Traditional
Anglo-American Folk Music Norm Cohen, 2015-12-22 Originally published in 1994, filling a gap in the sound recordings of traditional Anglo-American folk music, this volume covers both vocal and instrumental material from the 1920s to the 1990s. The listings have also been limited to performers native to the tradition rather than revival performers. The album selection is grouped into field recordings and commercial pre-1942 recordings with subdivisions into individual recordings or anthologies. The discography not only reflects its author's in-depth knowledge of Anglo-American folk music's historical development but charts a valuable step forward in the evaluation as well as selective listing of available sound recordings.

AUTUMN IN THE REAR VIEW MIRROR Driving through autumn's red and yellow dream leaving as it comes road leaves kick up and float in the rear view mirror like notes of a Mozart sonata before falling again like bits of paper reminders of projects I've started and never finished friends I've let slip away and the orange I couldn't imagine when I was green Passing through the smoke of burning leaves I am wakened to the stranger I've become to myself since I walked away from a town between two rivers where I could hold earth and sky in my hand and every morning Meadowlarks sang for me alone Now I ride my fugitive pony from quarry to cathedral betrayed and benumbed by the god who came down to give us glory of flesh and the gift of sin then ascended behind steel gray clouds leaving me to choose everyday between hymen and hymnal moon chalk and sun dust scream and sob carrying like the wasp my death inside
