Mapping Women, Making Politics Lynn Staeheli, Eleonore Kofman, Linda Peake, 2013-03-07 Mapping Women Making Politics demonstrates the multiple ways in which gender influences political processes and the politics of space The book begins by addressing feminism s theoretical and conceptual challenges to traditional political geography and then applies these perspectives to a range of settings and topics including nationalism migration development international relations elections social movements governance and the environment in the Global North and South Body Politics in Development Wendy Harcourt, 2009-10-15 Body Politics in Development sets out to define body politics as a key political and mobilizing force for human rights in the last two decades This passionate and engaging book reveals how once tabooed issues such as rape gender based violence and sexual and reproductive rights have emerged into the public arena as critical grounds of contention and struggle Engaging in the latest feminist thinking and action the book describes the struggles around body politics for people living in economic and socially vulnerable communities and covers a broad range of gender and development issues including fundamentalism sexualities and new technologies from diverse viewpoints The book s originality comes through the author s rich experience and engagement in feminist activism and global body politics and was winner of the 2010 FWSA Book Prize Contesting the Politics of Genocidal Rape Debra B. Bergoffen,2013-03-01 Rape traditionally a spoil of war became a weapon of war in the ethnic cleansing campaign in Bosnia The ICTY Kunarac court responded by transforming wartime rape from an ignored crime into a crime against humanity In its judgment the court argued that the rapists violated the Muslim women s right to sexual self determination Announcing this right to sexual integrity the court transformed women s vulnerability from an invitation to abuse into a mark of human dignity This close reading of the trial guided by the phenomenological themes of the lived body and ambiguity feminist critiques of the autonomous subject and the liberal sexual social contract critical legal theory assessments of human rights law and institutions and psychoanalytic analyses of the politics of desire argues that the court by validating women s epistemic authority their right to establish the meaning of their experience of rape and affirming the dignity of the vulnerable body thereby dethroning the autonomous body as the embodiment of dignity shows us that human rights instruments can be used to combat the epidemic of wartime rape if they are read as de legitimating the authority of the masculine autonomous subject and the gender codes it anchors Making Feminist Politics Suzanne Franzway,Mary Margaret Fonow,2011-02-17 In this timely and detailed examination of the intersections of feminism labor politics and global studies Suzanne Franzway and Mary Margaret Fonow reveal the ways in which women across the world are transforming labor unions in the contemporary era Situating specific case studies within broad feminist topics Franzway and Fonow concentrate on union feminists mobilizing at multiple sites issues of wages and equity child care campaigns work life balance and queer organizing demonstrating how unions around the world are broadening their focuses from contractual details to empowerment and family and feminist issues By connecting the diversity of women s experiences around the world both inside and outside the home and highlighting the innovative ways women workers attain their common goals Making Feminist Politics lays the groundwork for recognition of the total individual in the future of feminist politics within global union movements Publisher description Gender, Politics, News Karen Ross,2017-01-30 Gender Politics News A Game of Three Sides explores the role of gender in the broader processes of political communication The only contemporary book focusing on the relationships between gender politics and news media which takes a global perspective An analysis of political journalism as a practice and the development of the field in terms of gendered workplace cultures Offers a solid framework for understanding women s political representation including real world case studies of women s campaigns for the top political job across a range of different geographies and contexts Coverage of hot button issues such as political scandal and the role of new and social media in politics and elections makes this a highly relevant and current work with resonances for a wide audience
