Circles and the Cross Loren Wilkinson,2023-08-21 Circles and the Cross is an invitation to explore two mysteries One is the miracle of the cosmos why is there something and not nothing The other is the miracle of consciousness why should this collection of stardust be an I and not just an it Our basic response to those mysteries is wonder and from wonder have grown the three great trees of human culture religion art and science This exploration is undertaken in the light of a third mystery the cross of Christ is the clearest picture we have of the triune Creator of both cosmos and consciousness That self emptying of the Creator out of love for the creation helps us understand the pleasures paradoxes and pains of science it helps us understand how evolution can be another name for creation it casts light on the Enlightenment and Romanticism In particular it illuminates the environmental movement an ethic in search of a religion Loren Wilkinson drawing on fifty years of teaching and writing about our relationship to creation invites you to join this journey into understanding how the cross of Christ sheds light on the mysteries that surround us and gives us hope in a difficult age

Embodied Activisms Lara Martin Lengel, Victoria A. The Essential West Elliott West, 2012-11-09 Scholars and enthusiasts of western American history have praised Elliott West as a distinguished historian and an accomplished writer and this book proves them right on both counts Capitalizing on West's wide array of interests this collection of his essays touches on topics ranging from viruses and the telegraph to children bison and Larry McMurtry Drawing from the past three centuries West weaves the western story into that of the nation and the world beyond from Kansas and Montana to Haiti Africa and the court of Louis XV Divided into three sections the volume begins with conquest West is not the first historian to write about Lewis and Clark but he is the first to contrast their expedition with Mungo Park's contemporaneous journey in Africa The Lewis and Clark expedition West begins is one of the most overrated events in American history and one of the most revealing The humor of this insightful essay is a chief characteristic of the whole book which comprises ten chapters previously published in major journals and magazines but revised for this edition and four brand new ones West is well known for his writings about frontier family life especially the experiences of children at work and play Fans of his earlier books on these subjects will not be disappointed In a final section he looks at the West of myth and imagination in part to show that our fantasies about the West are worth studying precisely because they have been so at odds with the real West In essays on buffalo Jesse James and the McMurtry novel Lonesome Dove West directs his formidable powers to subjects that continue to shape our understanding and often our misunderstanding of the American West past and present

superb anthology brings together some of the most powerful and compelling writing about the Grand Canyon stories essays and poems written across five centuries by people inhabiting surviving and attempting to understand what one explorer called the Great Unknown The Grand Canyon Reader includes traditional stories from native tribes reports by explorers journals by early tourists and contemporary essays and stories by such beloved writers as John McPhee Ann Zwinger Edward Abbey Terry Tempest Williams Barry Lopez Linda Hogan and Craig Childs Lively tales written by unschooled river runners unabashedly popular fiction and memoirs stand alongside finely crafted literary works to represent full range of human experience in this wild daunting and inspiring landscape

Writers on the Air Donna Seaman, 2005 Vibrant interviews from the radio program Open Books Such News of the Land Thomas S. Edwards, Elizabeth A. De Wolfe, 2001 A collection of new essays establishes women's voices as a powerful presence in US nature writing Table Scraps and Other Essays Juyanne James, 2019-12-18 Table Scraps and Other Essays is for all intents and purposes memoir writing At the heart of the twenty two true stories is an African American female who as a child along with her siblings must learn the value of hard work as hired hands James's young spirit is often at odds with her growing family especially with a father figure who ignores his duties as husband and provider She has a strong loving mother who insists on keeping the family together James learns to trust and depend on the guardians of her small Louisiana community teachers who are eventually forced to move away from the area when the local schools are integrated Many years later James returns home figuratively and literally on occasion from the apartment where she lives in New Orleans and reconnects with a father who seeks forgiveness for his earlier betrayal He spends each day attempting to make up for the ill treatment of his wife and children In these essays James shares her love of nature both as a means of escape from her troubled family and as inspiration for her writing

