Veronico, 2019-06-01 Those who witnessed it never forgot it the great armada of Allied ships that filled the English Channel on D Day June 6 1944 From battleships cruisers and destroyers down to the much smaller landing ships and landing craft these nearly 7 000 vessels bombarded the Normandy coast ferried men tanks and equipment across the channel and landed 150 000 troops under withering German fire on Omaha Utah Gold Juno and Sword beaches in a single day In numbers and scope it was the largest seaborne invasion in history Meanwhile some 12 000 aircraft flew above the sea a dizzying assortment of fighters and bombers transports recon craft and gliders Taking off from air fields in England they dropped thousands of paratroopers and even vehicles bombed roads and German positions miles inland provided vital intelligence and attacked any German planes that were able to take to the skies It was the largest single day aerial operation in history And yet these important and impressive aspects of D Day haven t received the coverage they deserve having been overshadowed by the fighting on the beaches Veronico assembles photos of both the air and sea components of the D Day invasion giving the sailors and airmen their due and giving modern readers a vivid sense of what this monumental day was like in the air and at sea

20 Battles Evert Kleynhans, David Brock Katz, 2023-07-28 Favouring manoeuvre over attrition and often punching above their weight South African soldiers have become known for their tenacity dash and ability to defy the odds Their unique directive command style has also helped them to excel in defining battles and operations from the campaign in German South West Africa in 1915 to the cross border operations in Angola during the Border War In 20 Battles military historians Evert Kleynhans and David Brock Katz investigate the evolution of South Africa's armed forces over a century from 1913 to 2013 They track the evolution of the doctrine and structure of the defence force uncovering historical continuity and the lessons learned from past battles and operations What is clear is that when South African soldiers have the freedom to operate according to their manoeuvre doctrine as they had in East Africa in 1916 and southern Ethiopia in 1941 they can achieve stunning results But when hemmed in by rigid doctrine and a top down command style as at Delville Wood in 1916 and Tobruk in 1942 the results can be tragic 20 Battles combines both battlefield drama and crisp analysis and in the process provides a much needed perspective on the South African way of war Ocean Dumping
