Franchuk, Nourhan Ouzounian, 2000 Preserving Armenia s rich literary tradition from a multitude of viewpoints has been the aim of this three volume work This third volume joins the previous two in making excerpts of Armenian masterpieces accessible in beautifully rendered English translations while enabling readers to enjoy the immediacy of these works through lively discussions of the authors and their times Here the focus is on the eighteenth through twentieth centuries The volume begins with a comprehensive overview of the entire historical social and literary panorama of the periods covered the Armenian Renaissance the development of modern Armenian with its Western and Eastern versions the emergence of a national identity and democratic thinking with their impact on literature and theater and such literary schools as Romanticism Realism and Aestheticism Biographies of more than 130 prominent authors appear in these pages together with critical comments concerning their works and extensive excerpts from the works themselves The texts are edited annotated with footnotes and presented in a format that permits easy comprehension Literature unveils a rich pageant of works in historical perspective The varied experiences from the Armenian past come alive allowing for new understandings and comparisons to literatures of other nations Adam and Eve in the Armenian Tradition, Fifth through Seventeenth Centuries Michael E. Stone, 2013-10-14 The Adam and Eve stories are a foundational myth in the Jewish and Christian worlds and the way they were recounted reveals a great deal about those doing the retelling How did the Armenians retell these stories What values do these retellings express about men and women their life in the world sin and redemption Presented here are twelve hundred years of Armenian telling of the Genesis 1 3 stories in an unparalleled collection of all significant narratives of Adam and Eve in Armenian literature prose and poetry homilies and commentaries calendary and mathematical texts from its inception in the fifth century to the seventeenth century This seminal resource contributes to the lively current discussion of how biblical and apocryphal traditions were retold embroidered and transformed into the lenses through which the Bible itself was read

Education and the Politics of Memory in Russia and Eastern Europe Sergey Rumyantsev, 2025-01-21 This book examines both formal and extracurricular education and the politics of memory and historical narratives in Armenia Azerbaijan Russia and Ukraine The misalignment between memory politics and history politics forms a central theme of this book Structured in three parts it focuses on school education in the post Soviet states over the 30 years between the collapse of the Soviet Union and the 2022 Russian invasion of Ukraine The chapters inquire as to how post Soviet school education politics of memory and history politics became active participants in the production of state approved ideology patriotism and a state prescribed understanding of the national past Armed conflicts in the territory of the former USSR not only saw numerous victims and refugees but also the emergence of new borders and unrecognized de facto states and the annexation of territories They also contributed to the creation of new sites of memory generated their own traditions of commemoration for the heroes and victims of these confrontations and led to the reconstruction of historical narratives and the construction of new national myths The research in this book foregrounds how the nationalization of the public space and the reconstruction of national historical narratives in the independent states reflect a desire to monopolize the power to interpret the past with low tolerance of alternative accounts In this light the book covers issues such as the nation state Sovietization national history creation memory politics religion mass media nationalism and patriotism and analyzes the relationship of Azerbaijani and Armenian Russian and Ukrainian societies with their histories and pasts A novel study on the topic of memory and history writing this is a timely contribution to the field of Post Soviet history and Russian and Eastern European Studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Stateless Talar Chahinian, 2023-02-20 In Stateless Talar Chahinian offers a rich exploration of Western Armenian literary history in the wake of the 1915 genocide that led to the dispersion of Armenians across Europe North America the Middle East and beyond Chahinian highlights two specific time periods post WW I Paris and Post WW II Beirut to trace the ways in which literature developed in each diaspora In Paris a literary movement known as Menk addressed the horrors they experienced and focused on creating a new literary aesthetic centered on belonging while in exile In Beirut Chahinian shows how the literature was nationalized in the absence of state institutions Armenian intellectuals constructed a unified and coherent narrative of the diaspora that returned to the pre 1915 literary tradition and excluded the Menk generation Chahinian argues that the adoption of national as the literature's organizing logic ultimately limited its vitality and longevity as it ignored the diverse composition of diaspora communities

Eastern Christians' Engagement with Islam and the Qur'ān Octavian-Adrian Negoită, 2025-04-21 This volume explores how Eastern Christians of various religious traditions engaged with Islam and its Holy Book By employing a long dur e perspective the volume will explore both continuities and disruptions as well as diverse ideological positions among the Eastern Christians in their approach towards Islamic tenets religious practices and interpretations of the Qur'an. The essays included in the volume investigate texts written in Arabic, Armenian, Bulgarian, Ethiopian, Greek, Slavonic, and Russian. The essays discuss the knowledge regimes of text production and shed light on the Eastern Christians' conceptualization of Islam until the dawn of modernity. This volume is a contribution to the entangled and cross-cultural history of Eastern Christians with Islam through the centuries from the Mediterranean to Russia via the Balkans and the Caucasus. Eastern Christians' intellectual responses to the religious challenges posed by Islam were shaped by diverse multicultural and multi-confessional contexts which ultimately played a significant role in defining their religious identity and the dynamics of communal life.

