main focus of the denominational conflicts of the 16th century However pious literature covered these topics again and again not only before the Reformation but after it as well Here certain denominational differences are clearly visible Partly these differences consist in the use of genres For example funeral sermons are an often used genre among Lutherans while they are much rarer in the Reformed tradition Similar differences can be observed concerning epitaphs In Roman Catholic areas funeral sermons and epitaphs are common in the 16th century too but their religious function is often a different from the one in Lutheranism Beyond such interdenominational differences there are also interesting continuities and connections which the contributors of the volume analyze For example there is a certain continuity between 16th century Lutheran funeral sermons and the late medieval tradition of ars moriendi The volume contains papers presented at the Second RefoRC Conference in Oslo in 2012 and is characterized by a multiconfessional and multidisciplinary approach with contributions from Church History Art History Archaeology History of Literature and Cultural History Within a field of research dominated by specialized contributions e.g. on ars moriendi traditions or on specific traditions of funeral monuments and funeral sermons the broad approach of this volume may further stimulate to comparative and cross confessional reflection John Calvin. An introduction to his theological thought , Theology and Literature in the Age of Johnson Melvyn New, Gerard

Reedy, S.J.,2012-06-14 Seventeen essays explore the complex relationships between literary intentions and theological concerns of authors writing in the second half of the eighteenth century The diversity of literary forms and subjects from Fielding and Richardson to Burke and Wollstonecraft is matched by a diversity of theologies to argue that the age resisted secularism is by no means to argue that that resistance was blindly doctrinal or rigidly uniform the many ways secularism could be resisted is the subject of the collection The Theology of Early French Protestantism Martin I.

Klauber,2023-08-15 In the newest volume of the Reformed Historical Theological Studies series twelve historians survey the history and doctrine of the French Reformation A History of Preaching Volume 1 Rev. O.C. Edwards JR.,2016-04-25 A History of Preaching brings together narrative history and primary sources to provide the most comprehensive guide available to the story of the church s ministry of proclamation Bringing together an impressive array of familiar and lesser known figures Edwards paints a detailed compelling picture of what it has meant to preach the gospel Pastors scholars and students of homiletics will find here many opportunities to enrich their understanding and practice of preaching Volume 1 contains Edwards s magisterial retelling of the story of Christian preaching s development from its Hellenistic and Jewish roots in the New Testament through the late twentieth century s discontent with outdated forms and emphasis on new modes of preaching such as narrative Along the way the author introduces us to the complexities and contributions of preachers both with whom we are already acquainted and to whom we will be introduced here for the first time Origen Chrysostom Augustine Bernard Aquinas Luther Calvin Wesley Edwards Rauschenbusch Barth all of their distinctive contributions receive careful attention Yet lesser known figures and developments also appear from the ninth century reform of preaching championed by Hrabanus Maurus to the reference books developed in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries by the mendicant orders to assist their members preaching to Howell Harris and Daniel Rowlands preachers of the eighteenth century Welsh revival to Helen Kenyon speaking as a layperson at the 1950 Yale Beecher lectures about the view of preaching from the pew Volume 2 available separately as 9781501833786 contains primary source material on preaching drawn from the entire scope of the church s twenty centuries The author has written an introduction to each selection placing it in its historical context and pointing to its particular contribution Each chapter in Volume 2 is geared to its companion chapter in Volume 1 s narrative history Ecumenical in scope fair minded in presentation appreciative of the contributions that all the branches of the church have made to the story of what it means to develop deliver and listen to a sermon A History of Preaching will be the definitive resource for anyone who wishes to preach or to understand preaching s role in living out the gospel This work is expected to be the standard text on preaching for the next 30 years says Ann K Riggs who staffs the NCC s Faith and Order Commission Author Edwards former professor of preaching at Seabury Western

