Rape The Womens Library:

Women Library Workers, 1978 Theorizing Sexual Violence Renée J. Heberle, Victoria Grace, 2009-09-11 Examining sexual violence the authors of this volume take up questions about the relationship between sex sexuality and violence to better understand the terms on which women s sexual suffering is perpetuated thereby undermining their capacity for personhood and autonomy Queering Urbanism Stathis G. Yeros, 2024-04-02 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Conflicts about space and access to resources have shaped queer histories from at least 1965 to the present As spaces associated with middle class homosexuality enter mainstream urbanity in the United States cultural assimilation increasingly erases insurgent aspects of these social movements This gentrification itself leads to queer displacement Combining urban history architectural critique and queer and trans theories Queering Urbanism traces these phenomena through the history of a network of sites in the San Francisco Bay Area Within that urban landscape Stathis Yeros investigates how queer people appropriated existing spaces how they expressed their distinct identities through aesthetic forms and why they mobilized the language of citizenship to shape place and secure space Here the legacies of LGBTQ rights activism meet contemporary debates about the right to housing and urban life The Rape of Nanking Zhang Sheng, 2021-11-08 The Massacre of Nanking took place in 1937 during the War of the Japanese Invasion of China 75 years after the event we are finally able to analyze and study what happened in Nanking on three levels as an historical event as a legal case and as an object in the Chinese people s collective consciousness Rape Culture and Female Resistance in Late Medieval Literature Sarah Baechle, Carissa M. Harris, Elizaveta Strakhov, 2022-06-07 Centering on the difficult and important subject of medieval rape culture this book brings Middle English and Scots texts into conversation with contemporary discourses on sexual assault and the MeToo movement The book explores the topic in the late medieval lyric genre known as the pastourelle and in related literary works including chivalric romance devotional lyric saints lives and the works of major authors such as Margery Kempe and William Dunbar By engaging issues that are important to feminist activism today the gray areas of sexual consent the enduring myth of false rape allegations and the emancipatory potential of writing about survival this volume demonstrates how the radical terms of the pastourelle might reshape our own thinking about consent agency and survivors speech and help uncover cultural scripts for talking about sexual violence today In addition to embodying the possibilities of medievalist feminist criticism after MeToo Rape Culture and Female Resistance in Late Medieval Literature includes an edition of sixteen Middle English and Middle Scots pastourelles The poems are presented in a critical framework specifically tailored to the undergraduate classroom Along with the editors the contributors to this volume include Lucy M Allen Goss Suzanne M Edwards Mary C Flannery Katharine W Jager Scott David Miller Elizabeth Robertson Courtney E Rydel and Amy N Vines Discrimination Law Aileen McColgan KC, 2023-04-20 This textbook offers comprehensive coverage of the Equality Act 2010 and deals also with the equality aspects of the Human Rights Act 1998 and European Convention on Human Rights It encourages critical analysis of equality law to equip the reader with an understanding of the enduring challenges that frame equality law and contemporary responses to those challenges New content includes a chapter on age discrimination and analysis of the Public Sector Equality Duty Structured so as to be accessible to the student approaching discrimination law for the first time the book is also sufficiently detailed and analytical to appeal to the well informed reader and to provide those engaged in research with a solid base for further independent study For the undergraduate student studying discrimination law as a free standing subject or as part of a wider course the book provides a one stop shop This book is also a key core text for any postgraduate discrimination law course

Cultural Migrations and Gendered Subjects Silvia Castro-Borrego, Maria Isabel Romero Ruiz, 2011-01-18 The present volume explores through cultural and literary representations the contributions of women to the construction of knowledge in an ever changing global world as migrant subjects The essays contained in this book also focus on the female body as a site of physical violence and abuse fighting prevalent stereotypes about women s representations and identities This collection intends to enter a forum of discussion in which the colonial past serves as a point of reference for the analysis of contemporary issues Women s strategies for building possible identities are seen to be based on their own experiences seeking the ways in which the public marking and marketing of the female body within the western male imaginary contributes to the making of women s social and personal identities The different articles contained in this volume examine issues of gender and boundaries the realities of women as colonial and postcolonial subjects and darker realities such as alienation and discrimination as a result of migration racism and colonization analysed through a variety of critical perspectives The gendered raced classed dimensions and mixed heritages not only of white women but also of women of the African Diaspora these are important issues for the construction of knowledge and identity in our present multicultural societies and can potentially change the ways we conceptualize situate and engage the humanities in our scholarly work and in our social and cultural policies These women their presumed sexuality and their capacity to produce hybrid subjects as well as their supposed irrationality make them a singularly disruptive figure in our contemporary world this interpretation has its roots in the treatment of women in colonial times especially when they were out of the margins of respectable society The volume is addressed to a wide readership both scholarly and those interested in investigating the dynamics of the social and cultural conceptualizations of our multicultural and multiethnic contemporary societies marked by the intercultural exchanges of migratory subjects from a gender perspective