The Armenians
 Razmik Panossian, 2006-05-27. The Armenians traces the evolution of Armenia and Armenian collective identity from its beginnings to the Armenian nationalist movement over Gharabagh in 1988. Applying theories of national identity formation and nationalism, Razmik Panossian analyzes different elements of Armenian identity construction and argues that national identity is modern, predominantly subjective, and based on a political sense of belonging. Yet he also acknowledges the crucial role of history, art, literature, religious practice, and commerce in preserving the national memory and shaping the cultural identity of the Armenian people. Panossian explores a series of landmark events among them: Armenians' first attempts at liberation, the Armenian renaissance of the nineteenth century, the 1915 genocide of the Ottoman Armenians, and Soviet occupation. He shows how these influences led to a multilocal evolution of Armenian identity in various places in and outside of Armenia, notably in diasporan communities from India to Venice. Today these numerous identities contribute to deep divisions and tensions within the Armenian nation, the most profound of which is the cultural divide between Armenians residing in their homeland and those who live in the United States, Canada, the Middle East, and elsewhere. Considering the diversity of this single nation, Panossian questions the theoretical assumption that nationalism must be homogenizing. Based on extensive research conducted in Armenia and the diaspora, including interviews and translation of Armenian language sources, The Armenians is an engaging history and an invaluable comparative study.

Recovering Armenia
 Lerna Ekmekçioğlu, 2023-05-25. The first in-depth study of the aftermath of the 1915 Armenian Genocide and the Armenians who remained in Turkey. Following World War I, as the victorious Allied powers occupied Ottoman territories, Armenian survivors returned to their hometowns optimistic that they might establish an independent Armenia. But Turkish resistance prevailed, and by 1923 the Allies withdrew. The Turkish Republic was established, and Armenians were left again to reconstruct their communities within a country that still considered them traitors. Lerna Ekmekçioğlu investigates how Armenians recovered their identity within these drastically changing political conditions. Reading Armenian texts and images produced in Istanbul from the close of WWI through the early 1930s, Ekmekçioğlu gives voice to the community's most prominent public figures, notably Hayganush Mark, a renowned activist, feminist, and editor of the influential journal Hay Gin. These public figures articulated an Armenian-ness sustained through gendered differences, and women came to play a central role preserving traditions memory and the mother tongue within the home But even as women were being celebrated for their traditional roles a strong feminist movement found opportunity for leadership within the community Ultimately the book explores this paradox how someone could be an Armenian and a feminist in post genocide Turkey when through its various laws and regulations the key path for Armenians to maintain their identity was through traditionally gendered roles Praise for Recovering Armenia With verve passion and wit Ekmek ioglu shows how central women were to the restoration of the Armenian community in the decade after the genocidal war Recovering Armenia is a must read for all students of the Great War and its aftermath and for anyone who wants to understand the modern Middle East and the roots of sectarian conflict that continues in the region today Elizabeth Thompson University of Virginia This remarkably innovative history offers a thorough account of the ways in which Armenian survivors of the genocide committed by Ottoman Turkey inventively reconstituted themselves as a harshly constrained yet enduring national minority within the new Turkish Republic A pioneering work that will prove indispensable Khachig T l lyan Wesleyan University Lerna Ekmek ioglu s radically revealing and provocative book challenges conventional historical wisdom in its exploration of the continued existence of an Armenian minority in modern Turkey Atina Grossmann The Cooper Union Studies in Armenian Art Nira Stone,2019-07-29 Nira Stone 1938 2013 was a scholar of Armenian and Byzantine Art Her broad and close acquaintance with the field of Armenian art history covered many fields of Armenian artistic creativity Nira Stone made notable contributions to the study of Armenian manuscript painting mosaics and other forms of artistic expression Of particular interests are her researches on this art in its historical and religious contexts such as the study of apocryphal elements in Armenian Gospel iconography the place of the mosaics of Jerusalem in the context of mosaics in Byzantine Palestine and of the interplay between religious movements such as hesychasm and Armenian manuscript painting Istanbul - Kushta - Constantinople Christoph Herzog,Richard Wittmann,2018-10-10 Istanbul Kushta Constantinople presents twelve studies that draw on contemporary life narratives that shed light on little explored aspects of nineteenth century Ottoman Istanbul As a broad category of personal writing that goes beyond the traditional confines of the autobiography life narratives range from memoirs letters reports travelogues and descriptions of daily life in the city and its different neighborhoods By focusing on individual experiences and perspectives life narratives allow the historian to transcend rigid political narratives and to recover lost voices especially of those underrepresented groups including women and members of non Muslim communities The studies of this volume focus on a variety of narratives produced by Muslim and Christian women by non Muslims and Muslims as well as by natives and outsiders alike They dispel European Orientalist stereotypes and cross class divides and ethnic identities Travel accounts of outsiders provide us with valuable observations of daily life in the city that residents often overlooked

