Reflections in the Stream of Life Harold R. Blaine, 1977-09      Reflections in a Stream Edna Jones, 2018-01-19
Judith Early came to Balsam Ridge as a privileged only child of affluent Boston parents to locate the love of her life. A decade has passed transforming her from a pampered young woman to that of a loving wife, a loyal friend and a competent nurse with her husband Dr Jim Bradley. The journey from seeing herself as a short term visitor to putting down deep roots of contentment in this isolated mountain community was not without struggle. Now facing one of those defining moments without warning, Judith's contented life is tragically uprooted overnight. Like the mountain streams when encountering those unmovable boulders, she must now find a new course in moving forward. Where will she go? What will she do? There is nothing left. It would seem even God has abandoned her.

Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1979      Storytelling: Global Reflections on Narrative Tracy Ann Hayes, Theresa Edlmann, Laurinda Brown, 2019-05-15. This book is a collection of papers from an international interdisciplinary conference focusing on storytelling and human life. The chapters in this volume provide unique accounts of how stories shape the narratives and discourses of people's lives and work and those of their families and broader social networks. From making sense of history to documenting biographies and current pedagogical approaches to exploring current and emerging spatial and media trends, this book explores the possibilities of narrative approaches as a theoretical scaffold across numerous disciplines and in diverse contexts. Central to all the chapters is the idea of stories being a creative and reflexive means to make sense of people's past, current realities and future possibilities.
