This innovative collection of essays re-examines conventional ideas of the history of childhood exploring the child's increasing prominence in eighteenth century discourse and the establishment of the category of age as a marker of social distinction alongside race class and gender. While scholars often approach childhood within the context of a single nation this collection takes a comparative approach examining the child in British German and French contexts and demonstrating the mutual influences between the Continent and Great Britain in the conceptualization of childhood. Covering a wide range of subjects from scientific and educational discourses on the child and controversies over the child's legal status and leisure activities to the child as artist and consumer the essays shed light on well known novels like Tristram Shandy and Tom Jones as well as on less familiar texts such as periodicals medical writings trial reports and schoolbooks. Articles on visual culture show how eighteenth century discourses on childhood are reflected in representations of the child by illustrators and portraitists. The international group of contributors including Peter Borsay Patricia Crown Bernadette Fort Brigitte Glaser Klaus Peter Jochum Dorothy Johnson and Peter Sabor represent the disciplines of history literature and art and reflect the collection's commitment to interdisciplinarity. The volume's unique range of topics makes it essential reading for students and scholars concerned with the history and representation of childhood in eighteenth century culture. Newsletter, 1993 Choice, 1994 Design and the Decorative Arts Michael Snodin, John Styles, 2001-10. London was rivalled only by Paris as a focus for international interest in design and the decorative arts. By the nineteenth century British design was widely admired and copied. Its products could be found right across the globe from palaces and stately homes to the living rooms of ordinary people. Scènes d'intérieur Bruno Foucart, 2002. Victorian Animal Dreams Deborah Denenholz Morse, Martin A. Danahay, 2017-05-15. The Victorian period witnessed the beginning of a debate on the status of animals that continues today. This volume explicitly acknowledges the way twenty first century deliberations about animal rights and the fact of past and prospective animal extinction haunt the discussion of the Victorians' obsession with animals. Combining close attention to historical detail with a sophisticated analytical framework the contributors examine the various forms of human dominion over animals including imaginative possession of animals in the realms of fiction performance and the visual arts as well as physical control as manifest in hunting killing vivisection and zookeeping. The diverse range of topics analyzed from a contemporary perspective makes the volume a significant contribution to Victorian studies. The conclusion by Harriet Ritvo the pre-eminent authority in the field of Victorian animal studies provides valuable insight into the burgeoning field of animal studies and points toward future studies of animals in the Victorian period. Current Contents Institute for Scientific Information (Philadelphia), 1993 Mirabella, 1992 Bibliographie D'histoire de L'art, 1996.