Disputation Literature in the Near East and Beyond Enrique Jiménez,Catherine Mittermayer,2020-08-10 Disputation literature is a type of text in which usually two non human entities such as trees animals drinks or seasons try to establish their superiority over each other by means of a series of speeches written in an elaborate flowery register As opposed to other dialogue literature in disputation texts there is no serious matter at stake only the preeminence of one of the litigants over its rival These light hearted texts are known in virtually every culture that flourished in the Middle East from Antiquity to the present day and they constitute one of the most enduring genres in world literature The present volume collects over twenty contributions on disputation literature by a diverse group of world renowned scholars From ancient Sumer to modern day Bahrain from Egyptian to Neo Aramaic including Latin French Middle English Armenian Chinese and Japanese the chapters of this book study the multiple avatars of this venerable text type      Christian-Muslim Relations. In 1903 Tsar Nicholas II issued a decree allowing the confiscation of Armenian Church property, marking the low point in relations between imperial Russia and its Armenian subjects. Yet just over a decade later Russian Armenians were fully supportive of the Russian war effort. Drawing on previously untouched archival material and a range of secondary sources published in English, French, Russian and Turkish, this is the first English language study of this drastic change in relations in the Caucasus. Onur Önel explains how and why the shift took place by looking in detail at the imperial Russian authorities and their relationship with the three pillars of the Russian Armenian community: the Armenian Church, the Armenian bourgeoisie and the Armenian Revolutionary Federation (Dashnaktsutun). Önel places the evolution within a context of wider political questions such as the Russian revolutionary movement, Russia's nationalities question, Tsarist fears of pan-Islamism, the path to World War I and the influence of key characters in Russian policy making from Pyotr Stolypin to Illarion Vorontsov-Dashkov. This book fills a conspicuous void in the extant historiography and will be of interest to scholars working on Russian Armenian and Ottoman history.

A History of Armenian Women's Writing, 1880-1922, Victoria Rowe, 2003. A History of Armenian Women's Writing, 1880-1921 introduces the reader to the wealth and diversity of women's writing in Armenian in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. The volume focuses on six Armenian women writers: Srpouhi Dussap, Sibyl Mariam, Khatisian Marie, Beylerian Shushanik, Kurghinian and Zabel Yesayan, and these authors' novels, short stories, poems and essays. The study contends that Western and Eastern Armenian women writers, while not displaying a uniformity of opinion and vision, nevertheless found inspiration in the activism, writings and arguments of one another and form a literary genealogy of women's writing in Armenian. The study has several objectives. For general readers and those interested primarily in the historical account, it provides a chronological description of the formative period of modern Armenian women's writing, beginning in 1880 with the publication of a series of articles on women's education and employment by Srpouhi Dussap and concluding with the physical dislocations and psychological traumas of the Armenian Genocide in 1915 and the fall of the first independent Republic of Armenia in 1921. On another level, the book concentrates on disentangling the contemporaneous intellectual debates about Armenian women's proper sphere. The author argues that the role of the Armenian woman was central to debates about national identity education the family and society by Armenian writers and women writers sought to participate in and guide this discourse through literary texts     The Flower of Paradise and Other Armenian Tales Bonnie Marshall, 2007-03-30 This enchanting sampling of traditional Armenian tales was gathered by the author in her travels and translated from Russian sources A broad selection of more than 50 tales are organized by type myths and legends animal tales fairy tales stories of everyday life and wits and dimwits Readers and listeners of all ages will delight in stories such as The Invincible Rooster The Donkey Who Swallowed the Moon Seven Stars and a sampling of tales about Silly Pugi the Armenian trickster Many of the stories are short and humorous making them perfect for storytime programs and read alouds Stories are supplemented by background information on the people and their culture including a brief history discussion of folk traditions and food recipes photographs and a bibliography A great resource for educators students folklorists and anyone interested in Armenian culture All grade levels
