The Female Condition in the Novels of Gabonese Writer Sylvie Ntsame Paschal Kyiripuo Kyoore, 2023-11-20 This book argues that Gabonese writer Sylvie Ntsame utilizes her novels to question certain patriarchal traditions and practices in African society such as polygyny that in certain contexts tend to silence the voice of the female Through engaging with feminist theories among other theoretical frameworks the author demonstrates how in some of Ntsame s novels the black female body is an object of voyeurism that reduces the women to eroticized exoticized Others The author further argues that Ntsame counters the dystopia of racism with a depiction of idealized love through an interracial relationship presented against the backdrop of stereotypes and myths that stifle such relationships Ntsame does this by going back to her cultural roots and calling for understanding between peoples of diverse ethnicities and cultures The book makes valuable contributions to the study of Gabonese women s writing in particular and African women s writing in general

The Rights War in Literature and Culture Jennifer Rickel, 2025-07-31 Rights War tracks how the human rights framework is weaponized against the oppressed and it makes the case for the central place of literature in understanding this seizure of narrative control While literary humanitarianism depoliticizes suffering and positions the reader as a savior to traumatized Others Rights War shows how contemporary fiction by women of color and queer writers across the African diaspora engage innovative narrative paradigms to address structural inequities It analyzes strategies set out in this literature for disarming savior victimism which it identifies as a pernicious cultural phenomenon in which the powerful proclaim themselves saviors to and victims of those they marginalize As the disassociation of national rights from international human rights and the disconnection of civil and political rights from social and economic rights provoke a contest of victimhood this book offers a renewed argument for the indivisibility of rights and the social justice function of literature

Ex-centric Writing Annalisa Pes, Susanna Zinato, 2014-10-16 The concern with identity and belonging with place displacement is a major feature of postcolonial literature and the theme of alienation cannot but be topical in the literatures of the countries that have experienced the cultural shock and bereavement and the physical and psychic trauma of colonial invasion The purpose of this volume is to qualify the difference one is faced with when a postcolonial ex centric text is addressed by collecting essays concerned with writers from Southern Africa the Caribbean Australia the Indian subcontinent and Asian diaspora s While giving contextual specifics their due it shows how the theme of alienation when perceived through the anamorphic lens of madness is magnified and charged with an excruciatingly questioning and destabilizing power laying bare political as well as existential and moral urges From the ex centric broadly exilic position it is the ideology and practice of colonialism that demand to be rubricated as psychopathology More broadly as these essays highlight in fiction the mad character s ex centric vision is a continuous warning against the temptation to believe in those discourses that pass themselves off as reflecting the given natural order of things
