Rifling Paradise:

Rifling Paradise Jem Poster, 2008-02-05 A dubious character experiences a shattering change of heart during his specimen collecting expedition to Australia Edgy intense and engrossing Kirkus Reviews When past indiscretions catch up with Charles Redbourne a minor English landowner he is propelled from England to Australia where he plans to make his mark as a naturalist There his life begins to change dramatically not least when he meets his host's wayward artistic daughter But it is on an expedition in search of scientific specimens in the Blue Mountains that events take a terrifying turn Vividly conveying the unspoken codes of Victorian society this is a gripping tale of emotional and psychological reckoning that offers an inspired meditation on the relationship between humankind and the natural world Immediately gripping An epic tale whose figures in landscape encapsulate a turning point in history The Times Literary Supplement Poster's prose is at its best when describing the flora and fauna exotic birds especially the sounds and smells of the outback A stylish assured and thoughtful narrative The Guardian Violence seethes perpetually just below the surface all the more powerful for the author's restraint Rifling Paradise is one of those historical novels that continually confronts us with our present world the world created out of the brutality and disaster of the past but also out of its graces a world we may not yet be mature enough to save Historical Novels

Courting Shadows Jem Poster, 2009-01-27 A fantastically tightly written read every word novel As a psychological thriller it's as close to wonderful as anything I've recently read The Guardian In the winter of 1881 John Stannard a young architect is in self-imposed exile in a remote English village carrying out repairs to the parish church Arrogant and insensitive to what he considers superstition and sentimental attachment to the past he soon begins to inflict serious damage on the ancient building as well as on those with whom he comes into contact most notably the beautiful ambitious local girl Ann Rosewell This is the mesmerizing tale of a man who clings ferociously to his warped notion of civilized behavior unwilling to admit his need for love Set in a vividly evoked landscape and taut with foreboding Jem Poster's striking first novel pits reason against emotion progress against preservation and explores our capacity for invention and self-delusion the stories we tell each other and the stories we tell ourselves A dazzling debut Wholly involving from start to finish Publishers Weekly starred review Written in lavishly beautiful prose this is a consistently tense tale of rationality self-delusion and epidemic superstition Booklist

Beacons Gregory Norminton, 2013-03-01 An incredible collection of stories for our shared planet from the likes of Joanne Harris Toby Litt and Liz Jensen A riveting and provocative collection of short fiction Beacons throws down the gauntlet to award-winning writers challenging them to devise original responses to the climate crisis From Joanne Harris cautionary tale of a world where outside has become a thing of the past to Nick Hayes graphic depiction of the primeval bond between man and nature each story thrills the senses as it attempts to make sense of a world warping into something unfamiliar Original eclectic and inventive Beacons warns and inspires by offering stories that are as various as our possible futures All author royalties will go to the Stop Climate Chaos Coalition

Neo-Victorian Families Christian Gutleben,2011 Tracing representations of re imagined Victorian families in literature film and television and social discourse this collection the second volume in Rodopi s Neo Victorian Series analyses the historical trajectory of persistent but increasingly contested cultural myths that coalesce around the heterosexual couple and nuclear family as the supposed normative foundation of communities and nations past and present It sheds new light on the significance of families as a source of fluctuating cultural capital deployed in diverse arenas from political debates social policy and identity politics to equal rights activism and analyses how residual as well as emergent ideologies of family are mediated and critiqued by contemporary arts and popular culture This volume will be of interest to researchers and students of neo Victorian studies as well as scholars in contemporary literature and film studies cultural studies and the history of the family Situating the nineteenth century family both as a site of debilitating trauma and the means of ethical resistance against multivalent forms of oppression neo Victorian texts display a fascinating proliferation of alternative family models albeit overshadowed by the apparent recalcitrance of familial ideologies to the same historical changes neo Victorianism reflects and seeks to promote within the cultural imaginary Transforming Anthony Trollope Laurence

Australian Book Review ,2006 Gabriel'S Extinguishing the Atomic Hell Series Yousuf Gabriel,2015-07-31 At a time unparalleled in history humanity faces a threat of universal nuclear doomsday with an end result of total annihilation of life on earth Being an enthusiast for global peace with an extensive research background Yousuf Gabriel explores the root cause of the nuclear problem Probing deep into the realms of theology philosophy atomism nuclear science literature and history amid a mist of mystification regarding universal nuclear dilemma Gabriel has tried to resolve the issue in the light of the Scriptures He is a philanthropist who warns humanity about nuclear hell and wants to shun the two edged sword of nuclear energy either for war or so called peaceful purpose Gabriels Extinguishing the Atomic Hell Series serves as the key to the future destiny of this now doomed humankind It is a case of dwindled religion and diminished faith versus science It is based on a miraculous prophecy rather a warning about nuclear hell given by the Quran more than fourteen centuries ago The prophecy has described the characteristics of the age in which atomism was supposed to appear as well as of the people who would become the victims of nuclear fire It has also given the remedial measures and solutions to avoid this nuclear doomsday The whole nuclear phenomena with all its characteristic scientific features is described in its entirety by this prophecy of the Holy Quran The major focus of criticism is the philosophy of Francis Bacon who preferred natural philosophy over moral philosophy for mans right of dominion over nature for the material utility Educate yourself about the dreadful outcome of adopting nuclear energy whether for war or peaceful purposes Learn how after a prolonged use of nuclear energy human and animal species may be converted to abhorrent monsters and chimeras Enlighten yourself in the light of Scriptures how humanity can avoid this shameful and dreadful end KHALID MALIK The Literary Review ,2006

Branch-lines Guy Cuthbertson,Lucy Newlyn,2008 When Edward Thomas died in the First World War very few of his poems had been published but he is now recognised as one of the finest and most influential poets of the last century Although often referred to as a poet s poet his writing has an almost universal appeal He wrote accessibly on traditional themes the natural world human relationships transience and mortality And yet his poetry is alive with the critical intelligence that came from years of writing non fiction and reviewing verse Branch Lines captures the range of Thomas s achievement not least by combining poetry with prose In this unique collection fifty five contemporary poets reflect on Thomas s craftsmanship and enduring power Some have chosen poems of their own in which they detect his influence others have written new poems in his honour Each poet has also contributed a piece of prose and the volume contains an introduction four critical essays illustrations a Foreword by Andrew Motion and an Afterword by Michael Longley Branch Lines offers a fascinating perspective on the workings of literary influence with personal insights from some of the leading poet critics of our time The collection has a double value It is a celebration of Thomas and dignified tribute to his achievement at the same time it bears witness to his powers of regeneration Andrew Motion CONTRIBUTORS INCLUDE Dannie Abse Gillian Clarke David Constantine Robert Crawford Kevin Crossley Holland Peter Dale Jane Draycott U A governing idea of her 2005 study Shakespeare on the Edge Lisa Hopkins expands the parameters of her investigation beyond England to include the Continent and beyond Shakespeare to include a number of dramatists ranging from Christopher Marlowe to John Ford Hopkins also expands her notion of liminality to explore not only geographical borders but also the intersection of the material and the spiritual more generally tracing the contours of the edge which each inhabits Making a journey of its own by starting from the most literally liminal of physical structures walls and ending with the wholly invisible
