Operations Research in Hospitals: Diagnosis and Prognosis David H. Stimson, Ruth H. Stimson, 1972 Neuromatic John Lardas Modern, 2021-09-29 The story Modern tells ranges from eighteenth century brain anatomies to the MRI from the spread of phrenological cabinets and mental pieties in the nineteenth century to the discovery of the motor cortex and the emergence of the brain wave as a measurable manifestation of cognition from cybernetic research into neural networks and artificial intelligence to the founding of brain centric religious organizations such as Scientology from the deployments of cognitive paradigms in electric shock treatment to the work of Barbara Brown a neurofeedback pioneer who promoted the practice of controlling one's own brainwaves in the 1970s What Modern reveals via this grand tour is that our ostensibly secular turn to the brain is bound up at every turn with the religion it discounts ignores or actively dismisses Nowhere are science and religion closer than when they try to exclude each other at their own peril The Computer and Blood Banking J. R. Möhr, A. Kluge, 2013-03-08 In the autumn of 1980 the decision was made by the responsible bodies of the German Society for Medical Documentation Informatics and Statistics Deutsche Gesellschaft für Medizinische Dokumentation Informatik und Statistik e V to make the application of computers in blood banking and blood transfusion one of the topics to be treated at the 8th spring conference of this Society which was then arranged to take place in Tübingen from April 9-11 1981 The goal of the conference was to unite application specialists and methodologists in order to assess current achievements and identify fields needing further improvement We were fortunate to obtain the interest of the German Society for Blood Transfusion and Immunohaematology D. Roos the head of the EDP Work study group of the Section 1 of this Society did substantially influence the programme Many of the papers actually reflect accomplishments of his research and of the work study group We also consider ourselves fortunate to win Prof C. Mueller-Eckhardt current president of this Society to give an introductory address National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1971 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70 Health Planning Reports: Subject index. 4 v United States.