Theological Seminary is co moderator of the commission which studies church uniting and church dividing issues A History of Preaching is ecumenical in scope and will be relevant in all our churches we all participate in this field says Riggs from EcuLink Number 65 Winter 2004 2005 published by the National Council of Churches John Calvin's Impact on Church and Society, 1509-2009 Martin Ernst Hirzel, Martin Sallmann, 2009-04-03 A tribute to the monumental influence of John Calvin in the 500 years since his birth What legacies still enduring today have John Calvin and Calvinism given to the church and society in Europe and North America An international group of scholars tackles that question in this volume honoring Calvin s 500th birthday These chapters together provide a comprehensive and accessible introduction to Calvin s life and thought the history of the Reformation in Switzerland and worldwide and his continuing relevance for ecclesial social and political questions today Contributors Philip Benedict James D Bratt Emidio Campi Wulfert de Greef Christopher Elwood Eva Maria Faber Eric Fuchs Ulrich H J Krtner Christian Link Christian Moser Andrew Pettegree Christoph Strohm Mario Turchetti The essays in this book fit beautifully together to provide a solid complete work that gives precise insight into the many different facets of Calvin and Calvinism The high level research found here clearly shows the great impact that Calvin has had on both church and society It is a great pleasure to see Calvin here anew Eberhard Busch University of Gttingen That John Calvin made a deep and lasting impact on many aspects of history is common knowledge but the character of the man and the nature of his influence are perhaps as controversial as any that can be named It is thus a challenge to examine even a fraction of the many ways that Calvin s life and thought have contributed to the shaping of later ages in both church and society This volume offers essays on key points from an appropriately international group of authors appreciative but critical drawing on a rich range of recent scholarship presented in a pleasing and accessible form It is a fine place for the new reader of Calvin to get a glimpse of his impact while offering a fresh summary of some significant issues for more advanced students of the Reformer Elsie Anne McKee Princeton Theological Seminary Hirzel and Sallmann have succeeded in gathering essays by an illustrious circle of experts both historians and theologians on important areas of Calvin s thought and impact Ranging from an insignificant city at the edge of the Swiss Confederation in the 1530s to the Accra Confession of 2004 these essays will serve to correct popular misconceptions A fine introduction for a broader readership that wants more than mere armchair theology Peter Opitz University of Zurich Learning Greek in Western Europe, 1396-1529 Paul Botley, Martin Luther: The preservation of the church, 1532-1546- Martin Brecht, 1985 In this definitive study the author accomplishes two important tasks First he contrasts the theological perspectives of earlier biographies with the results of more modern research into Luther s socio economic context psychological relationships late medieval and humanist thought university curricula and political factors Second in keeping with his theory that the historical discipline must make its results accessible to a wider audience unless it wishes to encourage the historical amnesia which it so often laments the author communicates the findings of technical Reformation scholarship to the public in a comprehensible style Book jacket

More Than a Memory Johan Leemans, 2005 Throughout its history persecutions and martyrdom have been Christianity's faithful companions Remarkably enough Christians have always valued martyrdom in a positive way This positive evaluation of martyrdom most certainly has to do with the absolute uncompromising nature of it The martyrs lives and deaths represent the most uncompromising of answers to the divine call The focus of the contributions in this volume is not in the first place on reconstructing the historical events of the martyr's life and death wie es eigentlich gewesen ist but on the discourse generated by this event as mediated in texts More than a Memory aims to explore the reciprocal relationship between this discourse of martyrdom and the construction of Christian identity It will do so by presenting a number of test cases in which this dynamic can be seen at work They will lead the reader through the entire history of Christianity starting with the Martyrdom of Lyons and Vienne in the second century and ending in the Latin America of the 1960's Each article will present a test case of discourse analysis attempting to explore the issue of how a document or coherent group of documents contributed to create a distinct Christian identity Taken together the essays provide an array of examples of how martyrdom impinged on the way Christian identity has been negotiated in the Christian past In doing this the volume at the same time illustrates the sheer importance of martyrdom and the reflection and writing about it throughout the history of Christianity until today

Martin Luther, Volume 2 Martin Brecht, 2009-12-01 Brecht provides a comprehensive study of the consolidation of the Reformation in the middle period of Luther's active life He treats both Luther's personal life and the development of Lutheran doctrine and practice exhaustively The reader is left with great admiration for Luther's talents as a theologian translator and church builder
