The Tristan Chord Bryan Magee, 2002-10 And he unflinchingly confronts the Wagner whose paranoia egocentricity and anti-Semitism are as repugnant as his achievements are glorious Jacket Athletes, Sexual Assault, and Trials by Media Deb Waterhouse-Watson, 2013 Since footballer sexual assault became top news in 2004 six years after the first case was reported much has been written in the news media about individual cases footballers and women who have sex with them Deb Waterhouse-Watson reveals how media representations of recent sexual assault cases involving Australian footballers amount to trials by media trials that result in acquittal The stories told about footballers and women in the news media evoke stereotypes such as the gold digger woman scorned and the predatory woman which cast doubt on the alleged victims' claims and suggest that they are lying Waterhouse-Watson calls this a narrative immunity for footballers against allegations of sexual assault This book details how popular conceptions of masculinity and femininity inform the way footballers' bodies team bonding women sex and alcohol are portrayed in the media and connects stories relating to the cases with sports reporting generally Uncovering similar patterns of narrative grammar and discourse across these distinct yet related fields Waterhouse-Watson shows how these discourses are naturalised with reports on the cases intertwining with broader discourses of football reporting to provide immunity Despite the prevalence of stories that discredit the alleged victims Waterhouse-Watson also examines attempts to counter these pervasive rape myths articulating successful strategies and elucidating the limitations built into journalistic practices and language itself A Review of Sexual Misconduct by Basic

Crowdsourcing the Law Francine Banner,2019-08-27 While the general public may feel uncomfortable discussing sexual assault and violence with neighbors or coworkers the popularity of Twitter Snapchat and a host of other social media platforms suggests that we are not shy about expressing our opinions online Debates that just a few years ago would have taken place in real life have been relocated online allowing eager commenters to share their thoughts on guilt or innocence with legions of virtual strangers Crowdsourcing the Law explores how everyday participants interpret and apply law in the influential online court of public opinion Engaging a multidisciplinary case study approach the book analyzes social media comments about public figures such as Bill Cosby Brock Turner and Harvey Weinstein to address ambitious questions like How are rape myths being challenged reinforced and reinvented on social media What is the

Ray, 2015-10-15 Interracial sex mattered to the British colonial state in West Africa In Crossing the Color Line Carina E Ray goes beyond this fact to reveal how Ghanaians shaped and defined these powerfully charged relations The interplay between African and European perspectives and practices argues Ray transformed these relationships into key sites for consolidating colonial rule and for contesting its hierarchies of power With rigorous methodology and innovative analyses Ray brings Ghana and Britain into a single analytic frame to show how intimate relations between black men and white women in the metropole became deeply entangled with those between black women and white men in the colony in ways that were profoundly consequential Based on rich archival evidence and original interviews the book moves across different registers shifting from the micropolitics of individual disciplinary cases brought against colonial officers who kept local women to transatlantic networks of family empire and anticolonial resistance In this way Ray cuts to the heart of how interracial sex became a source of colonial anxiety and nationalist agitation during the first half of the twentieth century
