Ram Chanders Story:

Memorable War Stories Ranbir Singh Gp Capt, 2009-01-01 Memorable War Stories is a collection of 27 war stories and incidents placing on record the exciting exploits of our own fliers of the Indian Air Force and the intrepid fighters of the Army and Navy operating in our own environment All the stories incidents recorded in the book are true and factually correct and are based on research first person accounts and published stories carried by different newspapers and magazines over a period of time Although most of the names of the crews have been clipped down to their squadron nicknames nevertheless they will be quite identifiable to their colleagues and contemporaries The book has been fictionalised to an extent to make it readable and bring in the human angle but there is no compromise on the factual details The war stories and the other incidents cover a wide spectrum beginning with the Kashmir operations and race the reader through the 1962 Sino Indian Frontier War the Twenty Two Fateful Days of the 1965 Indo Pak Conflict the Fourteen Days 1971 war and not forgetting the Kargil Operation Vijay The book has been written in an easy and fluid style which makes it immensely readable and the simple language though with a defence flavour should find favour with the men in uniform as well as civilians It is a welcome addition to the books on defence themes

Narratives Across Borders Manju Jaidka,2016-04-26 This volume is centred around the idea that the aim of literature is to build bridges to bring people together and to highlight underlying similarities despite the apparent differences in world literatures As such the book focuses on the moral purpose of literature and its tendency to overcome divisive forces It supports the idea of cosmopolitanism a re working of the ancient Indian ideal of Vasudhaiva Kuttumbakam or the world is my home a concept close to the African notion of ubuntu which refers to an open society as against a small enclosed one and relates to the essence of being human and working for the benefit of a larger community The book uses examples from texts across geographical and cultural borders beginning with classics like the Indian epics the Panchatantra the Kathasaritsagar and the Arabian Nights before moving on to contemporary texts in the age of information technology Although these may originate against diverse backdrops they have a commonality that cannot be denied The stories we tell the tales we love to hear and repeat all share certain features which reach out across boundaries of time and space thus bridging the gap between people and places Living in today s globalized world there is a need to study literature in a broader perspective and to be aware that though stories may be rooted in a particular time and place they are still a part of the world heritage and comprise what is called world literature The book will be of particular interest to scholars studying the art of storytelling as well as the lay reader passionate about literature

Struggling with Destiny in Karimpur, 1925-1984 Susan S. Wadley,2023-07-28 Susan Wadley first visited Karimpur the village behind mud walls made famous by William and Charlotte Wiser as a graduate student in 1967 She returned often adding her observations and experiences to the Wisers field notes from the 1920s and 1930s In this long awaited book Wadley gives us a work of unprecedented scope a portrait of an Indian village as it has changed over a sixty year period She hears of changes in agriculture labor relations education and the family But Karimpur s residents do not speak with one voice in describing the ways their lives have changed viewpoints vary considerably depending on the speaker s gender economic status and caste Using cultural documents such as songs and stories as well as data on household budgets and farming practices Wadley examines what it means to be poor or rich female or male She demonstrates that the forms of subordination prescribed for women are paralleled by those prescribed for lower castes Villagers also speak of political struggles in India and of the importance of religion when confronting change Their stories songs and life histories reveal the rich fabric of Karimpur and show how much can be learned from listening to its people Susan Wadley first visited Karimpur the village behind mud walls made famous by William and Charlotte Wiser as a graduate student in 1967 She returned often adding her observations and experiences to the Wisers field notes from the 1920s and 1930s I A Tale of a Married Life and Other Stories Shukdeb Sen,2025-05-05 The stories highlighted the chronic social condition of the elderly in America and perhaps in all developed countries where much of the population lives in a condition of neglect Their own families push them into a society of elderly care where care may be inadequate Artificial Intelligence AI created a humanoid that might be a more effective helper or caregiver for elderly people compared to human caregivers particularly to eliminate loneliness and boredom Broken Flute is a story about the cultural influence of arranged marriages in India and some of their inherent pitfalls Beatrice is a poignant tale of a woman s desire to be a mother which is much more powerful than the physical sexual and spiritual bonding between two women partners In the story Shikar Kanchan a man with developmental disabilities reveals true love and its essence to his wife Kajol and everyone searching for it In Secrets of Pontorson Shukanta Roy discovered a secret that helped the Allied Army launch a D Day attack on the German Army The story Tentacles of PTSD opened the impact of post traumatic stress disorder on the minds and spirits of American servicemen who were wounded during the Iraq War In the story Coincident the author experiences a dream while staying at Pontorson France In the story Quest for a Simple Life the arranged marriage between Saurav and Laxmi becomes strained even though both want to live a simple life However the meaning of simple life differed by almost 180 degrees A Tale of a Married Life is a love story between Pankaj and Kabita Addiction to alcohol and drugs pushed Pankaj to near death but Kabita s unconditional love pulled him out of the inferno of death for many years Then the inevitable struck him down Pankaj left physically but his soul was inside the Alpha X1 to lean on and protect Kabita from boredom and loneliness
