Using Force to Protect Civilians Stian Kjeksrud,2023 This book offers the first comprehensive analysis of United Nations military protection operations across time and UN missions It draws on a novel dataset that covers 200 operations from ten UN peacekeeping missions in Africa from 1999 to 2017 and evaluates the successes and failures of UN military troops in protecting civilians from violence Encyclopedia of Victimology and Crime Prevention Bonnie S. Fisher,Steven P. Lab,2010-02-02 Victimology and crime prevention are growing interrelated areas cutting across several disciplines Victimology examines victims of all sorts of criminal activity from domestic abuse to street violence to victims in the workplace who lose jobs and pensions due to malfeasance by corporate executives Crime prevention is an important companion to victimology because it offers insight and techniques to prevent situations that lead to crime and attempts to offer ideas and means for mitigating or minimizing the potential for victimization In many ways the two fields have developed along parallel yet separate paths and the literature on both has been scattered across disciplines as varied as sociology law and criminology public health and medicine political science and public policy economics psychology and human services and more The Encyclopedia of Victimology and Crime Prevention provides a comprehensive reference work bringing together such dispersed knowledge as it outlines and discusses the status of victims within the criminal justice system and topics of deterring and preventing victimization in the first place and responding to victims needs Two volumes containing approximately 375 signed entries provide users with the most authoritative and comprehensive reference resource available on victimology and crime prevention both in terms of breadth and depth of coverage In addition to standard entries leading scholars in the field have contributed Anchor Essays that in broad strokes provide starting points for investigating the more salient victimology and crime prevention topics A representative sampling of general topic areas covered includes interpersonal and domestic violence child maltreatment and elder abuse street violence hate crimes and terrorism treatment of victims by the media courts police and politicians community response to crime victims physical design for crime prevention victims of nonviolent crimes deterrence and prevention helping and counseling crime victims international and comparative perspectives and more
