Man of Secrets Matthew Wright, 2015-01-30 Donald McLean The hard tempered Scot whose policies shaped New Zealand's colonial age race relations and gave rise to grievances that echo into the twenty first century The government official who used his position to get land for his personal ventures and provoked war between Maori along the way The man who rumour insists used his power as our Minister of Defence to order the shooting of his own illegitimate son the right hand man of religious leader Te Kooti McLean s role as the powerhouse behind some of the most heated land controversies of settler era New Zealand is well known But the man behind those deeds has remained largely hidden Man of Secrets an absorbing new biography by Matthew Wright goes behind the public persona revealing the private Donald McLean A man dogged by his upbringing wrestling with his insecurities a devout and fearful man who felt himself inadequate before God and who never recovered from the loss of his young wife Guns and Utu Matthew Wright,2011-08-01 So they went forth and they were given over to death by the guns Rangipito of Ngati Rahiri In the two decades before the Treaty of Waitangi New Zealand was ripped asunder by island spanning waves of warfare extreme violence and cannibalism Great war parties surged the length of the land to avenge historic grievances killing and burning as they went Whole peoples were uprooted and found new homes Despite the name given them by history one thing we can be certain about is that these dramatic conflicts were not simply musket wars This was an age of courage of heroism of great character and of astonishing deeds And they are not dead history Twenty first century New Zealand has been profoundly shaped by them not least in the location of most of the major cities In Guns and Utu historian Matthew Wright disputes the many mythologies of these wars examining some of the whys and wherefores of this generation long culture collision A spectacular book Don Rood Radio New Zealand National Moon New Zealand Andrew Hempstead,2013-02-05 Andrew Hempstead knows the best way to experience New Zealand from kayaking through the Bay of Island to skiing in the Southern Alps In this information packed guide Hempstead provides a variety of trip ideas to help travelers organize their itineraries including Maori Culture and History and Tramping Through New Zealand Complete with details on enjoying the land with children fine dining in Auckland and rafting near Queenstown Moon New Zealand gives travelers the tools they need to create a more personal and memorable experience Penguin Book of New Zealanders at War Gavin McLean,2009-08-31 The New Zealand Wars of the 1840s and 1860s other nineteenth century military encounters the South African War the First and Second World Wars Korea Malaya Vietnam the Gulf War modern day peacekeeping The Penguin Book of New Zealanders at War contains the best widest range of published and non published written material on our people in warfare This is a soldier s book thus letters diaries journalists reports memoirs The focus is on actual experience and on human responses to war A vast array of personal experiences is covered including POWs the home front medical nursing efforts as well as coverage of conscientious objectors Rugby League in New Zealand Ryan Bodman,2023-09-29 This is the story of a sport told through its communities Rugby League in New Zealand A People s History unveils the compelling journey of a game flourishing against the odds Beginning with the game s introduction to the country in 1907 Ryan Bodman reveals the deep rooted connections between rugby league s development and the evolving cultural fabric of New Zealand By questioning the mythic status of rugby union in the nation s identity this history highlights how power politics and people have collectively shaped the country's sporting scene Drawing on first hand interviews and a wide range of illustrations and archival material Bodman locates rugby league history in working class suburbs and among Kiingitanga M ori Pasifika migrants and clubs and communities across the country The people behind the game share accounts of change triumph and resilience while emphasising rugby league's lasting influence on New Zealanders lives Queer 1950s H. Bauer, M. Cook, 2012-10-15 Leading sexuality scholars explore queer lives and cultures in the first full post war decade through an array of sources and a range of perspectives Drawing out the particularities of queer cultures from the Finland and New Zealand to the UK and the USA this collection rethinks preconceptions of the 1950s and pinpoints some of its legacies People and their Pasts P. Ashton, H. Kean, 2008-12-11 In this innovative and original collection people are seen as active agents in the development of new ways of understanding the past and creating histories for the present Chapters explore forms of public history in which people's experience and understanding of their personal national and local pasts are part of their current lives The Constitution of New Zealand Matthew SR Palmer, Dean R Knight, 2022-02-10 This book examines New Zealand's constitution through the lens of constitutional realism It looks at the practices habits conventions and norms of constitutional life It focuses on the structures processes and culture that govern the exercise of public power a perspective that is necessary to explore and account for a lived rather than textual constitution New Zealand's constitution is unique One of three remaining unwritten democratic constitutions in the world it is characterised by a charming set of anachronistic contrasts Unwritten but much found in various written sources Built on a network of Westminster constitutional conventions but generously tailored to local conditions Proudly independent yet perhaps a purer Westminster model than its British parent Flexible and vulnerable while oddly enduring It looks to the centralised authority that comes with a strong executive strict parliamentary sovereignty and a unitary state However its populace insists on egalitarian values and representative democracy with elections fiercely conducted nowadays under a system of proportional representation The interests of indigenous Maori are protected largely through democratic majority rule A reputation for upholding the rule of law yet few institutional safeguards to ensure compliance His Way Barry Gustafson, 2013-11-01 This the only authorized biography of New Zealand's prime minister Robert Muldoon one of the dominant political figures of the last half century in that country Based on many hours of conversation with Muldoon himself as well as colleagues friends and family and wide access to the prime minister's official and private papers and diaries this book has been awarded the Ian Wards Prize for published historical writing Muldoon is shown as a champion of the ordinary people whose vision over time became anachronistic and inflexible The book is also a fascinating picture of New Zealand's changing political landscape from the 1940s to the 1980s Nola Millar Sarah Gaitanos, 2006 One of the most important and influential figures in the history of New Zealand theater Nola Millar was an indefatigable director and teacher and the founder of Toi Whakaari New Zealand's premier drama school This biography explores the full story of her career her important work as reference librarian at the Turnbull library and the social contexts in which she worked providing great insight into the history of theatre in New Zealand