Sustaining the West Liza Piper, Lisa Szabo-Jones, 2015-03-31 Western Canada's natural environment faces intensifying threats from industrialization in agriculture and resource development social and cultural complicity in these destructive practices and most recently the negative effects of global climate change The complex nature of the problems being addressed calls for productive interdisciplinary solutions In this book arts and humanities scholars and literary and visual artists tackle these pressing environmental issues in provocative and transformative ways Their commitment to environmental causes emerges through the fields of environmental history environmental and ecocriticism ecofeminism ecoart ecopoetry and environmental journalism This indispensable and timely resource constitutes a sustained cross pollinating conversation across the environmental humanities about forms of representation and activism that enable ecological knowledge and ethical action on behalf of Western Canadian environments yet have global reach Among the developments in the contributors construction of environmental knowledge are a focus on the power of sentiment in linking people to the fate of nature and the need to decolonize social and environmental relations and assumptions in the West

Living in Death's Shadow Emily K. Abel, 2017-02-28 Challenging assumptions about caregiving for those dying of chronic illness What is it like to live with and love someone whose death while delayed is nevertheless foretold In Living in Death's Shadow Emily K Abel an expert on the history of death and dying examines memoirs written between 1965 and 2014 by family members of people who died from chronic disease In earlier eras death generally occurred quickly from acute illnesses but as chronic disease became the major cause of mortality many people continued to live with terminal diagnoses for months and even years Illuminating the excruciatingly painful experience of coping with a family member's extended fatal illness Abel analyzes the political personal cultural and medical dimensions of these struggles The book focuses on three significant developments that transformed the experiences of those dying and their intimates the passage of Medicare and Medicaid the growing use of high tech treatments at the end of life and the rise of a movement to humanize the care of dying people It questions the exalted value placed on acceptance of mortality as well as the notion that it is always better to die at home than in an institution Ultimately Living in Death's Shadow emphasizes the need to shift attention from the drama of death to the entire course of a serious chronic disease The chapters follow a common narrative of life threatening disease learning the diagnosis deciding whether to enroll in a clinical trial acknowledging or struggling against the limits of medicine receiving care at home and in a hospital or nursing home and obtaining palliative and hospice care Living in Death's Shadow is essential reading for everyone seeking to understand what it means to live with someone suffering from a chronic fatal condition including cancer AIDS Alzheimer's and heart disease

Cultures of Silence Luísa Santos, 2022-12-30 This book investigates the notion of silence as both an oppressing instrument and a powerful tool of resistance under the lenses and practices of cultural production Taking a transdisciplinary and transcultural approach to the study of creative and cultural practices the chapters ask how cultural production is dealing with surges of oppressive regimes censorship and fake news and which cultural processes are implied in silencing as well in giving voice to in erasing and in producing small and grand narratives The book reaches beyond dominant instrumental views of contemporary cultural practice to understand culture not only as an expedient to conduct social policy but also as a diagnostic tool and a vernacular space of giving voice to the many small narratives that make the world we live in Offering an introduction to an underrepresented area of cultural studies this truly interdisciplinary volume will be of interest to scholars of cultural studies cultural history media studies politics visual studies communication studies history and literature

The Old Iron Road David Haward Bain, 2022-09 In the summer of 2000 David Haward Bain and his family left their home in Vermont and headed west in search of America's past Spiritually their journey began on a Kansas trail where the author's grandmother was born in a covered wagon in 1889 Between the Missouri River and the Golden Gate they retraced the entire route of the first transcontinental railroad and large stretches of the Oregon and California trails and the equally colorful old Lincoln Highway Following vanished iron rails and wagon wheel ruts bumping down backroads and main streets they discovered the deep restless uniquely American spirit of adventure that connects our past to our present A superb writer and an exacting researcher Bain conjures up a marvelous sense of coming unstuck in time as he lingers in the ghost towns and battlegrounds prairies and river ports trainyards museums deserts and diners that line his cruise west to California Bain encounters a fascinating cast of characters both historic and contemporary as well as memories of his grandparents and the journeys that shaped his own heritage Writing in the tradition of William Least Heat Moon and Ian Frazier and with an engaging warmth and a deep grasp of history all his own Bain has fashioned a quintessentially American journey
