Discursive Geographies / Géographies discursives ,2005-01-01 The present collection of essays follows in the wake of recent work in cultural geography challenging the idea that maps are scientifically neutral entities or that space unlike time is immobile In defining space place and geography as forms of textuality the essays collected in this volume examine the ways in which postcolonial and metropolitan literary and filmic texts in French can at once inscribe and produce place and space and thereby participate in forms of discursive geographies Contributors Fran ois Bon Alexandre Dauge Roth Habiba Deming Zakaria Fatih Jeanne Garane Patricia Geesey Greg Hainge Sir ne Harb Jean Luc Joly Chantal Kalisa Michel Laronde Val rie Loichot Mary McCullough Michael O Riley Pascale Perraudin Walter Putnam Antoine St phani Abdourahman A Waberi

The Land Without Shadows Abdourahman A. Waberi,2005 Originally published in France in 1994 this newly translated collection presents stories about the precolonial and colonial past of Djibouti alongside those set in the postcolonial era With irony and humor these short stories portray madmen poets artists French colonists pseudointellectuals young women aspiring politicians famished refugees khat chewers nomads struggling to survive in Djibouti s ruthless natural environment or tramps living and dying in Balbala the shantytown that stretches to the south of the capital Cover Afroeuropa@ns

Marta Sofía López,2009-03-26 The essays in this groundbreaking collection constitute a pioneering attempt at establishing a comparative agenda for the study of black literatures and identities in the context of the European Union Drawing from a wide variety of critical perspectives and methodologies from Post colonial or Diaspora Studies to Sociology or Ethnography contributors to the volume analyze black diasporic communities and their cultural productions in Spain Portugal France Italy Germany and the United Kingdom paying particular attention to women afrosporic writers Encyclopedia of African

Aibo,2020-02-15 Starting with the premise that aesthetic choices reveal the ideological stances of translators the author of this research monograph examines works of fiction by postcolonial African authors writing in English or French the genesis and reception of their works and the translation of each one into French or English Texts include those by Nuruddin Farah from Somalia Abdourahman Ali Waberi from Djibouti Jean Marie Adiaffi from C te d Ivoire Ayi Kwei Armah from Ghana Chenjerai Hove from Zimbabwe and Assia Djebar from Algeria and their translations by Jacqueline Bardolph Jeanne Garane Brigitte Katiyo Jean Pierre Richard Josette and Robert Mane and Dorothy Blair The author highlights the aural poetics of these works explores the sound motifs underlying their literary power and shows how each is articulated with the writer s literary heritage She then embarks on a close examination of each translator s background followed by a rich analysis of their treatments of sound The translators strategies for addressing sound motifs are contextualized in the larger framework of postcolonial literatures and changing reading materialities

Black France Dominic Thomas, 2007 Without a doubt one of the most important studies so far completed on literature in French grounded in the experiences of migrants of sub Saharan African origin Alec Hargreaves Florida State University France has always hosted a rich and vibrant black presence within its borders But recent violent events have raised questions about France's treatment of ethnic minorities Challenging the identity politics that have set immigrants against the mainstream Black France explores how black expressive culture has been reformulated as global culture in the multicultural and multinational spaces of France Thomas brings forward questions such as Why is France a privileged site of civilization Who is French Who is an immigrant Who controls the networks of production Black France poses an urgently needed reassessment of the French colonial legacy Dictionary of African Biography Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2012-02-02 From the Pharaohs to Fanon Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa's history Unprecedented in scale DAB covers the whole continent from Tunisia to South Africa from Sierra Leone to Somalia It also encompasses the full scope of history from Queen Hatsheput of Egypt 1490 1468 BC and Hannibal the military commander and strategist of Carthage 243 183 BC to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana 1909 1972 Miriam Makeba and Nelson Mandela of South Africa 1918 The Undergraduate's Companion to African Writers and Their Web Sites Miriam E. Conteh-Morgan, 2005-10-30 Now a firmly established part of world literature course offerings in many general education curricula African literature is no longer housed exclusively with African Studies programs and is often studied in English French Portuguese Women's Studies and Comparative Studies departments This book helps fill the great need for research materials on this topic presenting the best resources available for 300 African writers These writers have been carefully selected to include both well known writers and those less commonly studied yet highly influential They are drawn from both the Sub Sahara and the Maghreb the major geographical regions of Africa The study of Africa was introduced into the curriculum of institutions of higher learning in the United States in the 1960s when the Black Consciousness movement in the United States and the Cold War and decolonization movements in Africa created a need for the systematic study of other regions of the world Between 1986 and 1991 three Africans won Nobel literature prizes Soyinka Mahfouz and Gordimer and the visibility of African writers increased They are now a firmly established part of world literature courses in many general education curricula throughout North America African Writers is meant to serve as a resource for introductory material on 300 writers from 39 countries These writers were selected on the basis on two criteria that there is material on them in an easily available reference work and that there is some information of research value on free Web sites Each writer is from the late 19th or 20th century with the notable exception of Olaudah Equiano an 18th century African whose slave narrative is generally considered the first work of African literature All entries are annotated A Regional Geography of the British Isles and Europe Leonard Brooks, 1921 The Road Less Traveled Ali Jimale Ahmed, Tadesse Adera, 2008 A horn is an instrument either for protection or destruction The horn in the Horn of Africa has for so long turned inward and on its people thus victimizing those it was supposed to defend The ensuing internecine bloodletting has thrown the region into an abyss out of which it is still struggling to emerge Much of the story of this abyss is captured in social political economic and literary treatises written by indigenous and international experts Rarely however has there been a single volume that brings together keen analyses of the expressive arts of Djibouti Eritrea Ethiopia Somalia and Sudan The Road Less Traveled is the first book of its kind It brings together in the same volume essays on the literatures of the Horn of Africa written by renowned regional and international scholars All the countries in the region their major writers and the genres through which the people in the Horn express themselves are given careful attention The volume also includes essays that traverse borders and or transgress generic delineations delimitations The essays in the volume attest to a simple fact namely that through the arts humans weave a labyrinthine system of symbolic representations that bear witness to lives lived or imagined And while in the Horn of Africa catastrophes may abound the calamity that besets this region can equally be explained through its antiphony the perseverance and cosmic albeit cautious optimism of its people A horn after all is also a way of making music
