Refugees, Citizenship and Social Policy in Europe A. Bloch, C. Levy, 1999-04-30 Recently global and European migration in the post Cold War world have received much attention This edited collection is a comprehensive up to date account of the social policies of European welfare states towards refugees and asylum seekers It also examines the contested boundaries between refugees and asylum seekers and citizenship within European nation states and the European Union

Refugees, Citizenship and Social Policy in Europe A. Bloch, C. Levy, 1999-08-12 Recently global and European migration in the post Cold War world have received much attention This edited collection is a comprehensive up to date account of the social policies of European welfare states towards refugees and asylum seekers It also examines the contested boundaries between refugees and asylum seekers and citizenship within European nation states and the European Union

Social Policy Review 14 Sykes, Robert, Bochel, Catherine, 2002-07-17 Social Policy Review 14 continues the tradition of providing a different style and approach to policy issues from that found in most academic journals and books Chapters have been purposely chosen to review a varied and interesting selection of social policy developments in Britain and internationally and to set current policy developments in a broader context of key trends and debates

Understanding Immigration and Refugee Policy Rosemary Sales, 2007-06-20 The book provides an essential background to understanding debates surrounding immigration and refugee policy It examines different theoretical approaches to immigration and explores links between immigration policy welfare and social exclusion as well as documenting migrants experiences in negotiating and challenging these policies

Between Past and Future Will Guy, 2001 This collection of papers discusses the experience of the Roma in eastern and central Europe since the collapse of Communism

Migration and Welfare in the New Europe Carmel, Emma, Cerami, Alfio, 2012-03-01 This book provides innovative insights into one of the most controversial and important subjects of the 21st century migration and social integration Empirically the volume offers comprehensive grounding in the relationships between migration migration policies and social protection inclusion in the enlarged European Union and its member states Theoretically the collection moves the debate on migration and integration policies onto new terrain It explains how policies in this field are produced by institutional frameworks political strategy and contingent responses to events but that these are themselves shaped by emotions discourses narratives formal and informal aspects of governance With contributions from leading international experts the book can be used by academics and professionals as well as by undergraduate and postgraduate students

