Conference on Alcohol and Drug Abuse Prevention, 1987 Cost-benefit/cost-effectiveness Research of Drug Abuse Prevention William J. Bukoski, Richard Isadore Evans, 1998 Working with Trauma-Exposed Children and Adolescents

Joanna Pozzulo, Craig Bennell, 2018-12-07 Far too often children and youth experience trauma from rare events such as mass shootings terrorism attacks and school lockdowns to very common occurrences such as bullying exposure to drugs and alcohol or various mental health issues They can experience these events both directly and indirectly from surfing the internet watching television or through their friends Our children spend a large portion of their day at school interacting with other students teachers and school personnel where these topics are raised and discussed This edited volume addresses how our teachers and school personnel can help students deal with these potentially traumatic events to reach the most positive possible outcomes This collection brings together leading experts including academics and professionals working in the field to provide the most current evidence based practices on how to help students who may have experienced or witnessed trauma It presents research and advice on how to respond to traumatic events regarding bullying drugs and alcohol sexual abuse mental health lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer LGBTQ safety stranger danger childhood disruptive behaviors school shootings and lockdowns and terrorism It also includes a chapter focused on how to implement a school safety program Schools cannot deal with these issues alone effective strategies must engage family members and the broader community Hence the collection includes a chapter on how schools can partner with families and the communities they reside in to bring about positive change All this work pays close attention to cultural and religious sensitivity socio economic variabilities diversity issues and developmental stages Community-Based Outreach Treatment for Addictions and Concomitant Disorders: Time for a Change of Paradigm Louise Penzenstadler, Yasser Khazaal, Marie-Josée Fleury, 2020-05-05

Fostering Healthy Mental, Emotional, and Behavioral Development in Children and Youth National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Board on Children, Youth, and Families, Committee on Fostering Healthy Mental, Emotional, and Behavioral Development Among Children and Youth, 2020-01-18 Healthy mental emotional and behavioral MEB development is a critical foundation for a productive adulthood Much is known about strategies to support families and communities in strengthening the MEB development of children and youth by promoting healthy development and also by preventing and mitigating disorder so that young people reach adulthood ready to thrive and contribute to society Over the last decade a growing body of research has significantly strengthened understanding of healthy MEB development and the factors that influence it as well as how it can be fostered

Yet the United States has not taken full advantage of this growing knowledge base Ten years later the nation still is not effectively mitigating risks for poor MEB health outcomes these risks remain prevalent and available data show no significant reductions in their prevalence Fostering Healthy Mental Emotional and Behavioral Development in Children and Youth A National Agenda examines the gap between current research and achievable national goals for the next ten years This report identifies the complexities of childhood influences and highlights the need for a tailored approach when implementing new policies and practices This report provides a framework for a cohesive multidisciplinary national approach to improving MEB health

Handbook of Drug Abuse Prevention Zili Sloboda,William J. Bukoski,2007-08-06 There are a number of reasons why this book is important First there is no one source that summarizes what we know about the prevention of substance abuse from the research field so the book serves as a repository of accumulated knowledge on prevention theory intervention design and development and prevention research methodology Second as an evolving field prevention science has only begun to assert itself in both the arenas of practice and policy The formation of the Society for Prevention Research in 1991 was the first recognition that a science of prevention existed and required a separate forum to present the rapidly growing content of the field for discussion and review Finally there is a need to establish a baseline a reference point against which progress in the field of prevention science can be assessed This book serves all of these purposes The idea for this book grew from the observation in the early 1990s that after decades of attempts to develop effective interventions to prevent drug use among children and adolescents in the United States that we were finally having success particularly in addressing the initiation of use These successes are the result of research that has provided a better understanding of the factors and processes associated with the onset of substance use
