Reading Into Cultural Studies:

Reading Into Cultural Studies Martin Barker, Anne Beezer, 2003-09-02 Reading Into Cultural Studies revisits a selection of key texts central to the formation of cultural studies as a discipline and as a project. These texts address questions of power, ideology and the possibilities and limits of resistance. Each of the eleven essays in the collection renews an early study in one area of cultural investigation, bringing such seminal texts as Subculture by Dick Hebdige, Loving With a Vengeance by Tania Modleski and Bond and Beyond by Tony Bennett back to the centre of attention. However, the essays are not purely celebratory. Each study is critically examined in a number of ways for its research strategy, its implicit theories of power and ideology, for the empirical evidence it draws on and its conceptual framework. Together, the essays provide an introduction to some of the central debates and issues in cultural studies.

Interdiscursive Readings in Cultural Consumer Research George Rossolatos, 2018-10-01 The cultural consumption research landscape of the 21st century is marked by an increasing cross-disciplinary fermentation. At the same time, cultural theory and analysis have been marked by successive inter-turns, most notably with regard to the Big Four: multimodality or intermodality, interdiscursivity, transmediality or intermediality, and intertextuality. This book offers an outline of interdiscursivity as an integrative platform for accommodating these notions. To this end, a call for a return to Foucault is issued via a critical engagement with the so-called practice turn. This re-turn does not seek to reconstitute venerable Foucauldianism but to theorize inters as vanishing points that challenge the integrity of discrete cultural orders in non-convergent manners. The propounded interdiscursivity approach is offered as a reading strategy that permeates the contemporary cultural consumption phenomena that are scrutinized in this book against a pan-consumptivist framework. By drawing on qualitative and mixed methods research designs facilitated by CAQDAS software, the empirical studies that are hosted here span a vivid array of topics that are directly relevant to both traditional and new media researchers, such as the consumption of ideologies in Web 2.0, social movements, the ability of micro-celebrities to act as cultural game-changers, the post-loyalty abjective consumption ethos. The theoretically novel approaches on offer are coupled with methodological innovations in areas such as user-generated content, artists' branding and experiential consumption.

Reading Into Cultural Studies Martin Barker, Anne Beezer, 2003-09-02 A collection that brings together a reassessment of important cultural studies texts, such as Hebdige's Subculture and Modleski's Loving with a Vengeance.

Doing Research in Cultural Studies Paula Saukko, 2003-10-15 This book is a goldmine for students; it is brilliantly conceptualized and brilliantly executed. With this book, cultural studies finally comes of age methodologically. Professor Norman K. Denzin, Institute of Communications Research, University of Illinois. Doing Research in Cultural Studies outlines the key methodological approaches to the study of lived experience, texts and social contexts within the field of cultural studies. It offers a comprehensive discussion of classical methodologies and introduces the reader to more contemporary debates that have argued for new ethnographic, poststructuralist and multi-scape research methods. Through a detailed yet concise explanation the reader is shown how these methodologies work and how their outcomes may be interpreted Key features of the book include An innovative framework combining different methodologies and approaches A variety of real life examples and case studies enriches the book for the reader A set of practical exercises in each chapter pedagogical and student focused throughout The book has a flowing narrative and student friendly structure which make it accessible to and popular with students while the discussion of fresh approaches makes it also of interest to experienced researchers It contains all the ingredients necessary to help the reader attain a solid grasp of analytical and practical challenges to doing effective research in cultural studies today Questions of Method in Cultural Studies Mimi

White, James Schwoch, 2008-04-15 Question of Method in Cultural Studies brings together a group of scholars from across the social sciences and humanities to consider one of the most vexing issues confronting the proverbial anti discipline of cultural studies Covers such topics as the media feminism and politics Identifies what methods have prevailed in the interdisciplinary pursuit of cultural studies Examines the relationship between cultural studies and traditional disciplines the politics of knowledge and spatial and temporal models Probes the possibility of method in explicit terms for scholars and students in media communications sociology and allied fields Literary into Cultural Studies Antony Easthope, 2003-09-02 Modern

Literary study was founded on an opposition between the canon and its other popular culture The theory wars of the 1970s and the 1980s and in particular the advent of structuralist and post structuralist theory transformed this relationship With the death of literature the distinction between high and popular culture was no longer tenable and the field of inquiry shifted from literary into cultural studies Anthony Easthope argues that this new discipline must find a methodological consensus for its analysis of canonical and popular texts Through a detailed criticism of competing theories British cultural studies New Historicism cultural materialism he shows how this new study should and should not be done Easthope's exploration of the problems possibilities and politics of this new discipline includes an original reassessment of the question of literary value By contrasting Conrad's Heart of Darkness with Burroughs's Tarzan of the Apes Easthope demonstrates how textuality sustains the opposition between high and popular culture darkness Cultural Studies in Question Marjorie Ferguson, Peter

Golding, 1997-04-28 This major text offers a critical reappraisal of the contemporary practice of cultural studies It focuses in particular on the contribution of cultural studies to the understanding of media communications and popular cultures in contemporary societies The contributors an outstanding group of internationally acclaimed scholars examine topics such as the different strands of cultural studies and how they are developed whether cultural studies is a coherent discipline tensions and debates within cultural studies alternative or related approaches to contemporary media and society and the movement by cultural studies revisionists towards more empirical and sociological modes of analysis Introducing Cultural
