Praet,2012-11-13 For too long marketers have been asking the wrong question If consumers make decisions unconsciously why do we persist in asking them directly through traditional marketing research why they do what they do They simply can't tell us because they don't really know Before marketers develop strategies they need to recognize that consumers have strategies too human strategies not consumer strategies We need to go beyond asking why and begin to ask how behavior change occurs Here author Douglas Van Praet takes the most brilliant and revolutionary concepts from cognitive science and applies them to how we market advertise and consume in the modern digital age Van Praet simplifies the most complex object in the known universe the human brain into seven codified actionable steps to behavior change These steps are illustrated using real world examples from advertising marketing media and business to consciously unravel what brilliant marketers and ad practitioners have long done intuitively deconstructing the real story behind some of the greatest marketing and business successes in recent history such as Nike's Just Do It campaign Got Milk Wendy's Where's the Beef and the infamous Volkswagen Punch Buggy launch as well as their beloved The Force Mini Darth Vader Super Bowl commercial

Bolender's Guide to Mastering Mountain and Extreme Trail Riding Mark Bolender,2012-04-20 Good horsemanship is not about domination but leadership and having the horse volunteer for a partnership with the handler That summarizes the focus of trainer and author Mark Bolender In Bolender's Guide to Mastering Mountain and Extreme Trail Riding he spells out his philosophy and training regimen that works to build mutual trust between a horse and rider Bolender's training method developed to incorporate the horse's natural instincts is appropriate for riders of any skill level from those who want to ride for pleasure to those who seek more advanced techniques for Mountain and Extreme Trail competition Bolender the world's most winning competitor in Mountain and Extreme Trail combines old style philosophies with new insight into the horse's world In this guide he provides an array of information selecting an ideal trail horse acquiring the proper equipment earning and building trust and handling obstacles such as poles and logs rocks trenches water gates bridges campsites re other animals and people Instructive and informative the guide breaks down Bolender's techniques into easy to digest pieces It provides a fascinating journey into the horse's mind and how its instincts can be used to develop good horsemanship
