Middle East issues can become muddled and confusing, particularly since the mainstream news media editorials and popular literature on this highly controversial subject are often plagued by inaccurate information or even disinformation. They often commit biased omissions, leaving out important information that can help the public comprehend the true entire picture. Understanding the Volatile and Dangerous Middle East seeks to counteract these inaccuracies. It will prevent readers from making common and not so common mistakes for lack of adequate knowledge. Additionally, there are 78 maps, a built-in Middle East historical atlas and numerous tables that enhance the text, which is thoroughly indexed. The author presents this information in a clear, comprehensive, understandable and insightful manner. Understanding the Volatile and Dangerous Middle East is a Middle East library rolled into one volume. For anyone who seeks the truth based on facts, this is definitely one book to keep handy on your library shelf. 50 People Who Messed up the World Alexander Parker, Tim Richman, 2017-11-09 Who would top your list of the fifty people who have done the most to make the modern world a worse place? I can't imagine how they whittled it down to just 50 people. Comedian Nik Rabinowitz. A fantastic, thought-provoking book that renews my appreciation for history. It reminds us how we got here and how we can avoid things getting worse. Mandla Shongwe. SAFM Lifestyle. A fascinating, terrific read. Gareth Cliff. CliffCentral. From despotic mass murderers to sports cheats and from corrupt politicians to truly dreadful celebrities who have had the most damaging or vexatious impact in their particular sphere of modern life. This line-up of the very worst of the twentieth century and beyond includes the obvious candidates: those who have caused extraordinary damage through their murderous paranoia, brutal avarice or demented self-regard: Stalin, King Leopold, Idi Amin and the like. But murderous dictators aside, there are plenty of others who deserve recognition for their role in making the world a significantly more dangerous or, at the very least, more annoying place: terrorist Carlos the Jackal, Robert Oppenheimer, the man who gave the world the atomic bomb, notorious sports cheat Lance

Armstrong and the one and only President Donald Trump who has of course succeeded in making the world both more annoying and more dangerous This perfectly focused spotlight on infamy is illustrated throughout by award winning political cartoonist Zapiro
