Reforming The State Fiscal And Welfare Reform In Post Socialist Countries:

Reforming the State János Kornai, Stephan Haggard, Robert R. Kaufman, 2001-01-15 The essays in this volume first published in 2001 examine fiscal policy making and providing for social welfare in post socialist countries Enterprise and Welfare Reform in Communist Asia Peter Ferdinand, Martin Gainsborough, 2003 Featuring a wide geographical scope this collection of essays surveys enterprise and welfare reforms in all the remaining four Asian communist states China Vietnam Laos and North Korea Since the collapse of the Soviet Union they can no longer place major reliance upon assistance from other fraternal states and have to devise their own strategies for survival All have shown a trend towards greater reliance on market forces though in different ways and to varying degrees Enterprise management has to adapt to this In some of them entrepreneurs have become politically and socially acceptable They may even begin to set trends for social evolution Yet since state enterprises used to be responsible for all welfare payments to employees and their families management reforms cannot be separated from those of welfare arrangements Reducing an enterprise's non commercial obligations for the sake of greater market efficiency is bound to affect welfare provision It also reopens the role of official trade unions How these regimes cope with these conflicting pressures are vital factors in their long term viability Social Service Reform in the Postcommunist State Janelle A. Kerlin, 2005 In this detailed study Janelle A Kerlin demonstrates how and why reforms intended to improve services and increase citizen participation in social service programming largely failed to meet expected goals The politics of reform development including political deals exclusionary tactics and hidden maneuvering by Polish policymakers prevented any significant upgrade of services or real change in decision making structures Kerlin uses focused interviews with leading reform actors and a nationwide representative survey of two hundred public social service institutions to develop a model that connects the politics of the decentralization process with social service outcomes Not only students of the former Soviet bloc but also those interested in the links between politics and policy outcomes more broadly will find in this volume an informative and instructive case study that has far reaching implications BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Health Reforms in Post-Communist Eastern Europe Tamara Popic, 2023-01-01 This book provides the first in depth study of healthcare reforms in post communist Eastern Europe Combining insights from comparative politics and public policy analysis it examines health reforms in Slovenia the Czech Republic and Poland between 1989 and 2019 The book argues that the post communist transformation of healthcare policy has entailed a process of policy learning and that the countries reform pathways were shaped by a series of initiatives aimed at applying market oriented policy ideas in healthcare The success of these initiatives has been influenced by three factors policy legacies political competition and institutional configurations The book offers a novel comparison of health reform in the region and policy changes more generally It will appeal to scholars and students of public policy health policy and European politics The Political Economy of Fiscal Reform in Central-Eastern Europe Frank

Bönker,2006-01-01 Frank Bönker has done a masterful job This is probably the best book available on this important subject and its significance is not limited to studies of postcommunist societies It has important theoretical implications for everyone interested in the Political Economy of Policy Reform perspective within the field of comparative political economy John L Campbell Slavic Review Sweden and the Revival of the Capitalist Welfare State Andreas Bergh,2014-07-31 This book tackles a number of controversial questions regarding Sweden's economic and political development How did Sweden become rich How did Sweden become egalitarian Why has Sweden since the early 1990s grown faster than

