Operation Sea Lion German Plans For The:

German Plans for the Invasion of England Digital Publications, 2017-07-02 Operation Sea Lion also written as Operation Sealion German Unternehmen Seel we was Nazi Germany's code name for the plan for an invasion of the United Kingdom during the Battle of Britain in the Second World War Following the Fall of France Adolf Hitler the German Führer and Supreme Commander of the Armed Forces hoped the British government would seek a peace agreement and he reluctantly considered invasion only as a last resort if all other options failed As a precondition he specified the achievement of both air and naval superiority over the English Channel and the proposed landing sites but the German forces did not achieve this at any point during the war and both the German High Command and Hitler himself had serious doubts about the prospects for success A large number of barges were gathered together on the Channel coast but with air losses increasing Hitler postponed Sea Lion indefinitely on 17 September 1940 and it was never put into action

Operation Sea Lion Lt Col Randy McCanne, L. T. C. Greg D. Olson Olson, C. D. R. Dario E. Teicher, 2010-10 Three U S officers one from the Air Force one from the Army and one from the Navy met at the Joint Forces Staff College to argue that a truly joint approach could have produced success for Hitler in Operation Sea Lion the proposed invasion of England in 1940 Military history contains many lessons from which the warfighting doctrine of the individual services as well as joint doctrine is derived World War II stands as one of the major contributors of valuable lessons learned From a joint and combined warfighting perspective Germany's planning and preparatory military actions to the invasion of Great Britain after the fall of France are instructive Their plan called Operation SEA LION by the Germans was never carried out as certain prerequisite conditions were never achieved and Hitler elected to move on to other operations But Germany could have been successful in invading and if necessary occupying Great Britain had they exercised joint and combined operations to achieve better unity of effort within the German military remained focused on key British operational centers of gravity and exploited the capabilities of friendly nations such as Spain Italy and the Vichy government of France
