Throughout the British colonies in the nineteenth century judges were expected not only to administer law and justice but also to play a significant role within the governance of their jurisdictions British authorities were consequently concerned about judges loyalty to the Crown and on occasion removed or suspended those who were found politically subversive or personally difficult Even reasonable and well balanced judges were sometimes threatened with removal Using the career histories of judges who challenged the system Dewigged Bothered and Bewildered illuminates issues of judicial tenure accountability and independence throughout the British Empire John McLaren closely examines cases of judges across a wide geographic spectrum from Australia to the Caribbean and from Canada to Sierra Leone who faced disciplinary action These riveting stories provide helpful insights into the tenuous position of the colonial judiciary and the precarious state of politics in a variety of British colonies The Cambridge Companion to Postcolonial Travel Writing Robert Clarke,2018-01-11

The Cambridge Companion to Postcolonial Travel Writing offers readers an insight into the scope and range of perspectives that one encounters in this field of writing Encompassing a diverse range of texts and styles performances and forms postcolonial travel writing recounts journeys undertaken through places cultures and communities that are simultaneously living within through and after colonialism in its various guises The Companion is organized into three parts Part I Departures addresses key theoretical issues topics and themes Part II Performances examines a range of conventional and emerging travel performances and styles in postcolonial travel writing Part III Peripheries continues to shift the analysis of travel writing from the traditional focus on Eurocentric contexts This Companion provides a comprehensive overview of developments in the field appealing to students and teachers of travel writing and postcolonial studies Carefree War

Ann Howard,2015-06-05 During World War II Australia was under threat of invasion Could Australia be invaded by the Japanese Even with the heavy censorship by the government many certainly thought so Stunned families had followed the bombings and atrocities of war that were taking place in Europe and the nation was gripped by fear that the danger would soon be on their doorstep The Japanese appeared to be looming closer there were submarines in Sydney Harbour Japanese planes flying overhead and harassment on our coastline Australians were fearful for their safety Anxious parents made decisions to protect their children with or without government sanction Small children some just out of babyhood were sent away often unaccompanied by concerned parents to friends relatives or even strangers living in safer parts of the country Many had little comprehension of what was happening and thought they were going on a holiday to the country The history of these child evacuees in Australia remains largely hidden and their experiences untold Author Ann Howard who was evacuated with her mother from the UK during World War II is setting the records straight A combination of extensive research and the first hand stories of the evacuees captures the mood of the time and the social and political environment that they lived in Art and Enchantment Patrick Curry,2023-03-17 This book concerns the experience of enchantment in art Considering the essential characteristics dynamics and conditions of the experience of enchantment in relation to art including liminality it offers studies of different kinds of artistic experience and activity including painting music fiction and poetry before exploring the possibility of a life oriented to enchantment as the activity of art itself With attention to the complex relationship between wonder in art and the programmatic disenchantment to which it is often subject the author draws on the thought of a diverse range of philosophers sociological theorists and artists to offer an understanding of art through the idea of enchantment and enchantment through art An accessible study richly illustrated with experience both that of the author and others Art and Enchantment will appeal to scholars and students of sociology anthropology philosophy and anyone with interests in the nature of aesthetic experience Liminal Postmodernisms ,1994 The New England Business Directory and Gazetteer for ... ,1887 Bulletin Vermont. State Board of Health,1917 Power Linda Hogan,1999-11-23 During an ominous storm sixteen year old Omishto sees her Aunt Ama kill a panther an animal considered to be a sacred ancestor of the North American native Taiga people The Orchids of New England Henry Ives Baldwin,1894

1975 Mark Juddery,2011-09-13 1975 in Australia was a year marked by political upheaval and cultural revival a time when it was exciting to be an Australian In this fascinating book journalist Mark Juddery examines the year that marked a complete turning point in Australian history politically socially and most of all on the international stage Comprising of interviews with prominent Australians who remember the year well as well as issues of the time 1975 explores The Whitlam Dismissal the introduction of Medibank PNG s independence from Australia the return of native land to Aborigines in the Northern Territory the first time unemployment soared passed 5% the first Australian political sex scandal to make headlines Malcolm Fraser s egging in Darwin soon after the Dismissal Peter Weir s Picnic at Hanging Rock being shown to an international audience release of Australia s highest selling album by AC DC the launch of Radio 2JJ which became Triple J and the year Australia admitted that the Vietnam War was a mistake Gay Guerrilla Renée Levine Packer,Mary Jane Leach,2015 A compelling portrait of composer performer Julius Eastman s enigmatic and intriguing life and music Composer performer Julius Eastman 1940 90 was an enigma both comfortable and uncomfortable in the many worlds he inhabited black white gay straight classical music disco academia and downtown New York His music insistent and straightforward resists labels and seethes with a tension that resonates with musicians scholars and audiences today Eastman s provocative titles including Gay Guerrilla Evil Nigger Crazy Nigger and others assault us with his obsessions Eastman tested limits with his political aggressiveness as reflected in legendary scandals like his June 1975 performance of John Cage s Song Books which featured homoerotic interjections and the uproar over his titles at Northwestern University These episodes are examples of Eastman's persistence in pushing the limits of the acceptable in the highly charged arenas of sexual and civil rights. In addition to analyses of Eastman's music, the essays in Gay Guerrilla provide background on his remarkable life history and the era's social landscape. The book presents an authentic portrait of a notable American artist that is compelling reading for the general reader as well as scholars interested in twentieth-century American music, American studies, gay rights, and civil rights. This Life of Sounds: Evenings for New Music in Buffalo received an ASCAP Deems Taylor Award for excellence. Mary Jane Leach is a composer and freelance writer currently writing music and theatre criticism for the Albany Times Union.

Report of the Secretary of the Senate, United States Congress, Senate, 2002 Annual Report of the Vermont Board of Education, with the Report of the Secretary, Vermont Dept. of Education, 1912 The 'Imagined Sound' of Australian Literature and Music, Joseph Cummins, 2019-09-20. Imagined Sound is a unique cartography of the artistic, historical, and political forces that have informed the post-World War II representation of Australian landscapes. It is the first book to formulate the unique methodology of imagined sound, a new way to read and listen to literature and music that moves beyond the dominance of the visual, the colonial mode of knowing, controlling, and imagining Australian space. Emphasising sound and listening, this approach draws out and re-examines the key narratives that shape and are shaped by Australian landscapes and histories: stories of first contact, frontier violence, the explorer journey, the convict experience, non-Indigenous belonging, Pacific identity, and contemporary Indigenous Dreaming. Imagined Sound offers a compelling analysis of how these narratives are reharmonised in key works of literature and music. The Shoe and Leather Reporter Annual, 1914

Mother Jones Magazine, 1999-09. Mother Jones is an award-winning national magazine widely respected for its groundbreaking investigative reporting and coverage of sustainability and environmental issues.