Transcultural Health and Social Care Irena Papadopoulos, 2006-05-12 This title is directed primarily towards health care professionals outside of the United States It communicates current evidence based knowledge in the area of transcultural care and meets the needs of health and social care practitioners who must change their practices to comply with national policies and the expectations of a multicultural public Provides research based information on culturally competent care of vital importance to all health and social workers in multi cultural communities Covers issues and user groups not covered by other publications Couches UK issues within a European and global perspective The Political Economy of Managed Migration Georg Menz,2010-12-16 European governments have re discovered labour migration but are eager to be perceived as controlling unsolicited forms of migration especially through asylum and family reunion The emerging paradigm of managed migration combines the construction of more permissive channels for desirable and actively recruited labour migrants with ever more restrictive approaches towards asylum seekers Non state actors especially employer organizations trade unions and humanitarian non governmental organisations attempt to shape regulatory measures but their success varies depending on organizational characteristics Labour market interest associations lobbying strategies regarding quantities and skill profile of labour migrants will be influenced by the respective system of political economy they are embedded in Trade unions are generally supportive of well managed labour recruitment strategies But migration policy making also proceeds at the European Union EU level While national actors seek to upload their national model as a blueprint for future EU policy to avoid costly adaptation top down Europeanization is re casting national regulation in important ways notwithstanding highly divergent national regulatory philosophies Based on field work in and analysis of primary documents from six European countries France Italy United Kingdom Ireland Germany and Poland this book makes an important contribution to the study of a rapidly Europeanized policy domain Combining insights from the literature on comparative political economy Europeanization and migration studies the book makes important contributions to all three while demonstrating how migration policy can be fruitfully studied by employing tools from mainstream political science rather than treating it as a distinct subfield The Migration and Settlement of Refugees in Britain A. Bloch,2002-08-12 The increase in the number of asylum seekers arriving in Europe has placed the issue of migration high on the policy agendas of national governments and the European Union This book analyzes the impact of policy on the social and economic settlement of refugees in Britain in that context The issues explored include current UK and EU migration policy the history of migration to Britain and policy responses theories of migration and migrant settlement social and economic settlement of refugees in Britain including language employment social networks the migratory process community development and policy recommendations Gendering the International Asylum and Refugee Debate J. Freedman,2015-06-23 This revised and updated 2nd edition of Freedman s hard hitting study aims to remedy the current lack of gender specific analyses of asylum and refugee issues It provides a comprehensive account of the situation of women in global forced migration and explains the ways in which women s experiences are shaped by gendered relations and structures Routledge Handbook of Immigration and Refugee Studies Anna Triandafyllidou,2022-12-30 The Routledge Handbook of Immigration and Refugee Studies offers a comprehensive study of the multi disciplinary field of international migration and asylum studies The new edition incorporates numerous new chapters on issues including return migration the relationship between urbanisation and migration the role of advanced digital technologies in migration governance decision making and human agency and the COVID 19 pandemic and its impact on global migration Utilising contemporary information and analysis this innovative Handbook provides an in depth examination of the major analytical questions pertaining to migration and asylum whilst discussing key areas such as work welfare families citizenship the relationship between migration and development asylum and irregular migration With a comprehensive collection of essays written by leading contributors from different world regions and covering a broad range of disciplines including sociology geography legal studies political science and economics the Handbook is a truly multidisciplinary reader Organised into thematic and geographical chapters the Routledge Handbook of Immigration and Refugee Studies provides a concise overview on the different topics and world regions as well as useful guidance for both the starting and the more experienced reader The Handbook s expansive content and illustrative style will appeal to both students and professionals studying in the field of migration and international organisations

From Immigration Controls to Welfare Controls Steve Cohen,Beth Humphries,Ed Mynott,2014-04-08 This edited collection addresses theoretical political and practical aspects of the connection between external immigration controls and internal welfare controls It considers the implications for the both those subject to controls and those drawn into the web of implementing internal welfare controls Topics discussed include forced dispersal of asylum seekers local authority and voluntary sector regulations nationalism racism class and fairness strategies for resistance to controls USA controls The book provides support to those unwittingly drawn into administering controls showing how the role of welfare workers as immigration control enforcers is not a sudden imposition but has existed since the introduction of controls in 1905 From Immigration Controls to Welfare Controls will provide a valuable resource for all those professionals who come into contact with the issues surrounding immigration

Asylum, migration and community Maggie O'Neill,Amin Sharifi Isaloo,Egle Gusciute,2015-07-01 Issues of asylum migration humanitarian protection and integration belonging are of growing interest beyond the disciplines of refugee studies migration and social policy Rooted in more than two decades of scholarship this book uses critical social theory and the participatory biographical and arts based methods used with asylum seekers refugees and emerging communities to explore the dynamics of the asylum migration community nexus It argues that interdisciplinary analysis is required to deal with the complexity of the issues involved and offers understanding as praxis purposeful knowledge drawing on innovative research that is participatory arts based performative and policy relevant