Post-Communist Welfare States in European Context Kati Kuitto,2016-02-26 Welfare reforms in post communist countries are determined by economic and social hardship democratization of the political systems and rapid structural change This groundbreaking book provides a comprehensive and systematic empirical assessment of the Central and Eastern European post communist welfare states in the context of their Western European counterparts Basing the study on new data on welfare entitlements and cluster analysis Kati Kuitto systematically compares 26 European welfare states across three empirical dimensions The author employs a multidimensional framework to analyze patterns of welfare policies and highlight spending priorities financing and the generosity of welfare entitlements Kati Kuitto thus sheds light on the hybrid patterns of welfare policies in post communist countries as they have emerged after the period of transformation and discusses their future challenges Unique and comprehensive this is essential reading for researchers in the fields of comparative welfare state research and Central and Eastern European studies as well as students and practitioners of social policy social security and political economy Converging Europe Ipek Eren Vural,2011 Evaluates the impact of European integration on social policy development since the launch and relaunch of the Lisbon strategy discussing the challenges posed by the still unfolding global economic crisis of 2007-2009 Managing Fiscal Decentralization Ehtisham Ahmad,Vito Tanzi,2002-07-18 The growth of interest in fiscal decentralization has meant that there has been something of a rush to enshrine this in policy The World Bank has reported that about seventy countries see this as a major part of their development strategy This book critically examines the case for decentralization This collection of contributions comes from a workshop Pension Reform in Europe Robert Holzmann,Mitchell Alexander Orenstein,Michal Rutkowski,2003 The need for pension reform is an increasingly important issue on the economic reform agenda of most European countries although there has been considerable variation in the approaches adopted This publication contains a selection of papers from leading scholars and practitioners in the fields of economics and political science which seek to provide an insight into the process and progress of European pension reform and to highlight areas for further research Mirrors of the Economy Yoshiko M. Herrera,2017-08-28 As international institutions multiply and more governments sign on to standardized ways of organizing economies and societies resistance to globalization persists In Mirrors of the Economy Yoshiko M Herrera explores the variance in implementation of international institutions through an examination of the international System of National Accounts SNA and in particular the success of post Soviet Russia and other formerly communist countries in implementing the SNA The SNA is the basis for all national economic indicators including Gross Domestic Product and is therefore a critical institution for economic policy and development Herrera tests existing theories of implementation of international institutions and proposes a novel theoretical concept conditional norms to suggest that the conditions attached to norms may result in institutional change On the basis of content analysis of statistical publications and more than seventy five interviews throughout Russia particularly in Moscow and in Washington she forms a clear picture of the implementation of the SNA in Russia in the early 1990s In Soviet times a stable conditional norm delineated the appropriateness of statistical institutions based on the structure of the economy The transformation of the economic system triggered a shift in support among Russian and Eastern European statisticians in favor of the SNA Herrera s argument increases our understanding of the role of norms structural conditions and professional communities in institutional implementation

Capitalist Diversity on Europe's Periphery Dorothee Bohle, Bela Greskovits, 2012-08-15 With the collapse of the Council for Mutual Economic Assistance in 1991 the Eastern European nations of the former socialist bloc had to figure out their newly capitalist future Capitalism they found was not a single set of political economic relations Rather they each had to decide what sort of capitalist nation to become In Capitalist Diversity on Europe s Periphery Dorothee Bohle and Bela Greskovits trace the form that capitalism took in each country the assets and liabilities left behind by socialism the transformational strategies embraced by political and technocratic elites and the influence of transnational actors and institutions They also evaluate the impact of three regional shocks the recession of the early 1990s the rolling global financial crisis that started in July 1997 and the political shocks that attended EU enlargement in 2004 Bohle and Greskovits show that the postsocialist states have established three basic variants of capitalist political economy neoliberal embedded neoliberal and neocorporatist The Baltic states followed a neoliberal prescription low controls on capital open markets reduced provisions for social welfare The larger states of central and eastern Europe Poland Hungary and the Czech and Slovak republics have used foreign investment to stimulate export industries but retained social welfare regimes and substantial government power to enforce industrial policy Slovenia has proved to be an outlier successfully mixing competitive industries and neocorporatist social inclusion Bohle and Greskovits also describe the political contention over such arrangements in Romania Bulgaria and Croatia A highly original and theoretically sophisticated typology of capitalism in postsocialist Europe this book is unique in the breadth and depth of its conceptually coherent and empirically rich comparative analysis

The Europeanization of Central and Eastern Europe Frank Schimmelfennig, Ulrich Sedelmeier, 2005 This book demonstrates the importance of the credibility and the costs of accession conditionality for the adoption of EU rules in Central and Eastern Europe