Women Out of Place Brackette Williams, 2013-12-02 These essays investigate the links between agency and race with regard to constructions of masculinity and femininity among radical groups resisting varied forms of political and economic domination Building on the work of anthropologists historians sociologists literary critics and feminist philosophers of science the essays in Women Out of Place the Gender of Agency and Race of Nationality investigate the links between agency and race for what they reveal about constructions of masculinity and femininity and patterns of domesticity among groups seeking to resist varied forms of political and economic domination through a subnational ideology of racial and cultural redemption

Fodor's See it New Zealand Sheila Hawkins, 2009 Full color photography and a host of practical information highlight this user friendly travel guide which also include descriptions of local sites restaurants hostels shops and nightspots ratings of sites for value historic interest family friendly appeal and other criteria local itineraries and shopping suggestions travel suggestions transportation options and colorful maps

Gold Rush Otago 1861-64 David Hanger, 2012-06-20 Gold Rush Otago 1861-64 is about overcoming the dangers posed by the harsh mountainous landscape and furious elements of New Zealand Otago goldfields The story based on fact in terms of time place and actual events follows three Australian families who join forces in the search for both gold and a place they can call home

No Left Turn Chris Trotter, 2010-12-01 A bold and passionate re examination of New Zealand political history by a leading social commentator The way some histories tell it Europeans came to New Zealand keen to establish a Little Britain in the South Seas Not so says Chris Trotter Most nineteenth century immigrants wanted something better than the misery and oppression of the world they had left and Trotter reveals just how close they and their descendants came to building a new one On each occasion however their achievements were resisted and ultimately overturned by those who saw New Zealand simply as a source of profits Trotter pulls no punches in describing the methods these partisans of profit used to ensure there was no Left turn jamming radio broadcasts political arson even murder From Massey's Cossacks to Muldoon's riot squads violence and repression have been the Right's weapons not the Left's Charting the evolution of New Zealand's unique brand of democratic socialism Trotter offers insightful and often surprising verdicts on the leading participants including John A Lee Peter Fraser Fintan Patrick Walsh David Lange and Helen Clark Passionately argued infused with poetic imagery and comprehensively researched No Left Turn is a unique and indispensable contribution to our political and social history an inspiration for anyone who puts money second and people first and a deliberate provocation to everyone else

New Zealand's Great War John Crawford, Ian McGibbon, 2014-06-18 This book is a collection of essays arising out of the OtagoZealandia Otago's Great War Otago conference organised by the New Zealand Military History Committee in November 2003 In 32 essays by distinguished military historians from New Zealand and around the world various aspects of New Zealand Otago's involvement in World War One are discussed Subjects include the Pioneer Maori Battalion women who opposed the war the early years of the RSA Gallipoli the infantry on the Somme New Zealand OCOs involvement in the naval war prostitution and the New Zealand soldier the Home Defence religion in the First World War and the Armistice New Zealand OCOs Great War is a fascinating miscellany of informed comment on and insight into the event that did most to shape New Zealand as a nation Contributors include New Zealand OCOs own Chris Pugsley Glyn Harper Terry Kinloch Monty Soutar Megan Hutching Vincent Orange and Bronwyn Dalley as well as Peter Dennis Jeffrey Grey Jennifer Keene Jenny McLeod Pierre Purseigle Peter Stanley and Gary Sheffield from overseas William Massey James Watson, 2011-04-19 The Great War profoundly affected both New Zealand and its Prime Minister William Massey 1856 1925 Farmer Bill oversaw the despatch of a hundred thousand New Zealanders including his own sons to Middle Eastern and European battlefields In 1919 he led the New Zealand delegation to the Paris Peace Conference where it was represented both in its own right and as part of the British Empire This symbolised its staunch loyalty to Empire and the fact that it had its own particular interests Massey was largely satisfied with the Versailles Treaty as New Zealand gained a mandate over Western Samoa Germany forfeited its other Pacific colonies and control over Nauru's valuable phosphate deposits was shared between Britain Australia and New Zealand rather than simply being given to Australia He believed that the apparent confirmation of British power improved New Zealand's security and had little faith in the League of Nations However the opposition Labour Party came to believe the League could prevent a major war and made that a cornerstone of their foreign policy in government after 1935 Their belief that Versailles was unfair to Germany partly influenced them to favour negotiations with Hitler even after the outbreak of war in 1939