EBOOK: Education Studies: Issues & Critical Perspectives Derek Kassem,Emmanuel Mufti,John Robinson,2006-08-16 This major text for Education Studies students provides a critical account of key issues in education today The text features A critical analysis of key issues in Education Studies to encourage students thinking about education in the broadest terms Themed sections with introductions to link the issues discussed in each chapter Use of specific examples of educational diversity to illustrate how concerns such as ethnicity gender and class operate in educational institutions An examination of educational issues as they relate to other phases of educational provision such as home schooling and universities Education Studies Issues and Critical Perspectives is an essential text for Education Studies students It is also of value to students on QTS courses and students and professionals in areas such as sociology childhood studies community studies and education policy Refugees, Civil Society and the State Ludger Pries, 2018-04-27 Ludger Pries explores the important moral social and political challenge facing Europe and the international community the protection of refugees as one of the most vulnerable groups on the planet Race and Ethnicity in the 21st Century Alice Bloch, John Solomos, 2017-09-16 In the 21st century new ethnic groups are forming faster than ever before and the role of race and ethnicity studies has evolved in response to this From policy issues around housing and crime through to debates about asylum and media representations sociologists must encounter and explore a vast range of issues in this ever changing field This book gives an overview of the most important topics that affect the making of race and ethnic relations in contemporary societies It goes beyond general definitions to explain exactly how and what these issues and debates can tell us about modern society Using research and statistics to shed light on the most cutting edge issues the book takes each major topic in turn and helps readers to think through race and ethnicity on the basis of the most recent thinking in the field Each chapter explains a range of theoretical and conceptual perspectives whilst approaching complex ideas in an accessible and insightful way Written and edited by recognized experts in the field Race and Ethnicity in the 21st Century will be an essential point of reference for researchers and practitioners and key reading for all students of race and ethnicity Constitutionalising the External Dimensions of EU Migration Policies in Times of Crisis Sergio Carrera, Juan Santos Vara, Tineke Strik, This discerning book examines the external dimension EU migration and asylum policies in times of crisis It thoroughly assesses patterns of co operation in EU migration management with a focus on co operation with the global south A key resource for academics and students focussing on EU Law and migration more specifically this book will also appeal to policy makers legal practitioners and international organisation representatives alike

Social assistance dynamics in Europe Saraceno, Chiara, 2002-01-30 Throughout Europe income support for the poor has become highly controversial It is often assumed to be not the answer to but the cause of social exclusion and is increasingly believed to give rise to welfare dependency This book contributes to a more complex understanding of welfare state regimes and welfare recipients in contemporary Europe Describing social assistance careers in different national and urban contexts it documents the strong interplay between personal biographies and policy patterns a particularly useful perspective which complements the more structural top down approach of much international work in social policy Social assistance dynamics in Europe is unique in comparing a range of northern and southern European countries Sweden Germany France Italy Spain and Portugal in its focus on the actual working of their policies their set of actors cultural background implementation etc and in its methodological approach which combines longitudinal analysis with qualitative research Academics and students of welfare and poverty policy makers and social policy evaluators in the public private and non profit sectors will find this book invaluable Global Social Transformation and Social Action: The Role of Social Workers Sven Hesse, 2016-04-22 Global social transformation calls for global social action 2010 saw the launch of The Global Agenda for Social Work and Social Development which detailed how social workers can strive to bring about increased social justice The time is right to start to address and demonstrate the actions that might be required to develop and accomplish the Agenda with regard to methods in practice and research in social policy and social work education and in a broader discourse of global commitment and cooperation This informative and incisively written edited collection brings together experts from around the world to discuss issues which the social work and social welfare sectors face every day and to ensure a closer link between evidence based practice policy objectives and social development goals Furthermore this book reveals how these may affect the conditions of people and demonstrate how the social work and social development community can contribute to sustainable development Refugees, Capitalism and the British State Tom Vickers, 2016-04-08 Today in a period of economic crisis public sector cuts and escalating class struggle Marxism offers important tools for social workers and service users to understand the structures of oppression they face and devise effective means of resistance This book uses Marxism's lost insights and reinterprets them in the current context by focussing on one particular section of the international working class refugees and asylum seekers in Britain Vickers analysis demonstrates the general utility of a Marxist approach enabling an exploration of the interplay between state policies how these are experienced by their subjects and how conflicts are mediated The substantive focus of the book is twofold to analyse the material basis of the oppression of refugees in Britain by the British state and to examine the means by which the British state has managed this oppression through the cultivation of a refugee relations industry within a broader narrative of social capital building These questions demand answers if social workers and other practitioners are to successfully work with refugees and asylum seekers and this book provides these through a detailed Marxist analysis
