Sexual Hospitality in the Hebrew Bible Thalia Gur-Klein, 2014-10-20 A woman s life in the ancient world was constrained by her social and economic status As a daughter she was firmly under the aegis of her father and brothers who would later allocate the woman to another man as his wife The power of fathers and husbands extended to using their wives and daughters as sexual gifts to gain favour Yet alongside this woman had certain socio economic rights notably concerning inheritance and property which they could use to protect themselves Sexual Hospitality in the Hebrew Bible examines sacred sexuality and ritual fecundity from patronymic marriage where the husband claims exclusive rights over his wife s sexuality and attributes her offspring to his line and kin to metronymic conjugal systems which allow a woman to remain in her home where the male consort joins her and her kin Ranging across abstention promiscuity and holy offering the sexual lives of women in biblical times reveal not only restriction but also female agency and resistance Sexual Reformation? Manitzka Kotze,Nadia Marais,Nina Muller van Velden,2022-02-28 Inasmuch as sex and sexuality are not words often spoken from pulpits and in academic theological circles a vast number of utterances have been made in the name of so called Christian values and biblical views on sex and sexuality These are often given from moral ethical perspectives and seemingly very prescriptive who should have sex with whom when sex should take place which purposes sex should serve and especially when sex is wrong Moreover often there is little or no recognition of the complexities surrounding human sexuality resulting in what appears to be a blueprint for sexuality applicable to all persons This volume contains fourteen theological and ethical reflections by South African scholars on human sexuality with the aim of exploring what a sexual reformation within Christian dialogue might entail Presented in three sections namely systematic theological reflections biblical reflections and ethical reflections the essays represent a range of topics from a variety of perspectives Luther and marriage sexual abuse in the Catholic Church body theology and the sexual revolution reproductive technologies sexuality and reproduction reproductive loss hermeneutical choices and gender reformation in South Africa queer engagements with bra Joseph explorations on Paul and sex rape culture and violent deities the church s moral authority and sexual ethics practical theological considerations regarding infertility empirical research on masculinities in Zambia and the lived experience of transgender people in African Independent Churches

Family Redeemed Joseph Dov Soloveitchik,2000 Focus on family relationships between husbands and wives parents and children The essays develop a Jewish theory of marriage and sexuality parenthood and the duty to honor and revere one s parents

Coffey,Ch Ltc Ret Arthur W. Coffey Jr,2012-11 In a physical marathon the wall shows up about mile twenty or twenty one when this happens mind and body shake hands to say we quit That s where most runners will shut down unless they reach down into their identity as spirit To the question Who am I what is my identity God s answer is I am spirit I have a mind and I live in a body So to break through the wall requires a hierarchy of spirit over mind over body God s Word will address our spirit when mind and body are out of it thereby setting Word over spirit over mind over body to keep the feet moving Project this to other marathons mental spiritual emotional interpersonal occupational financial etc Bottom line Can the reader finish the book put it down and say Wow look what God s Word performed I want to be in the Word I want the Word to be in me The closer the reader comes to God s Word the closer they come to Him John 1 14 The Word will have become sent out Isaiah 55 10 11 active and alive Hebrews 4 12 watched over and performed Jeremiah 1 12 in their lives Tragedy and Loss and the Search for Jesus W.