Decentralization in Asia and Latin America Paul J. Smoke, Eduardo J. Gómez, George E. Peterson, 2006-11-28 Public sector decentralization has emerged prominently in many Asian and Latin American countries as a strategy to promote development and political reform Results in both cases have been mixed Despite broad similarities in intent and outcome contextual differences between the regions have led to striking differences in the way decentralization has been structured and implemented This volume takes an atypically historical and interdisciplinary perspective on decentralization highlighting how fiscal and political forces together have been shaping its evolution in the two regions World Yearbook of Education 2008 Debbie Epstein, Rebecca Boden, Rosemary Deem, Fazal Rizvi, Susan Wright, 2013-01-11 This volume examines higher education in globalized conditions through a focus on the spatial historic and economic relations of power in which it is embedded Distinct geometries of power are emerging as the knowledge production capability of universities is increasingly globalized Changes in the organization and practices of higher education tend to travel from the West to the rest Thus distinctive geographies of knowledge are being produced intersected by geometries of power and raising questions about the recognition production control and usage of university produced knowledge in different regions of the world What flows of power and influence can be traced in the shifting geographies of higher education How do national systems locate themselves in global arenas and what consequences does such positioning have for local practices and relations of higher education How do universities and university workers respond to the increasing commodification of knowledge How do consumers of knowledge assess the quality of the goods on offer in a global marketplace The 2008 volume of the World yearbook addresses these questions highlighting four key areas Producing and Reproducing the University How is the university adapting to the pressures of globalization Supplying Knowledge What structural and cultural changes are demanded from the university in its new role as a free market supplier of knowledge Demanding Knowledge Marketing and Consumption How can consumers best assess the quality of education on a global scale Transnational Academic Flows What trends are evident in the flow of students knowledge and capital with what consequences The 2008 volume is interdisciplinary in its approach drawing on scholarship from accounting finance and human geography as well as from the field of education Transnational influences examined include UNESCO and OECD GATS and the effects of digital technologies Contrasting contexts include Central and Eastern Europe Finland China and India and England With its emphasis on the interrelationship of knowledge and power and its attention to emergent spatial inequalities Geographies of Knowledge Geometries of Power Framing the Future of Higher Education provides a rich and compelling resource for understanding emergent practices and relations of knowledge production and exchange in global higher education The Politics of Poverty Reduction Paul Mosley, 2012-03-29 Poor people everywhere are politically weak and yet poverty in some developing countries has gone down dramatically Why is this Using nine country case studies this book provides answers by examining government alliances the role of aid donors and NGOs and policies on labour tax and expenditure Economic Anthropology Chris Hann, Keith Hart, 2011-03-28 This book is a new introduction to the history and practice of economic anthropology by two leading authors in the field They show that anthropologists have contributed to understanding the three great questions of modern economic history development socialism and one world capitalism In doing so they connect economic anthropology to its roots in Western philosophy social theory and world history Up to the Second World War anthropologists tried and failed to interest economists in their exotic findings They then launched a vigorous debate over whether an approach taken from economics was appropriate to the study of non industrial economies Since the 1970s they have developed a critique of capitalism based on studying it at home as well as abroad The authors aim to rejuvenate economic anthropology as a humanistic project at a time when the global financial crisis has undermined confidence in free market economics They argue for the continued relevance of predecessors such as Marcel Mauss and Karl Polanyi while offering an incisive review of recent work in this field Economic Anthropology is an excellent introduction for social science students at all levels and it presents general readers with a challenging perspective on the world economy today Selected by Choice as a 2013 Outstanding Academic Title Runaway State-Building Conor O'Dwyer,2006-09-14 Here Conor O Dwyer introduces the phenomenon of runaway state building as a consequence of patronage politics in underdeveloped noncompetitive party systems Analyzing the cases of three newly democratized nations in Eastern Europe Poland the Czech Republic and Slovakia O Dwyer argues that competition among political parties constrains patronage led state expansion O Dwyer uses democratization as a starting point examining its effects on other aspects of political development Focusing on the link between electoral competition and state building he is able to draw parallels between the problems faced by these three nations and broader historical and contemporary problems of patronage politics such as urban machines in nineteenth century America and the Philippines after Marcos This timely study provides political scientists and political reformers with insights into points in the democratization process where appropriate intervention can minimize runaway state building and cultivate efficient bureaucracy within a robust and competitive democratic system Eastern Christians in Anthropological Perspective Chris Hann,Hermann Goltz,2010-05-27 This collection of essays is a welcome and refreshing gift in a virtual desert There has been very little comparative anthropological research on the Eastern churches and this volume will fill that gap Michael Herzfeld author of Evicted from Eternity The Restructuring of Modern Rome At long last there is a book on the anthropology of Christianity that devotes direct and sustained attention to the diverse Eastern Christian Churches both Orthodox and Catholic This book should be read by anyone who thinks anthropologically about Christianity Scales will fall from their eyes and they will behold an entire wing of Christianity that has until now gone mostly unnoticed and practically untheorized Douglas Rogers author of The Old Faith and the Russian Land A Historical Ethnography of Ethics in the Urals Engaging the Law in China Neil Jeffrey Diamant,Stanley B. Lubman,Kevin J. O'Brien,2005 This book explores legal mobilization culture and institutions in contemporary China from a perspective informed by law and society scholarship
